Secretary Blaine Resigns.

Secretary of State Blaine astonished the country on Saturday last by tendering his resignation of that high office to President Harrison, who promptly accepted it.

THE RESIGNATION.

I respectfully beg leave to submit my resignation of the office of Secretary of State of the United States, to which I was appointed by you on the 5th of March, 1889.

JAMES G. BLAINE.

THE ACCEPTANCE.

Your letter of this date, tendering your resignation of the office of Secretary of State of the United States, has been received. The terms in which you state your desires are such as to leave me no choice but to accede to your wishes at once.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

Coming thus on the very eve of the Republican National Convention, the occurrence has set the people to wondering, the first impulse being to construe Mr. Blaine's action as a virtual acquiescence in the movement to nominate him for President.

Political Palaver.

Protection does not protect foreign manufacturers. The tariff is a terror—to Democrats and foreigners.

Democratic dark horses are keeping well groomed these days. They say that Hill has nipped the New York Flower in the bud.

As a popular economist, Watch-Dog Holman is very unpopular. Col. Watterson has been resting his mouth for as much as a week.

Mr. Gorman will not unmoor his boom until about the last week in June.

"Boies or bust" is the Democratic slogan in Iowa, and it is quite likely it will.

The "Billion-Dollar Congress" will not be in it with the bi-billion dollar Congress.

Among other things Holman is saying up in his record. But that will not pay him profitable interest.

Cleveland would be more likely to be the Democratic nominee were it not for the May convention in New York.

It takes Mr. Holman of Indiana, a long time to discover the difference between judicious economy and injudicious stinginess.

No matter how unmistakably stupid a Democratic editor is, he can get himself quoted in the New York Sun by booming Hill.

John R. McLean announces to an expectant Democracy, through his paper, that he has no candidate for President. This means the collapse of the Hill boom.

The Republican national convention at Minneapolis had accomplished nothing definite in the direction of a nomination up to last evening, and it is not expected that a ballot will be reached before to-morrow.

Blaine and Harrison are about the only ones talked of.

No Republican should absent himself from the primaries next Saturday. The polls will be opened at 2:00 p. m. and remain open till 7:00.

Congress has not done all it has to do, but the Democrats are afraid to do anything more, so it is doubtful whether Congress will get itself adjourned this summer.

HON. LEWIS EMERY denounces as a canard the report that he intends running as a fusion candidate on the Democratic People's party ticket for Congress in the 37th district.

NEW CONVERT.—Eph. Colman is singing the praises of tin, tin, American tin. He has a consignment from Apollo, Pa., and stubbornly claims it to go ahead of any imported metal he ever used.

REPUBLICAN PRIMARY ELECTION. Pursuant to a Resolution of the County Committee, passed May 16th, 1892, it is ordered that the Republican voters of Forest meet on SATURDAY, JUNE 11th, 1892, at 2 o'clock p. m., at the following named places of holding primary elections to-wit: Barnett, Jacob Mace's Carpenter Shop, Barnett, at Reddelyffe.

Attention is called to the Act of June 8th, 1892, regulating Primary Elections, that Judges and Clerks, before entering upon the discharge of their duties shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation in presence of each other.

RULES GOVERNING THE REPUBLICAN PRIMARY ELECTIONS OF FOREST COUNTY.

- 1. The candidates for the several offices shall have their names announced in one or more of the county papers at least three weeks previous to the Primary Meetings stating the office, and subject to the action of the party at the said primary meetings.

—And now as to mowing machines! Scowden & Clark handle the D. S. Osborn machine, which, while not thoroughly known in this section, are still up with the best of them.
