THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION OF FOREST COUNTY.

The Republican convention of Forest county assembled at the Court House, pursuant to rules of the party, at 2 o'clock, June 14, 1892.

While the nomination of President Harrison is somewhat of a disappointment to the admirers of Secretary Blaine, whom it was hoped would finally give his consent to run, on sober, second thought there is a disposition to accept the result as one of the best that could have been accomplished.

The result of the count on the question of County Treasurer, was found to be 555 votes for Quintain Jamieson, 408 votes for A. M. Douthett.

J. F. Proper received 22 votes for County Surveyor, and was made the nominee of the party for that office.

At Byromtown 31 votes were cast for Hon. M. S. Quay for United States Senator.

The next thing in order was the election of a Chairman for the ensuing year. Amos F. Ledebur of Starr, was placed in nomination, and he was unanimously elected.

Mr. Parrish offered the following resolutions and moved their adoption:

1st. That we reaffirm our adherence to the principles of the Republican party as enunciated in the platform adopted at Minneapolis by the Republican National Convention.

2d. We commend the able and statesmanlike administration of President Harrison, and hereby pledge to him, on behalf of the Republican party of Forest county, our earnest and cordial support, believing that his wise, patriotic and business-like administration of the affairs of Government in the past, entitle him to our undivided support.

3d. We also endorse the Senatorial career of Senator M. S. Quay, and recognize and appreciate the value of his services to the policy of protection to American industry, and his unwavering fidelity to the Republican party and its principles; and hereby instruct our Representative to use all honorable means to secure his reelection.

4th. In conclusion, we unqualifiedly endorse the County candidates and pledge to them our hearty support.

The resolutions were adopted as read, after a resolution by Mr. Mooney to strike out that part instructing the "Representative to use all honorable means to secure his (Senator Quay's) reelection," had been defeated by a vote of 13 to 5.

At the conclusion of the regular business of the convention Capt. Haight was called for and in a modest but earnest way thanked the Republicans of the county through their representatives for the honor conferred upon him in making him their choice for the office of Assembly. He said if elected he would endeavor to faithfully discharge his duty to his constituency, and merit the confidence reposed in him. His few remarks were well received and heartily applauded.

Quintain Jamieson, the successful candidate for County Treasurer, was called for and responded by heartily thanking the party for the confidence shown in making him the candidate and the handsome vote accorded him.

Mr. Ledebur, the new Chairman, and one of the faithful and energetic young Republicans of the county, gave the convention a neat little speech for the honor and compliment bestowed in placing him at the head of the committee which will have charge of the important campaign soon to open.

A most hearty vote of thanks was unanimously tendered to the retiring Chairman, Sheriff Osgood, for his faithful work in the last campaign, whereupon the genial Sheriff modestly blushed, but declined to make a speech.

The convention throughout was lively but harmonious, and with three rousing cheers for the whole ticket adjourned sine die.

HARRISON AND REID.

The Republican national convention at Minneapolis finished its work on Friday with the re-nomination of President Harrison, with Hon. Whitelew Reid, the distinguished editor of the New York Tribune, as his running mate. The nomination of the President was made on the first ballot, he receiving 536½ votes, 811 more than were necessary to a choice.

While the nomination of President Harrison is somewhat of a disappointment to the admirers of Secretary Blaine, whom it was hoped would finally give his consent to run, on sober, second thought there is a disposition to accept the result as one of the best that could have been accomplished.

The mass of the party will realize that fact after temporary excitements have quieted down. Harrison's administration is not assailable nor is his personal character vulnerable.

He comes nearer being a great man than most persons who have occupied the Presidential chair. In the matter of general ability, backed by calm judgment and decisive convictions, he has had no superior among White House occupants during the lifetime of this generation.

It is high time for some of the papers to throw aside that false emblem of a small man wearing Grandfather's Hat. Benj. Harrison is vastly greater than any of his ancestry, and his ample head calls for the big size of hat worn by the brainiest Presidents.

Those who would belittle him are men who could not use him. He stated it well in an admirable little speech last night: "I think I have sometimes been suspected of being very little of a politician, from the fact that I have never drawn personal lines inside my party."

The comments of the press all over the country are in the same strain. The Philadelphia Times, whose Democracy scarcely ever allows it to acknowledge any good in Republican things, sees the handwriting, and says: "If there are any who assume that President Harrison will be a weak candidate in the great national battle of 1892 and that his defeat will be of easy accomplishment, they are greatly in error. Harrison is a strong candidate—of that let all in interest take timely notice."

—And now as to mowing machines! Scowden & Clark handle the D. S. Osborn machine, which, while not thoroughly known in this section, are still up with the best of them. They will guarantee them to be such, and will put them up with any machine on the market in all respects.

To cap the climax they offer them for sale at $45, which is far below the selling price of all others, thus saving customers the usual agent's commission and more too. All they ask is a trial of the machine, as each one is sold with a positive guarantee to give perfect satisfaction. They also handle the Thomas hay rake, which they sell for less money than anybody else will sell you a rake for. Come and see us; we are ready to stand over every claim we make.

We have never had such a fine array of harvest machines to show farmers as this season. Every one shows inventive skill, strength and symmetry derived from the touch of WALTER A. WOOD.

The Wood machines, as made for 1892, are winning crowds of new friends. Examine the new chain-drive, and balance-reel, on the Wood harvester. Examine the new spring lift and the new axle extension on the Wood mowers. Examine the Wood hand-dump rakes, virtually self-dumping.

We use Alcohol pure alcohol to make Wolff's ACME BLACKING. Alcohol is good for leather. It is good for the skin. Alcohol is the chief ingredient of Cologne, Florida Water, and Bay Rum the well known face washes. We think there is nothing so costly to use in a good leather preservative.

Acme Blacking retails at 20c. and at that price sells readily. Many people are accustomed to buying a dressing or blacking at 5c. and 10c. a bottle that they cannot understand that a blacking can be cheap at 20c. We want to meet them with cheapness if we can, and to accomplish this we offer a reward of $10,000 for a recipe which will enable us to make Wolff's ACME BLACKING at such a price that a retailer can profitably sell it at 10c. a bottle. We hold this offer open until Jan. 1st, 1893.
