BOURKE COUHEAN's great speech in the Chicago convention, telling why Cleveland could not be elected, is not being distributed as a Democratic campaign document.

THE strikes which occur in this country are nearly always caused by the prospects offered the laboring men for bettering their condition. They see reasons that entitle them to hope for improvement and they grow impatient to enjoy it and strike to enforce their demands for it. These are not the hopes that strikers in other countries have any grounds for barboring

JERRY SIMPSON came very nearly being mobbed in his own district in Kansas when Judge Botkin quoted from an article in which he had intimated that times were so hard with his people that "men sell their honor, women their virtue, children become criminals and outcasts." Simpson tried to explain that his reference was to people in New York and Boston, but the article, which appeared over his signature in the National Watchman of May 2d, does not show it.

HERE is what Bismark thought about protection in 1882 and he says "The success of the United States in material development is the most illustrious of modern times.
