The Ballot Changed.

The secretary of state upon the advice of the attorney general, based upon questions raised and suggestions made by Republican State Chairman Raeder, has decided to change the form of "official ballot" some time ago agreed upon by him and w county commissioners and others were directed to follow. As originally, though incorrectly prepared by the secretary of state, the ballot was made with all the Republican nominees in one column, the Democratic nominces in another and so on and a single cross mark (x) opposite the party name would stand to indicate a vote for the entire party ticket.

Instead of this under the new decis ion of the attorney general candidates will be arranged in groops, the electors congress at large and supreme judge comprising one; candidates for congress, senate, members of assembly and judges each constituting a group and a county ticket making up the final group. Therefore, to vote a full party ticket it will be necessary to make a cross mark at each group instead of a single cross mark at the head of the ticket. The ballot will be printed personal work should be undertaken with all the Republicans in one, the first, column, and all the Democrats in the next, as in the original form sent out The blank spaces will still be left in the last column of the ballot.

PAY your taxes, Republicans, October 8 is the last day.

For Their Comrade.

When we read of Cleveland vetoing hundreds of pension bills and Stevenson's disloyal conduct during the war, soldier caudidate, and read what he publican newspaper, and find out what the facts really are. Many things have oc hone, New York, recently. Here is Benjamin Harrison has satisfied the peo-

"And now, comrades of the Grand given the country a clean, pure, efficient Army of the Republic, surviving veterans of that gallant band that from on the present canvass ?" the veteran these mountains and valleys went out rade's greeting to day. God bless you, "As to that," replied Senator Sherman, every one. God forgive the heartlessness of that American on this bright day of prosperity and unity who can begrudge to any one of you the just act framed with a view not only to secure begrudge to any one of you the just dues of your hard service."

Is it any wonder that the soldiers who fought for the Union are going to vote for their old comrade whom they Is it any wonder that the soldiers all love and revere? Is it any wonder that they refuse to vote for a man whom General Sickles denounced as having persistently insulted the sold doctrine of the Democratic party, proclaimed in former national platforms and supported by the declarations of Jefferson, of '61 is not dead in this country.

GENERAL SICKLES, who has been a life-long Democrat, and who opposed Cleveland's nomination at Chicago, made a speech at the G. A. R. reunion at Washington, at the conclusion of which he said, speaking of Harrison: "and, comrades, it is a glorious fact that the chief executive of this great country of ours did not shirk his duty and send a substitute in the crisis of 1861." At the reunion of the third Corps, where General Sickles was one of the prominent speakers be took oc casion to say: "I voted once for a Presidential candidate who had sent a substitute to the front, but I don't think you will eateh me voting this fall for a ticket that has two such citizens on it." And that's the way the wind is blowing in all quarters. Grover wa'nt "in it" in '61 and he wont be in it in '92.

WHEN Senator Hill was likely to knock Cleveland out for the nomination, he was the biggest rascal outside of Sing Sing, according to most of the Democratic organs. Since he has made a speech in which he barely mentioned Cleveland's name, and then because he could'nt get around it, you'd think he was a bigger man than old Grover himself, by reference to these same Democratic fellows. And no doubt he is. Funny, ain't it?

SOUND ADVICE

The Veteran Leader Addresses His Fellow Republicans.

Necessity of Organization and a Close Personal Canvass.

A Strong Presentation of the Republican Policy of Protection and a Severe Arraignment of the Demoreney's Free Tends Plank of the Chicago Convention by a Tried and Experienced Statesman.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 21. That veteran statesman, John Sherman responded with surprising vim and spirit when he was asked to chat about the outlook of the national campaign. Every Republican can find sound advice in his interesting talk. "The Republican party need have no fear of the outcome of this presidential canvass if proper steps are taken to organize their forces and clearly present to the people the vital banes of the campaign," said Senator Sherman deliberately. 'From what I understand, the manage ment of the Republican national organization is in skilled and trusted hands, and with the very able and foreible pre sentation of the Republican side in the president's message we may congratulate urselves on having started out so well.

"There should be no delay in beginning the work of organization. Where clubs are already of anized they should seek to extend their influence, to gather in new members, to find out those persons in their respective communities who are Republicans or who incline to support the Repub

JOHN SHERMAN. ican ticket, and to give them the opportu mity of joining the club and of participating in its efforts. Where there are signs of disaffection, of factional difficulty, or even which will bring the right influences to bear for the removal of every source of Advice to Republicans. "Success can only be guaranteed by close, compact and complete organization, and then by personal effort on the part of all those citizens who believe that the country is better off under a Republican than under a Democratic administration. Let those who so believe get together in their various communities. Let them talk over the issues of the campaign with their neighbors. Let them equip themselves for a discussion by a careful study of the Re-publican newspapers and Republican doc-uments. If they hear a Democratic argu-ment advanced which they are not sufficiently informed to answer let them write a turn to Benjamin Harrison, the to the state committee or to some good Reple, that they regard him as a man of ster-ling honesty and high ability, who has

> "What about the tariff and its bearing statesman was asked.

"As to that," replied Senator Sherman, as he moved in his chair, crossed his legs and smilingly addressed the interviewer, ample revenue for the support of the gov-ernment, but with a distinct purpose to and proclaimed by the Democratic party in its national platform can protect and foster our home industries. Mr. Tilden Madison and Jackson, was a wise and constitutional exercise of national power constitutional exercise of national power. This doctrine has been abandoned and denounced by the Democratic platform recently adopted by the Chicago convention. A tariff framed in accordance with this new doctrine would be confined simply to levying revenue duties, excluding the idea of protection, and that is the purpose and object of the men who made the platform and of the men in the Democratic convention that adopted it by a large majority. Such a tariff might be levied exclusively on articles we cannot produce in the country, such as sugar, coffee and teather than the country of the platform and Beat Tariff.

The Fairest and Best Tariff.

"I have believed that as to certain items in different tariffs we have gone beyond the line of protection which is necessary to foster American industries. A few rates have been adopted that I think will exclude competition between foreign and American productions, and secure a monoply to the American manufacturers. This I do not believe to be a wise policy. There are some details of the McKinley tariff bill that may be subject to this objection, but, on the whole, it is the fairest and best tariff, not only for revenue but for protection, that has had a place on our statute books. The tariff plank of the Republican convention at Minnespolis is the clearest statement of the extent of protection favored by the great mass of Republicans of this country. The actual result of the McKinley hill has been not only to give to all American industries reasonable protection, but has increased our foreign trade, enlarged our experis and our imports, and greatly encouraged and adical to all kinds of American productions, whether of the field or of the workshop." The Fairest and Best Tariff.
