The will of the late Thomas Struthers, of Warren, has been admitted to probate. The executors and trustees are S. P. Johnson, J. P. Jefferson, W. J. Alexander and Homer E. Stewart. The original will gave one-third of the estate to his grandson, Thomas Struthers Wetmore, and twothirds to the heirs of his brother John, and the beirs of his sister Ann McBride and Matilda Gilbrarth, It also made several minor bequests. By a codicil he revokes the portion given to his grandson, Wetmore, and disposes of that third the same as he does the other two-thirds-to the heirs of his brother and sisters.

That is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. I used Paster Keenig's Norve Tonic for nervous trouble caused by overwork, and found it all that it is claimed to be. After using one buttle it had the desired effect, and I can truly recommend it to all suffering a like complaint, as a really wonderful remedy. SAML. THEEW. Pressioner, Pa., Oct. 19, 30.

For seven years my eldest daughter had fainting spells and spasms. Last June she took the first of Paster Koenig's Nerve Tonic, and since that time they have entirely coased.

It is not unusual for colds contracted in the fall to hang on all winter. In such cases catarrh or chronic bronchitis are almost sure to result. A fifty cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will cure any cold. Can you afford to risk so much for so small an amount? This remedy is intended especially for bad colds and croup and can always be depended upon. For alle by Siggins & Nason.
