LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Get out the vote.
—Oil market closed yesterday 50¢.
—Vote straight, Republicans; don't take the risk of splitting your ticket.

—Mrs. W. J. Bleskey, of Franklin, is a guest at the home of S. D. Irwin Esq.
—Harvey Lynch of East Hickory, gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call yesterday.

—Read Chairman Ledebur's address on second page. It is sound and puts the question straight home.

—Mr. J. A. Byerly, representing one of the leading lumber firms of Buffalo, spent a few hours in town Monday on business.

—It's smoky enough hereabouts to indicate Indian summer, but there's most too much moisture for that usual pleasant season of the year.

—The turkey is already eyeing with suspicion the extra allowance of corn given him, and keeping a watch on the calendar for Thanksgiving day.

—Mr. and Mrs. Kelly were summoned home from Chicago last week by the illness of their little boy, Howard, who is now much better, and will soon be around again.

—Boy wanted—to do chores and attend school this winter, by W. H. Carbaugh, Newmansville, Pa. Work light and will be kept in school regularly. Reference exchanged. 2t —Now shoot quail and rabbits.

The former game is a curiosity in this section of country, and there is not much danger that the market will be glutted with little Bob White.

—The boys got in their pranks to some extent on Halloween, but their mischief must have been of a fairly respectable character, as we have heard no serious complaints from any quarter.

—Our thanks are due Mrs. A. B.
Kelly for a souvenir program of the dedicatory ceremonies of the World's Fair, a very finely executed and instructive pamphlet, which is highly prized.

—A fountain pen belonging to Sheriff Osgood has turned up missing, and if any one has a stray one about his person or should find such, they will confer a great favor on the Sheriff by handing same to him.

—The Hallows' social given by the Christian Endeavor society last Saturday was a very pleasant and unique affair throughout. The proceeds were more than was anticipated and will contribute nicely toward swelling the society's fund.

—Milwaukee, Wis., was visited by a terrible conflagration last Friday, and much of the business portion of the place is now a mass of ruins. The losses are estimated at nearly $10,000,000.
Many poorer people are homeless and will need help.

—Lumbago cured by two applications. Mr. H. C. Rigby, Baltimore, Md., Special Agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York says:
"Take pleasure in stating that two applications of Salvation Oil cured me of a severe attack of Lumbago."

—Will Klinefelter has accepted a position in the insurance office of Mitchell & Shawkey at Warren, and departed with his family for that place on Monday. The best wishes of their Tionesta friends go with them to their new home.

—Judge Mitchell of the Supreme Court, has handed down an opinion to the effect that constables' and justices costs and fees are not, under existing laws, properly chargeable to the county unless imposed by sovereign legislative authority.

—Charles Larabee, who was sentenced to the Western Penitentiary for life, from Venango county, for the murder of a colored man named Lew Williams, and who was pardoned a few years ago, has been arrested near Brookville, for horse stealing.

—Foster, in his recent remarks about the weather, says: "We will not have much wintry weather in the Northern States before the middle of November, and no real winter until the middle of December. The winter will be very severe in January and February."

—The Mt. Jewett Herald makes this righteous kick: We bet the officials of the P. & W. rail road are not Republicans & they never would have the unmitigated gall to expect over $100 to run a special train of two coaches from Mt. Jewett to Kane and return a distance of only twelve miles.

—Herman Blum, who is working on a timber job at Devil Hollow, opposite Jug Handle run, lost a fox hound, which he will pay $5 for the return of.
The dog is mainly of a brown color, with heavy white spotted chest and large feet; eyes red, and answers to the name of "Towner."

—How to get up barbecued oysters: Drain a dozen large oysters, dust them over with pepper, and cut an equal number of thin slices of bacon and then an oyster and bacon and so on, alternating, on an iron skewer, taking care not to crowd them, and roast in a very hot oven until the bacon begins to crisp. Serve hot in a covered dish.

—It is a great domestic remedy, and should be kept in every home, Mr. Norman Cheatman, Waverly, Sussex Co., Va., who has never been without it for twelve years subscribes to this opinion. He says: "Our family has been using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for twelve years and are never without it in the house. It is invaluable."

—Everything is in readiness for the election under the new ballot law in Forest county. The paraphernalia—guard rails, booths, ballot boxes, etc.— have been sent out and doubtless are all properly placed by this time. The ballots will be ready to go forward at the proper time, and all that's necessary now is for Republicans to whoop up the vote and record an old time victory.

—The much hoped for rain of last Friday and Saturday put the river in fine boating stage, and twenty barges and about as many more flat boats, which had been awaiting a rise at the river bridge, "tied loose" and started for the lower markets Monday, where, with favorable weather, they will reach by the last of this week, giving the boys ample time to return and cast the big ballot.

—Sheriff Osgood swoops down upon us again this week and monopolizes a lot more of our space, much to the discomfiture of the reading matter. The Sheriff is not wholly inconsiderate, however, for he advertises some very valuable property for sale, which in a measure compensates for the encroachment. After this week we shall endeavor to give the usual amount of reading, or nearly so.

—Chairman Frank Reeder, of the Republican State Committee agrees with the officials of the Republican City Committee that the polls close at the guard rail at 7 o'clock, and that all voters inside of the rail at that hour who have received ballots have the right to mark them and deposit them in the ballot box. The legal advisers of the Democratic Committee hold the same opinion upon that question, and are so instructing the election officers.

—Samuel Graham, J. S. May and Edwin Osborne, of Franklin, who have been hunting in Forest County the past week, went through here at noon to day, on their way home, with a string of ninety-one squirrels.—Bis-smarck. The story is correct, the squirrels having been killed in a radius of six or seven miles of this place in three days, but we hope we violate no confidence when we say that Joe Landers' yaller dog helped out on about 90 of them. He's famous for squirrels.

—Mrs. Catherine Felton, relict of the late Samuel Felton, one of the well remembered and revered pioneers of this section, died at the home of her son-in-law Chester Woodsie, Miller's Station, Crawford county, Pa., on the 23d of October, 1892. Mrs. Felton had attained the ripe old age of 88 years, and was one of the truly good women of her day. She leaves many friends and relatives still living in this section, in whose memory she will live while life remains. May she rest in peace.

THE best estimates of the present status of the political situation gives the Republicans every reason for encouragement. While making a great noise, claiming everything as usual, the Democrats have little hope of carrying New York this year, and without that State they might as well throw up the sponge. The shrewdest politicians say that Harrison will come down to Harlem bridge with 95,000 majority and nobody with brains pretends to say that Cleveland will have more than 75,000 in New York and Kings county. This fact has awakened great hopes in the Republicans ranks, and the greatest enthusiasm prevails in those States which border in the least on the doubtful. Harrison's re-election is already assured, and there will be no free trade for the next four years at least. America is safe. Let us all contribute toward this blessed result by rolling up a majority that will astonish the world.

ALLOW nothing to swerve you from the straight ticket, Republicans!
Don't attempt to split. A mistake and your whole ballot is thrown out.
It is easy if you vote straight. Just put a cross opposite the word "Republican" wherever it occurs in the first column of your ballot. It will require only four crosses. To split will require an unlimited number. Don't try it.

—There is no reason why every Republican vote in the county should not be polled for the straight ticket next Tuesday. Our candidates are clean-headed, honorable men, and deserve the support of every loyal Republican. Let nothing keep you away from the polls, and let no inducement keep you from putting in a straight ticket. This is no time to split. Too much at stake. You endanger your whole ticket. It is easy to vote straight, but difficult to split. Don't attempt it.

—Franklin District Epworth League will hold a convention in the M. E. Church of Tionesta, Monday and Tuesday, Nov. 14 and 15, 1892.
The program embraces a great many topics and work connected with the society, and a large number of people will be present from abroad, the district being one of the most extensive in the Erie Conference. The feature of Monday evening's meeting will be a lecture by Rev. J. Bell Neff. Each charge in the district is expected to send three delegates besides the Pastor.
Where no League is organized, delegates can be otherwise chosen.

—Two men were killed and a third fatally injured at North East, Pa., under singular circumstances. Orrin Sweet, Charles Ketcham and Charles Smith stopped to talk together at a late hour on the depot platform. A Lake Shore & Michigan Southern train drowned the noise of a train approaching from the opposite direction.
Sweet was struck by the pilot beam of the engine and his dead body was hurled against Ketcham, killing him and sending him against Smith with such violence that his death is imminent. The men were deeply engrossed in a political dispute." The foregoing undoubtedly has reference to Orrin Sweet, a former citizen of this county, and a millman of undoubted ability.
The item was found in an exchange of recent date.

—Republicans, do as you would be done by. If you were on the ticket, you would expect the Republicans to not only vote for you, but you would expect them to make an effort to keep the party in line for you. The gentlemen on our ticket deserve this at your hands, and you should not be slow in giving it. They are men of honor and integrity, and their every day walk and conversation is such that citizens can feel a pride in having such to vote for. Again we say, do to them as you would have them, and expect them, to do by you if you were in their position. You will feel better afterward for having done so. We leave it with you. This the last opportunity we will have before election to appeal to your loyalty as Republicans. Stick to your ticket.

—THE REPUBLICAN has lately added steam power to its already complete outfit, and the paper is now regularly run off on a Campbell press, which is propelled by one of the best little large press engines imaginable. Those who have seen it easily handle the large press wonder how the little giant generates its muscle, and expressions of surprise come from all. The engine is run from the works of P. F. Olds & son, Lansing, Mich., and is a real beauty in appearance and a regular John L.
Sullivan in strength. But, dear reader, this costs money, and while we don't intend to make a poor mouth about it, a little help from you delinquent would just now fit in splendidly, and we hope our friends will come and "see the engine" and gently "press the button" we'll do the rest.

—Those of our citizens who remember that genial gentleman, D. A. Henderson, several years ago one of the boys of Tionesta, will appreciate the following story told by C. Z. Gordon at the Columbus Day celebration in Brookville, in response to the sentiment, "Pre-Historic America": When asked to respond to this sentiment I replied that I had not discovered this country, and knew nothing of its history prior to that event. But I'll tell you a story which may throw some light on the subject. Many years ago, when Miss Mary McCormick taught the primary grade of our school, she had a visit one day from two or three of the directors. Desiring to show off her pupils she ranged them in a class before the official visitors to ask them some questions. "Who discovered America?" she asked. No answer.
"Who discovered America?" she repeated, decidedly. Still no answer.
Seizing her rod she approached the nearest pupil, who happened to be Charles Corbet (now one of our leading attorneys) and brandishing it aloft demanded, sternly, "Who discovered America?" Charlie began to whimper, and with sobs in his voice said, "Please ma'am, it wasn't me, it was Dawie Henderson." Henderson is now a school director.

—The secret service division has discovered a counterfeit of the new issue of the two dollar silver certificate, series 1886, check letter B, 2,235.
W. S. Rosecrans, Register, James W.
Hyatt, Treasurer. The most marked difference between the note and the genuine, and a difference which will result in the detection of the counterfeit at a glance, is that the loop of the J in James, in the signature of James W. Hyatt, points directly between the D. C. after Washington in the genuine, while in the counterfeit it is about one-eighth of an inch to the left, or immediately under the letter D. The genuine 2 dollar certificate is still taken on subscription at this office, notwithstanding the danger of getting one of these counterfeits. We take all chances.

—At the Columbus Day celebration at East Brady the set speech of the day was made by Tione-sta's former popular M. E. minister Rev. Rumberger, and judging from the following, which we find in the Review of that place, the Dr. seems to have captivated his audience as usual: "Rev. C. C.
Rumberger was then introduced as the orator of the day and in an instructive and entertaining address held the attention of all present while he portrayed in a masterly manner the events which led up to the discovery of our glorious country by Christopher Columbus, contrasting the achievements of the world at that time with those of the present day, and showing that America easily stands foremost among the nations of the world to-day.
The address showed a painstaking care in its preparation and was one calculated to arouse all the latent fires of patriotism in the breasts of the hearers."

Dr. L. A. Barber and wife are nicely located in their new house on Front street.
Proper & Myers are enlarging their store building by removing their Wm. Carter intends running a livery this winter.
W. S. Gillespie is installed in a neat house of the Tannery Co.'s on the hill.
C. A. Jenkins has returned from a visit to his parents in Michigan. Clarence will assist Mr. Kribbs in the livery business.
Mrs. M. Andrews is fitting up her boarding house lately vacated by W. A.
Kribbs as a store room.

The Tanning Co. are building an addition to their leech room. The new yard will be large enough to contain four years. The election is fast approaching and all voters should study up and know how to cast a correct ballot.

property, to-wit:

CHARLES W. PRATT and DAVID PHILLIPS vs. J. A. WATERHOUSE, HORACE P. PERRIN, C. C. CAMP and J. H. FLETCHER, Levari Facias No. 43, November Term, 1892.—M. H.
Byles, Atty.

All the right, title, interest, claim and demand of the defendants of, in and to all that certain Leasehold estate, situate, being and contained in the Township of Howe and County of Forest and State of Pennsylvania, on lands of A. J. Hazeline, C. W. Stone and W. M. Lindsey, and devised and leased unto T. J. Melvin and A. B. Walker by the said A. J. Hazeline, C. W. Stone and W. M. Lindsey, by virtue of written indeed of leasehold estate, bearing date of May, A. D. 1882, for the term of years from the date thereof, for oil and gas purposes, and recorded in the Record-and Return Book of said County, at page Deed Book No. 16, at page 243, 600, said Leasehold being bounded and described as follows: All that certain Leasehold estate situate in those certain parcels of land situate in the Township of Howe, County of Forest and State of Pennsylvania, being part of Warrant No. 3193, and designated on a plat or draft made by T. E. Barnes, as the south half of subdivision "A" and "C," containing in all one hundred (100) acres, being the same estate created by agreement made July 31, A. D. 1882, between said A. J. Hazeline, W. M. Lindsey and C. W. Stone, with J.
Milton Fuller, recorded in said office in
