

SENATOR CHANDLER has introduced a bill suspending immigration except from North and South America for one year after the 1st of next March.

TIDAL waves in the Presidential years have occurred in 1832, 1852, 1872 and 1892. May we consider that this twenty-year law of periodicity is now firmly established?—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

WE see it stated in several exchanges that Mrs. Lease, who has her eye on the U. S. Senate from Kansas, is a native of both McLean and Erie counties, this State. Several other counties are still to hear from.

CONGRESS met Monday at noon, but adjourned almost the same hour, to await the message of President Harrison, which was read yesterday. It is a strong document, as all of Mr. Harrison's state papers have proved. Next week we hope to lay it before our readers in full.

UNDER the Baker ballot law, any party which polls 3 per centum of the entire vote is entitled to have the names of its nominees printed on the regular ballot without special petition. The prohibitionists of this State, although increasing their vote between 4,000 and 5,000 over 1888, still fall 7,282 below the number necessary to give them the requisite percentage.

THE official vote of Mississippi is: Cleveland, 39,965; Weaver, 10,250; Harrison, 1,393. The total vote of the entire state of Mississippi was but 3,000 more than that cast by the people of Erie county, N. Y., for their two winning candidates for Congress. And yet Mississippi elects seven Representatives. The highest vote cast for any one representative in Mississippi was 3,095. That, remarks the Buffalo Express, is the explanation of how the country happened to go Democratic.

THE Louisiana Sugar Planters' Association has congratulated President-elect Cleveland on the result of the recent election, and concludes its letter by hoping for a reformation of the tariff. The Southern sugar planters have been reaping a rich harvest from bounties paid out of the National Treasury under the provisions of the McKinley law, and in view of the desire of these people for reform it would seem that the repeal of the bounty clause of that act cannot come too soon.—Brookville Republican. That would be hitting them where they need hitting the worst.

THE other day in a burst of eloquence or something else Grover Cleveland exclaimed that "the South is at once the cradle and the guardian of civil liberty in America." To be sure, to be sure it is—in his mind. And the South was for years the home of slavery; and the South organized a rebellion to destroy the Union that it might perpetuate slavery; and the South has denied the colored man civil liberty, and in thousands of instances robbed the white man of his civil liberty if he didn't happen to think with the majority. Grover should stick to the cyclopedia and not go wandering into the by paths. History is "agin him" when he tries to put frills on his facts.

EX GOVERNOR Henry M. Hoyt, died at his home in Wilkesbarre, Pa., at 2 o'clock a. m., Dec. 1st, 1892, of Bright's disease of the kidneys. He was born in Kingston, Luzerne county, in June, 1830. He was educated at the Wyoming Seminary and Williams College, graduating in 1849. He immediately began the study of law in Wilkesbarre with George W. Woodward, later one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. He married Mary E. Loveland, of Kingston, in 1855. He took part in the Fremont campaign and became an active member of the new Republican party. He was a Colonel during the war and has a brilliant soldier record. In 1878 he was elected Governor of Pennsylvania, leaving a good record as such.

JAY GOULD, the man of many millions, has joined the silent majority. His death occurred in New York at 9:15 o'clock Friday morning last, the direct cause being pulmonary consumption. Mr. Gould was born in West Settlement, Delaware county, N. Y., May 28th, 1836. His history from the barefaced boy who wandered over the rough hills of Delaware Co., to the railroad king, whose wealth was estimated at $60,000,000, is one of the most remarkable among our self-made men. In appearance he was a little man, of slight weight and build, slightly bent shouldered and sharp, piercing eyes looking out from a countenance whose outlines were expressive of the quiet but intense nervous energy which could on occasions be called into action. He wore a full beard and dressed unostentatiously. Mr. Gould married, shortly after going to N. Y. City in 1856, Miss Ella Miller, daughter of a wealthy New York citizen, and had five children—three sons, George J., Edward and Howard, and two daughters Miss Helen and Miss Hannah Gould. His eldest son, George, who has succeeded to most of his father's business interests, was married about six years ago to Miss Edith Kingdom, and has several children. The next son, Edward, married a daughter of Dr. Schrady. The other children are unmarried. In politics Mr. Gould was a Republican.

Efforts Making to Bring Hoosier Grave Descenders to Justice.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 1.—Morgan, Putnam and other counties, where the graves of Union soldiers were painted red, continue in a ferment of excitement. The investigating board instituted at Martinsville to discover and punish the perpetrators of the work has been strengthened by the addition of P. A. Phelps, a well known attorney, who was largely instrumental in the suppression of the Knights of the Golden Circle during the war. Heretofore the court has had no Republican representative. Mr. Phelps' appointment, from the fact that he has been connected with the Morgan county bar for over twenty-five years and is acquainted with almost every man in the county, adds confidence to the investigation and when the grand jury meets it is confidently stated that evidence will have been secured to warrant a number of indictments. The Grand Army posts in the territory affected are assisting in the work of investigation. The sentiment that exists not only among the old soldiers but among the people generally is reflected in the resolutions adopted by Blankenship Post, of Martinsville last night:

We demand the perpetrators of this shameful outrage, the authors of this cruel conspiracy, whoever they may be, be brought to answer for their crimes and we pledge the Grand Army and every loyal Union soldier in every efficient way in enforcing and vindicating the law, in avenging the honor of our dead comrades and in hunting down the dastardly perpetrators, effecting their arrests and bring them to sure punishment. To this end be it Resolved, That a committee of three discreet comrades of the post be appointed to aid the legal authorities in investigating this alleged desecration, and that they be authorized to take such steps and adopt such measures as in their judgment will make their work most effectual, and result in the early apprehension and certain punishment of the guilty parties.

Levied on his Whiskers. A Kansas City dispatch, under date of Dec. 1st, has this important information: Charles Libby, secretary of the Kansas City (Kan.) Paving company, today enjoyed, or rather did not enjoy, the novel experience of having a Constable levy upon his whiskers in an attachment for the satisfaction of a debt of $28. Mr. Libby, as secretary of the Paving Company, gave a laborer a bill upon the treasurer for $28 for wages due. The laborer negotiated the bill with a money lender, whom Mr. Libby declined to pay. The lender employed counsel and brought suit, and obtained judgment in a justice's court for the full amount. The lawyer, in a fit of humor, made application to the justice for a writ of attachment upon Mr. Libby's whiskers in satisfaction of the judgment. The justice is a sleepy old soul, and without reading the application signed it.
