BLOODIHIRSTY ROBBERS.

Last Wednesday evening shortly af- What Is Necessary to Do and How to ter the supper hour four masked men sutered the dwelling of Wm. Stiner, who lives near the Myers grist mill, half way between Tylersburg and Lickingville, Clarion county, and proceeded to club and beat the inmates, Mr. Stiner and his two maiden sisters, in a most brutal manner. After having them pretty well subdued the desperadoes rausacked the house and se cured upward of one hundred dollars in money which had been accumulated by hard work and close economy. One of the ladies managed to get out and give the alarm, or at least made such an outcry that the thieves deem. ed it prudeut to leave. As soon as the neighborhood was aroused a large posse took up the trail of the robbers, liable to pay the election expenses for tracking them some distance in the woods, but did not succeed in overhauling them. Mr. Stiner was so bad ly injured by the blows inflicted upon him that the services of a physician were necessary to dress his wounds. Some six weeks ago Mr. Stiner's barn was fired, a horse stolen and another one burned with the barn. It seems strange that these outrages cannot be stopped. The question is, how long will the authorities of Clarion county sit idly by and permit such dastardly crimes to take place in their borders without the slightest effort on their part to hunt the villians down?

THE SPRING ELECTIONS.

Do It. We have received numerous inquirics from different parts of the county about the manner of making and certifying nominations and conducting elections under the new ballot law for officers to be elected next February, and we venture some suggestions for the consideration of those interested in the subject.

The county is required by law to defray the costs of printing the ballots and cards of instruction for the elections in each county, together with the cost of delivery of the same to the election officers, and also pay all other expenses incurred under the provisions of the act. The county is accordingly holding city, borough and township elections. The certificates of nomination determine the groups into which the names of the candidates shall be arranged. The political parties will hold couventions and nominate officers (at least that seems the only way provided by law) and the certificates of nomination for candidates for township and borough officers and election officers and school directors are by law directed to be filed with the anditors of the townships and boroughs at least ten days before the day of election. Exery certificate of nomination must be signed by the presiding officer and scoretaries of the convention, or the mence at 7:30.
