LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 54 1/2. The boys enjoyed good skating on the streets yesterday. Zach Shriver is having an attack of his old enemy, quinsy. Miss Flora Osgood, of Stowtown, was the guest of Katie Osgood over last Sunday. Many of the Lowlanders sought the highlands when the ice began to crack this morning. Mrs. C. F. Armstrong, nee Miss Maude VanGieson, of Pittsburg, is visiting Mrs. Dr. Nason. Ice creepers were at a premium Monday, and the middle of the road was little better than the sidewalk for navigation. J. C. Scowden went to Meadville yesterday to pay a visit to relatives and friends, and take in the reunion of Crawford county Odd Fellows. The following letters remain uncalled for, in Tionesta P. O.: Mr. Eddie L. Dorman, George Irwin, Mr. M. Wertz. D. S. KNOX, P. M. The hustle for houses has begun already. There is none vacant or likely to be, and the prospects for a good deal of stirring round about the first of April are good. Word is received here of the very critical illness of Elva, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Kinesiver of Warren. Yesterday morning there was but a very slight change for the better. The people of Tylersburg have set to work to rebuild the Presbyterian church recently burned there, and expect to be ready to dedicate a new one by next September. That's the pluck of the right kind. Look out for counterfeiters! See that you get the genuine Salvation Oil! Do not let the dealer sell you "just as good," but insist upon getting the genuine with the Bull's Head trade mark on the wrapper. The marriage of Wilbur McKean and Miss Mable Clark, of Nebraska, is noted in this issue. The many friends of both these popular young people will join in extending showers of good wishes and congratulations on this occasion. Ex-County Surveyor H. C. Whitekin, who is now domiciled at Conneaut, Ohio, is a visitor here this week. Henry had an unusually pleasant look on, even for him, but the boy that arrived at his place on the 28th ult. explained all. Mr. J. H. Woodington, of Kansas City, a brother of Mr. Jas. Woodington, of Tionesta township, is paying a visit to friends here. In company with Judge Clark he gave the REPUBLICAN office a very pleasant call one day last week. At the "spelling match" given by the Epworth League last Saturday evening, says the Ridgway Advocate, the contest was spirited and occasioned much fun. Master Guy Bible, being the first to mis-spell a word, won the "spelling book." The Oil report for January shows 123 new wells completed with a production of 5,306 barrels a day. 26 dry holes were drilled. This is a decrease in completed wells of 18 compared with last month and a decrease of 2,274 bbls. new production. Will Walters checked his baggage for Chicago Monday, where a good situation awaits him with the firm of May, Purington & Co. Tionesta don't produce any staidier young men than Will, and his employers will never find his post vacant so long as he is able to navigate. Mr. Wm. F. Young and Mrs. Mary Kiser Laird, were joined in wedlock at Wilkinsburg, Pa., Monday last week. Both are well and favorably known to many of the people in this section, their former homes, all of whom will wish them a pleasant and prosperous future. The newly wedded pair are paying a visit to friends and relatives in this neighborhood at present.

In less than 12 hours from the time the ice commenced moving out of the river the "back channel" was frozen over with an entirely new sheet of ice. The spiece of weather as well as life is a variety. It is because persons who once try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, always buy it again, that its sales have become so enormous. The success of this great remedy in curing cold, cough, croup and sore throat is simply marvelous. The Franklin News does itself great credit in its graphic account of the very recherche reception tendered to Governor Pattison and staff, by Brigadier General Wiley and staff, at the Nursery Club rooms in that city, last Friday evening. The News prints the news at all times. Dr. Morrow sustained a painful injury to his shoulder by a fall on the ice, Monday morning. At first he was disposed to treat it as a common hurt, but a more critical examination demonstrated that the point of the shoulder bone was broken, and he is nursing it accordingly. Mr. P. S. Lindal, for a number of years a resident of Forest county, has moved with his family to Sharon, Pa., where he will make his future abode. Mr. L. is a worthy, honorable citizen, and we commend him to the good people of his newly chosen home as one ever entitled to their esteem. The Sires Photograph Gallery will hereafter be open every day, except Sunday, until further notice. Mr Sires has placed in charge of the gallery Mr. W. J. Bulger, of Chicago, a strictly first class artist, and those desiring fine work should hasten to take advantage of this good opportunity. The repairs at the Nebraska Flouring Mills are completed. The Feed Rollers work like a charm, and it is real pleasure to see the fine corn meal and chop rolling out at the rate of 30 bushels an hour. Mr. Aites, who years ago attended the mill, is back again, and will make the best of flour and supply the wants of customers. In answer to a correspondent who wanted to take his country paper as well as a daily but thought himself too poor financially to take both, the Cleveland "Plain Dealer" editorially says: "A good, well supported paper in a community will do more for its prosperity and well being than any other influence that can be brought to bear. The farmer who takes his home paper into his family is getting a hundred fold more benefit out of the small investment than the publisher he thinks he is helping. The family without a newspaper in the house is in a poor way, no matter how forehanded the head of the family may be nor how far the house wife can make the price of a bushel of wheat go in household expenses. Take a paper, and if you can't possibly afford but one, be sure and support the paper of your own community."

The Democrats of the Borough held a caucus at the Keeley Club room last Thursday evening, and placed in nomination the following ticket for the Spring election: Burgess, T. F. Ritchey; Council, S. H. Haslet, Patrick Joyce; High Constable, W. L. Hunter; School Directors, J. B. Hagerly, A. B. Kelly; Overseer of the Poor, J. B. Siggins; Constable, J. T. Carson; Collector, J. W. Landers; Judge of Elections, J. W. Strcup; Inspector, J. J. Landers; Auditor, R. L. Haslet.

W. R. Dunn Esq., stopped over night here with friends while en route to Kansas, last Friday night. Mr. Dunn has held an important position in the Census Office at Washington, during the past three years, but handed in his resignation a few days ago, preferring to go out rather than to be "helped out," as he curtly put it. He will again locate in Kansas and return to his old love, the newspaper business, having in view an enterprise which promises well. Our best wishes are joined with those of his many old Forest county friends for the fullest measure of success.

Revival meetings at the M. E. Church still continue with unabated interest. Thus far 76 have bowed at the altar seeking the blessing of God in the forgiveness of their sins; 45 have united with the church on probation; 22 have received the ordinance of baptism; 4 backsliders have been reclaimed and 6 have been received by letter. The Second Quarterly meeting of the conference year will be held at Nebraska, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 11 and 12. Preaching Saturday evening at 7:30 by Elder Smith; also Sabbath at 11 a. m., after which the administration of the Lord's Supper. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Comrade "Sim," Siggins, the genial veteran whom all the old survivors of the 83d regiment remember, died at his home in Bradford on the 26th ult. Sim was born and reared in this county, and was one of the first to enlist with the boys in '61, going out with the Company G., or "Tionesta Rangers," as the company was called. He had no enemies.

Our hale old friend John Thomson, of Stewart Run, brightened the REPUBLICAN sanctum an hour or two last Saturday. Nothing is pleasanter than an hour's review of the many old-time reminiscences 'way back in the forties and fifties by one of these old settlers, who was one of the "young chaps" of that time. And our old friend Thomson is full of them.

From a Marienville scribe: Rev. Earseman, the Presbyterian minister, is conducting a series of successful meetings here at present. The revival at the M. E. Church is still continuing. About sixty five persons have sought pardon and profess to have found peace. Rev. Ray, the Evangelist, is conducting the meeting, and is a power in the work. The church is crowded to its utmost capacity every evening.

Austin Hess was lodged in Clarion jail last Thursday, charged with horse stealing, barn burning, assault and battery and all the crimes mentioned in the criminal catalogue. He is said to have two partners—William Blair and C. O. Gordon. It is popularly believed that this trio of outlaws are responsible for the barn burned some months ago at the mouth of Roes Run, where another railroad bridge was in course of construction.

The foot and wagon bridge at Kelletville was also carried away. We have learned of no other losses, except a few logs scattered here and there along the creek, and a couple of hemlock rafts belonging to Collins & Siggins, which had been stranded last fall. The losses, while annoying to the parties interested, are not such as will cause any embarrassment further than a delay of early spring operations, possibly.

The river ice did no damage so far as heard from, and passed out very nicely at this point. That bargain sale in winter goods of every description is still going merrily on at Barnett's. The goods are going fast at the prices offered, so get a move on if you want any.

For pains in the chest there is nothing better than a flannel cloth saturated with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound over the seat of pain. It will produce a counter irritation without blistering, and is not so disagreeable as mustard; in fact is much superior to any plaster on account of its pain-relieving qualities. If used in time it will prevent pneumonia. 50 cent bottles at Siggins & Nason's.

Death of Judge Johnson.

Hon Samuel P. Johnston, of Warren, died Thursday evening Feb. 2, 1893, after an illness of a few days. He was 83 years of age, and had practiced law for over sixty years. He was President Judge of the Erie-Warren district for a number of years, and was succeeded by Judge L. D. Wetmore. During his judicial administration he held court in Tionesta by appointment of Judge Campbell, then Judge of the Clarion Forest district. This was before the completion of the present court house, and the courts were held in the old Lamb store building which stood near the old Holmes House, and has long since been torn down and removed. Judge Johnson had filled the measure of a useful and well spent life.

The Month.

The month is the front door of your face. It is the aperture to the cold storage room of your anatomy. Some mouths look like peaches and cream and some look like a hole chopped into a brick wall to admit a new door or window. The month is a hot bed of toothaches, the bung hole of oratory and a baby's crowning glory. It is the crimson aisle to our liver and nature's apparatus for blowing out the gas. It is patriotism's fountain head and the tool chest for pie. Without it the politician would be a wanderer on the face of the earth and the cornetist and the chorus girl would go down to un-honored graves. It is the grocer's friend, the orator's pride and the dentist's hope. It puts some men on the rostrum and many on the stone pile. It is temptation's lunch corner when attached to a maiden, and a tobaccoist's friend when attached to a man. Without it married life would be a perpetual summer dream and the dude would lose half his attractions. And most of all and the greatest of all if there were no mouths there would be no goodbyes or happy greetings, no words of comfort, of hope, no laughter full of sunshine or songs full of praise; the hired man could not be called to dinner and no one would ask, "Where did you get that hat?"—E.

One of the bills passed finally in the Senate at Harrisburg is that making women eligible as notaries public. Bacteria may be transmitted through newspapers. Don't borrow of your neighbor, as it may be the death of yourself and family. Subscribe.—Danville Breeze.

The slowest railroad in the world is the Arizona and New Mexico. From Benson to Nogales is eighty-eight miles and the schedule time is eight hours. The fare is $8.80 or ten cents a mile. Fov's bill as it passed the House prohibits the manufacture in Pennsylvania of cigarettes which contain tobacco. That leaves the field clear to the manufacturers of those which contain only a variety of stinks.

Barney Black a counterfeit living near Saltzbug, Indiana county, died one day last week. His death was a tragic one—he having died from breathing the fumes of the pot in which he was melting his chemicals to make counterfeit money.

The jury in the case of Robert J. Beatty, charged with being an accomplice in the Homestead poisonings, brought in a verdict of guilty in all six indictments. The jury was out only seven minutes. There was no demonstration in the court room when the verdict was announced. The defendant was locked up again in default of $10,000 bail. At the conclusion of the poisoning case Jack Clifford, one of the leaders in the great Homestead strike, was put on trial on the charge of murder.

Mr. Hicks' forecast for the trial of February is as follows: A cold wave extending southward and lasting to about the 15th and 16th. After storms about these dates, colder up to about the 17th. Storms of rain, thunder, sleet and snow from 18th to 19th. A severe cold wave will come behind these storms. Reactionary temperature and storms will touch the 23d and 24th followed by returning cold until the last day of the month, at which time rising temperature and coming storms will be the order.

While petitions for and remonstrances against the opening of the World's Fair on Sunday are pouring into Congress, arguments are proceeding in a court of law in Chicago on a bill to compel the World's Fair directors to open the gates on Sunday. The arguments used are, first, that the Fair is located on public ground, and that any man has the right to walk into Jackson Park on any day he pleases; second, that the Park Commission had no right to turn the park over to a corporation, and that the latter has no right to charge for admission to the park.

Thos. J. Stewart, residing near Rimersburg, Clarion county, recently returned from Japan, where he has been for almost two years, drilling oil wells. He says the drill business in that country is conducted in the same manner as in Pennsylvania, for the very good reason that Pennsylvanians are doing the work. However, they don't go to some high bluff nor to a low valley to locate wells. The roads are too narrow for the drawing of machinery and the entire outfit is transported on boats and a hole started in the sea, several hundred feet from the coast. At a desired depth of water the tools are dropped and the drilling begun. The results are often gratifying and good paying wells are found. Mr. Stewart and a gentleman from Mercer are superintending the enterprise for a Japanese oil company, who pay them good wages. They find serious fault with the cooking and eating. Native labor is cheap. A strong Japanese can be hired, between smoking periods, for 15 cents a day. Four times in the morning and as many times in the afternoon he stops work to smoke.

This story has lately cropped out. The person most concerned lives, it is said, within a thousand miles of Dunkirk. A lady dropped into a telegraph office and as she drew a blank toward her said: "My husband has gone to Buffalo to order a motto for our Sunday school room, but I forgot to tell him the inscription was to be or how large I wanted it. If I send the particulars how soon will he get it?" The operator answered the question as best he could and the message was written. It is probable that the husband was somewhat startled when he read it, for without explanation, it simply said: "Mr. G., Iroquois Hotel, Buffalo. Unto us a child is born; eight feet long and two feet wide. Mary."—Ex.

The following is a woman's description of an ideal husband: "A temperate, moral, intellectual, truthful, energetic, affectionate, thoughtful, forgiving Christian man, who chooses a wife for her mind and heart rather than face, and waits until he is sure he has found the right one; who neither scolds nor laughs at his wife and never contradicts her in public; who loves home and children, and has certain means for making an honest comfortable living. Who is economical, but not stingy, and, unless wealthy, keeps his life insured. Who understands that women have nerves, need money, enjoy pretty things, and are happier for being petted." Outside of the newspaper profession, the kind of husbands described are remarkably scarce.

Meadville has a queer cat, according to the following account given of it in the Tribune of that city: A Tribune reporter recently was shown a curiosity of the animal kingdom which would undoubtedly rejoice the heart of many a showman. The object in question is a cat and it is owned by one of our prominent citizens. The curiosity lies in the fact that while in most characteristics the animal is a cat, and in others it is distinctly a rabbit. Its left fore leg and both hind legs are those of a rabbit and it travels with the well known hop. A genuine stumpy rabbit tail completes the odd combination. It is a splendid rat and mouse catcher and shows the common out-look for getting. It was one of four kittens, all of whom possessed these or similar rabbit features, but nothing further is known regarding its origin.

The following from the Elk Democrat needs no comment: It is a pity that Ridgway hasn't a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals to punish every brute who mistreats and abuses the unfortunate horses they are placed in charge of. It is not an uncommon sight this winter when the snow and ice are on the streets to see a horse slip and almost fall to the ground. The poor animal often suffers pain from such an accident and certainly is deserving of no punishment for its misfortune. But one of the most common sights when such an accident occurs is to see the driver lose his temper, rise up in his seat and unmercifully cut the horse with his whip. The chances are that if the driver was out on the sidewalk he would not be able to keep his feet half as well as the horse. The pity is that such men are not treated to a dose similar to the one they gave the unfortunate horses in their charge. They ought to be turned out on the street with an able bodied man behind them with a whip and every time they slipped they ought to have the whip wound around their legs. A few doses of that kind of medicine would insure some horses the treatment they deserve.

Success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in effecting a speedy cure of colds, croup and whooping cough has brought it into great demand. Messrs. Pontius & Son, of Cameron, Ohio, say that it has gained a reputation second to none in that vicinity. Jas. M. Queen, of Johnston, W. V., says it is the best he ever used. B. F. Jones, druggist, Winona, Minn., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly reliable. I have always warranted it and it never failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by Siggins & Nason.

Drunkness, or the Lignor Habit, positively cured by administering Dr. Halm's Golden Specific. It is manufactured as a powder, which can be given in a glass of beer, a cup of coffee or tea, or in food, without the knowledge of the patient. It is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. It has been given in thousands of cases, and in every instance a perfect cure has followed. It never fails. Cures guaranteed. A large book of particulars free. Address GOLDEN SPECIFIC CO., 185 Race St., Cincinnati, O. aug. 10-1y.

The poor animal often suffers pain from such an accident and certainly is deserving of no punishment for its misfortune. But one of the most common sights when such an accident occurs is to see the driver lose his temper, rise up in his seat and unmercifully cut the horse with his whip. The chances are that if the driver was out on the sidewalk he would not be able to keep his feet half as well as the horse. The pity is that such men are not treated to a dose similar to the one they gave the unfortunate horses in their charge. They ought to be turned out on the street with an able bodied man behind them with a whip and every time they slipped they ought to have the whip wound around their legs. A few doses of that kind of medicine would insure some horses the treatment they deserve.

Success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in effecting a speedy cure of colds, croup and whooping cough has brought it into great demand. Messrs. The Use and Abuse of Whiskey. This subject could be dwelt upon to a considerable length, and yet much would remain untold, but all agree that the use, the proper use of pure rye whiskey is an absolute necessity, especially so now, when nature insists upon being stimulated. All regular physicians prescribe rye whiskey, and justly claim that Klein's Silver Age and Daquense Whiskies are most reliable. They do this not only because they have tried them but because the leading hospitals use them—find them the best stimulants in the world. Silver Age sells for $1.50 and Daquense for $1.25 per full quart. For sale by all dealers and druggists. Ask for them or send to Ludwig Mayer, Oil City, Pa.
