

The following names have been officially announced as members of Mr. Cleveland's cabinet, all having signified their acceptance: Walter Q. Gresham, of Illinois, Secretary of State. John G. Carlisle, of Kentucky, Secretary of Treasury. Daniel S. Lamont, of New York, Secretary of War. Wilson B. Bissell, of Buffalo, Postmaster-General. Hoke Smith, of Georgia, Secretary of the Interior. J. Sterling Morton, of Nebraska, Secretary of Agriculture. Hoke Smith is an ex-Confederate, and if he is specially adapted to the work of looking after the pension affairs of the country, which come under his department, it must be on his record as a fighter against the men who are drawing pensions for their services to the Union.

It is stated on what is considered pretty good authority that the other two members of the Cabinet will be—Attorney General, George A. Jenks, of Pennsylvania; Secretary of Navy, Governor Russell of Massachusetts.

GOURLEY ELECTED. Gourley was elected Controller of Pittsburg yesterday. The Mayorality is still in doubt.

LOOKS very like as how the cigarette must go. A bill prohibiting its manufacture and sale in this State has passed the House, and has been placed on the Senate calendar. Poor little stinker.

THE death of State Senator John N. Neebe, of the forty-second district, Allegheny county, occurred at his home on Sunday last, of dropsy. He was aged 42 years, a Republican, and one of the leaders in the Senate.

AND so Cholly Mitchell was detained at port and landing refused him because he was a blasted convict. Gentleman Cholly will find that over here a coward who assaults an old man and is sent to jail is regarded as a convict, and held at the level of one at that.

THAT English mouth-fighter, Charley Mitchell, has at last reached our shores to engage in a fistie battle with James Corbett, the American champion. It is ten to one that they never meet. Both will hedge the agreement about with so many reservations that they will never get within miles of each other.

THE following, from the Assistant United States Treasurer at San Francisco, is somewhat comforting after the gold scare which has been stirring up New York and Washington financial circles: "Instead of losing any gold at the Treasury here we have been accumulating it. Several months ago we shipped $20,000,000 East, and that reduced the amount in the vaults to $21,000,000. Since then $5,000,000 in gold has come in, and the amount now on hand is about $27,000,000. The flurry in New York has no perceptible effect on this coast."

A GENTLEMAN who knows Judge Gresham intimately says: "Gresham has changed very considerably during the last few years. Disappointment has had something to do with it. He is more of a Socialist than a Democrat or Republican to-day. He approved of the platform of the People's party last fall and he would have accepted their nomination for President had there been a ghost of a chance of his election. He is a poor man, however, and could not afford to give up his judicial salary to gratify his inclination."

For Better Roads. The number of road bills introduced in the legislature is rather larger than usual, each one of which has some good points. Here are some of the features of a bill introduced by Capt. Nesbit, that might bring about a better system of road making: Providing for the appointment by the different counties, of a County Superintendent of roads, who shall have general superintendency over the county road system. The township shall elect a board of three Road Commissioners annually in the usual manner, who shall have charge of the township roads, divide the townships into sub-districts where necessary, fix in connection with the township Auditors, the annual tax levy, wages for themselves, for men and teams, and number of hours for a day's work.

The Road Commissioners of the several townships in each county shall elect a board of three persons from their number annually, who with the County Superintendents, shall constitute a board of Road Directors, who shall have general charge of the road system in their respective counties, divide the roads into highways and roads, the main roads to be termed highways, and be macadamized or permanently improved as soon as practical, the by-roads to be maintained by ordinary methods. They shall also act as a board of viewers and superintend the road system generally, the salary to be fixed by the salary board in court of common pleas.

GEN W. T. BEAUREGARD, the last of the prominent ex-rebel generals, died at his residence in New Orleans, Sunday night.

THE Kansas Populists have concluded that they are not in it when it comes to a scrimmage with the Republicans inside of the fort, and their Governor has sent peace propositions which mean all turkey for the Populist and all buzzard for the Republican. Of course such propositions could not be considered for a moment, and the Republicans countered with suggestions which if adopted will settle the matter in a fair and just manner. The Populists are in the wrong, but they do not like to acknowledge it, and there is the hitch. They will get off their high horse before long.

SOME uncomplimentary notices of Lady Somerset, the temperance worker, have been going the rounds of the press, because, as is alleged, she preaches temperance, but owns buildings used for saloons. Lady Somerset herself has at last written an open letter to the London Truth explaining the state of affairs. Ten years since she inherited a large property from her father. Much of it was in real estate leased for long periods. Of course she was practically powerless to do anything until the leases fell due. In the last few years she has closed eight public houses, although offered large sums of money to extend the leases.

THE efforts of some of the Democrats to appear satisfied with the appointment of Gresham as Secretary of State reminds the Jamestown News of this incident: "Years ago, when the boys went down the river on rafts from this part of the country, the crew of one of the floats made an agreement that they should select a cook by lot, and the first man who found fault with the victuals was to take up the task of cooking, and so on through the trip. The first man chosen was a good cook, and as there seemed to be no chance for anyone to kick he determined to get out of the work by loading the biscuit with salt, depending on that to bring out a protest. The biscuit was loaded and the boys came in hungry to dinner. One of them got the biscuit and filled his mouth. Of course he threw it out and declared with great vigor that the biscuit was 'd—d salty,' but—remembering the agreement—he added in the same breath, 'it is good.' We are reminded of this by the heroic effort our Democratic friends are making in calling the appointment of Walter Q. Gresham as Secretary of State good."

THE discussion of the Pension Appropriation bill brings out some queer things. The Democrats who cited the case of a veteran who draws a pension of $19 a month for total deafness while acting as telephone attendant in the Pension Office at Washington, now wish they had said nothing about it. The man referred to proves to be a Democrat himself and among the names of those who recommended him appears that of Judge Gresham the gentleman who will be Mr. Cleveland's Secretary of State. Persons who have occasion to use the telephone can readily understand why a man with good ears should be stationed at the instrument, especially when he draws a salary of $1,800 a year for the work. It is explained that it was not this man's business to attend to the telephone, but as the telephone was at the desk of another adjudicating officer, occasionally he put his left ear to the telephone. Still, it is not quite clear why a man who can command a salary of $150 a month should receive any pension at all. This case recalls the fact that Mr. Cleveland's Pension Commissioner, the Hon. John C. Black, of Illinois, incidentally drew $100 a month pension for total deafness and $5,000 per year salary for his services as Pension Commissioner. Chronicle Telegraph.
