LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market closed yesterday 6 3/4. Hopkins & Lanson will offer special inducements. Miss Lizzie Berlin, of Franklin, is visiting Mrs. W. G. Wyman. High Constable Hunter has moved into his house, next to the gas office. J. K. Green of West Hickory, gave the REPUBLICAN office a social call last Wednesday. John R. Osgood, is this week announced as a candidate for Prothonotary, &c., subject to Republican usage. Harry Maze of Jenks township, is this week announced as a candidate for Sheriff, subject to Republican usage. John H. Robertson of Jenks township, is this week announced as a candidate for Prothonotary, subject to Republican usage. L. B. Wray of Jenks, and J. G. Terrill of Bowmanville, were among "the good men and true" who were drafted on the jury this week. Mrs. Chas. M. Whiteman is in Lebanon, Pa., as the representative of George Stow Corp., W. R. C., at the State convention this week. W. P. Singins of West Hickory, is attending the State convention of the G. A. R., at Lebanon, this week, as the delegate of Capt. Stow Post. Mrs. A. M. Doult's serious illness during the past week has been a matter of great concern to her friends, and her condition is still very critical at this writing. No business for court, not a prisoner in jail, and hasn't been for upward of three months! A pretty healthy state of morality for our county, it would seem. A supper will be served in the Kepler Block, from half past five till nine p. m., on Wednesday, March 8, under the auspices of Epworth League of Tionesta. Price 25 cents. A general invitation is extended. Best remedy for sprains and pains Mr. J. M. Spring, Bennings, D. C., writes: "I have been using Salvation Oil and have obtained great relief. Among many remedies tried, Salvation Oil is the best for pains and sprains in the back." Mr. J. A. Byerly, one of the Buffalo Hardware and Lumber Co.'s inspectors, was in town on business Saturday, and gave us a pleasant call. He travels extensively through Western N. Y. and reports a three foot crop of snow in most parts of that State. This is likely to make interesting times when the warm rains set in. The well on the Payne tract was finished last week, and is pronounced dry. Yet for a "dry" well it seems to have encouraged its owner, Mr. Payne, to a somewhat remarkable degree, as we hear it whispered he will not let much time go by before starting another. The depth of this well is in the vicinity of 1,750 feet, and it showed over 80 feet of sand. Court flatted out "fatter's a flounder," as it were, on Monday, there being no business on hand when court was called. Judge Noyes went over the list of causes and found that all the cases had been disposed of for the term, either by settlement or continuance. The case against James Carson was also continued to May session. S. S. Canfield was appointed Tax Collector for the borough. Some time ago we made mention of the suffering Major B. J. Reid was undergoing from a sore on one of his feet, caused by the rubbing of his shoe. The foot became so sore that it was quite a serious affliction, and the major some weeks ago went to Mercy Hospital, Pittsburg, for treatment. Proper remedies were applied, and a few days ago, we are pleased to note, he returned home perfectly cured.—Clarion Republican.

Mr. A. D. Neill, the druggist and clothing man of Marienville, and Miss Clara Simpson, of Scotch Hill, Clarion county, were married at the home of the bride, Tuesday evening, the 21st. They will make their home in Marienville. They have the well wishes of a large circle of friends.—Express.

The new firm of Hopkins & Lanson have about one dozen Overcoats, a few Ladies' Coats in winter weight that they will sell at prices too low to publish. Just ask to see them when in the store. They will be sold, and the price will do it. We also have some bargains in small sizes Winter underwear, ladies' shawls, wool skirts, &c., that will be sold during this month if low prices will have anything to do with it. Ask to see them. 1t.

Misses Ella and Anna Work, of Redelfy, two of Forest county's popular teachers, are now in Greeley, Colorado, where they will finish their studies at the Greeley State Normal school, of which their brother, Prof. C. T. Work is a member of the faculty. Dr. Z. X. Snyder, whom Governor Patton appointed State Superintendent, and over whose confirmation by the State Senate there was considerable discussion, is the Principal of the above school.

"Air Ship Waltz," "Oklahoma Waltz" and "Odd Fellows' Grand March," are late compositions of Isaac Doles, and are musical gems. They comprise five pages each; illustrated title pages, not difficult in execution, but beautiful in composition. The regular price is 50 cents each, but by way of introduction they will be mailed to any address for 20 cents per copy or three for 50 cents when ordered direct from Isaac Doles, Publisher, Indianapolis, Ind.

Helen May, the bright little babe of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Thomson died on Monday evening last, of pneumonia. The little one had been sick but a few days previous to its death. She was aged 6 months and 21 days. The stricken parents have the heartfelt sympathy of our people in this sore affliction, the only comforting thought in which is that their loss is the child's gain. Funeral services will be conducted at the house at 2 o'clock this afternoon, by Rev. Rankin.

The body of Neil Brewster, whose home was at Raught's Mills, Elk county, was found near the roadside a short distance above Clarington, by the mail carrier between that point and Spring Creek, on Saturday morning the 19th ult. The man had made a trip on the Clarion river and was returning to his home the previous evening, and is supposed to have become bewildered in the storm, and frozen to death. He was a middle-aged man, but whether he had a family or not our informant could not say.

James Cossgrove, of Barnett, returns judge of the recent election in his township, was a visitor at the REPUBLICAN office last Wednesday. James had quite a trying experience during the severe blizzard of ten days ago. He was returning home from a neighbor's, and while passing through a strip of woods was overtaken by the storm. In less time than it takes to tell it he was completely bewildered and lost his way and wandered about for some time, until he heard the welcome bark of a dog. This led him to a neighboring farm house where he put up for the night, not a half mile from home. But for the bark of that dog, James would now be numbered among the angels.

As will be observed by notice elsewhere in this issue the firm of H. J. Hopkins & Co. has been dissolved by mutual consent, the senior member, Mr. H. J. Hopkins, retiring. For many years the firm's business in this place has been conducted almost entirely by Messrs. L. J. Hopkins and F. R. Lanson, and with what success, the large and steadily increasing trade will fully attest. Two more energetic and trustworthy young men could not well be yoked together in business, and that their trade will steadily grow and prosper is abundantly attested by their past record. Our best wishes are extended to the new firm, for which we bespeak the same liberal patronage enjoyed for so many years by the old firm.

Numerous unsolicited testimonials daily received by its proprietors clearly demonstrate the fact that the reputation of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the infallible cure for all affections of the throat and chest, has suffered no diminution in the last quarter of a century.

Take Notice. I am going east about March 15th to purchase my Spring and Summer Stock. Parties indebted to me will kindly call or send me what they owe. Respectfully, DAVID MINTZ.

Fatal Stroke of Paralysis.

John C. Wilson, a farmer living near Whig Hill, this county, and well and favorably known to many of our readers received a fatal stroke of paralysis on Friday last, Feb. 24th. About 3 o'clock in the afternoon he went to the barn to attend his stock, and shortly after he sank to the floor, having lost the use of his limbs. In answer to his calls his wife came to his assistance, but being unable to get him to the house, she made him as comfortable as possible by covering him with warm blankets and quickly summoned the assistance of neighbors. Ere they returned, however, Mr. Wilson's condition had become so much worse that he was unable to speak. He lingered in this state until Saturday at 10:30 when death came to his relief. Mr. Wilson was born near Belfast, Ireland, and about 1840 came to America. About twenty years ago he came to Tionesta, and a few years later was married to Mary Stover, who, with a son and two daughters, survives "Johnny" Wilson, as he was familiarly called by his friends, was one of the most genial of men; always cheerful and pleasant, and a man of strictest integrity, a hard worker, and a kind husband and fond father. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity and was buried by brother members of that Order, the interment taking place in the Town Line church yard, Whig Hill.

ROBBERY AND MURDER.

Held Attempt to Rob the Leechburg Bank—A Courageous Citizen. Shot through the Heart.

The town of Leechburg, on the West Penn. railroad, five miles above Allegheny Junction, has been in a turmoil of excitement during the past week. On the evening of election a bold attempt was made to rob the Leechburg Banking Co.'s bank. About 9 o'clock Charles Ashbaugh, a printer on the Leechburg Advance, while in the rear part of the office, happened to look out and saw three men engaged in forcing an entrance through the back window of the bank. He at once ran to the Council chamber and notified Constable Nicholas Collier. The latter at once started for the scene accompanied by Wm. Shaefer. At the rear of the bank they met three men who rushed out of the door, at the same time opening fire on their pursuer. Several shots were exchanged between the robbers and the constable. Shaefer had no revolver. A bullet from one of the robbers' revolver struck Shaefer, passing through his heart and killing him almost instantly.

In the excitement over Shaefer's death the robbers came near making good their escape. Two of them were caught, however, after a desperate chase. They were brought back to Leechburg, and next day had a hearing, and were hustled off to Kittanning jail as quickly as possible to save them from the fury of the people, who would have made short work of them had not the officers used every ruse to get them away. Shaefer was a member of the town council, a highly respected citizen, and leaves a wife and four small children. The wife is almost crazed with grief.

The two men who were caught give their names as Chares Sprague and William Ryan. At the coroner's inquest many facts came to light which implicated Dr. G. S. Wyckoff, a resident of Leechburg, at whose house it was shown that at least one of the robbers had stayed the night before the attempt was made, and it is believed that all were harbored there. The evidence adduced was so strong against Wyckoff that he was on the following day arrested in Allegheny, whither he had gone, as said, to correct some misstatements in the Pittsburg Times connecting his name with the affair. The feeling over the discovery of such strong evidence of the Doctor's implication was so great that the officers thought it unsafe to bring him back to Leechburg, and therefore conveyed him direct to Kittanning and lodged him in jail. Great crowds had gathered at the depot to give the Dr. a warm reception on his arrival and one man had secured a rope with noose and all arranged, even to soaping it, which it was intended to throw over his head, and then cast the noose end into the crowd. This would have been enough. But the officers of the law averted this by their precaution in taking him direct to Kittanning. The third party seen coming out of the bank has not been caught. Dr. Wyckoff is said to be a card sharp, and it seems he has been running a sort of poker joint at his house for some time. He is quite well known in Bradford and other oil regions towns of Pennsylvania.

He explains his connection with the other men by saying that he knew Ryan as a poker player, and that he had introduced him into a game at Leechburg. He disclaims any connection with the robbery. On the other hand, it is alleged, that the doctor had a previous plan for the robbery of the Leechburg bank. It is said that there is still another party at large who is concerned in the affair. Some think the story of a fourth party was concocted by Ryan and his pals to divide the responsibility of firing the shot. Dr. Wyckoff's reputation is not a good one. He comes of a good family in Buffalo, but was cast off on account of bad habits.

Death of Albert Keniston.

Joseph Albert Keniston died at his home, in Tionesta, Feb. 24, 1893, at 11:00 o'clock p. m., of heart disease, aged 48 years. Mr. Keniston was born in Freeport, Armstrong county, Pa., and in 1851, when but 16 years of age enlisted in Co. I, 78th Pa. V. I., and was discharged Nov. 4, 1864. He served nine months in Andersonville prison, and at the time of his death was a pensioner, by reason of a broken down constitution caused by the hardships of war and prison life. He had been a resident of Tionesta about four years, during which time he followed the painting trade mostly. About four months ago he was taken sick, and for the greater part of that period was a severe sufferer. Mr. Keniston was married to Nettie, a daughter of the late J. F. Connelly, Esq., of Stewart's Run She, with two sons and two daughters, survives him. These have the sympathy of all our people in their sad bereavement.

The funeral took place from the late home of the deceased on Sabbath last, conducted by Rev. J. R. Rankin, and was attended by a large delegation of the old comrades of the Grand Army Post of this place.

NEW FIRM.

Hopkins & Lanson will do business at the old stand of H. J. Hopkins & Co. after March 1st, 1893, where they hope to meet all the old customers of the old store, and as many new ones as possible. The firm of H. J. Hopkins & Co. has done a very satisfactory business for the past ten years, for which they are very grateful. The new firm will make a special effort to keep the store up to the standard, and keep a stock of goods that will be suited to the wants of the people, and to sell them at prices that will be an inducement to close buyers. "Good fashionable goods, small profits, and clever treatment," will be the motto of the new firm, and they sincerely hope to receive their share of the patronage. 1t.

Dissolution Notice.

The firm of H. J. Hopkins & Co has this day dissolved partnership by mutual consent, H. J. Hopkins retiring from the business. Business will be carried on at the old stand by L. J. Hopkins and F. R. Lanson, who will adjust all accounts of the old firm.

H. J. HOPKINS, L. J. HOPKINS, F. R. LANSON. Tionesta, Pa., March 1st, 1893.

We wish to thank the people of the community for the liberal patronage we have received during the past ten years, and hope the same kind treatment may be extended to the new firm, with many new customers added. Very truly, H. J. HOPKINS & Co.

Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adapted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, N. J.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right to day; and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once. 50 cent bottles for sale by Siggins & Nason."

Specimen Cases. S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected by an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him. Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John S. Baker, Calaway, O., had five large boils on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Siggins & Nason's Drug Store.

"The people of this vicinity insist on having Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and do not want any other," says John V. Bishop, of Portland Mills, Indiana. "That is right. They know it to be superior to any other for colds, and as a preventive and cure for croup, and why should they not insist upon having it. 50 cent bottles sold by Siggins & Nason."

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE. The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Siggins & Nason.

NEWS NOTES.

The Kittanning rolling mill has started after five months' idleness. The mill employs over 200 men. The Isabella furnace in connection with the mill, which has not been running for two years or over, is now being used. The pay roll of the entire works is over $15,000 per month. It must be very distracting for a minister just about to deliver his carefully prepared sermon to be called upon to read a whole string of announcements, religious, secular and otherwise. The newspaper is the proper place for these notices to be published. People who do not read the local papers do not take an interest in religious or moral enterprises anyway.—Ridgway Democrat.

The New Peterson for March is a decided improvement on its predecessors, admirable as they have been. The success of The New Peterson is thoroughly established and is well deserved. No magazine has a finer array of contributors, and in many respects it is better suited to the needs of the entire household than any periodical in the country. Terms, two dollars a year. Address Peterson Magazine Co., Philadelphia.

In a late opinion the Supreme Court says that an engineer on a railroad engine in approaching a point where it is his duty to sound the whistle, as required by the statute, observing near by on a highway, a man struggling with a team of horses hitched to a wagon, and can see from the surroundings, that sounding a whistle will make the team unmanageable and greatly endanger the team and man, it is his duty to desist until the danger point is passed, or if necessary to stop the train, and if he does not but needlessly sounds the whistle and permits steam to escape, causing the horses to run away, the company is liable for the injuries inflicted.

After much figuring and bickeration by the press of the land on the puzzling question the sage of the Venango Spectator comes to the rescue with a solution which all will at once pronounce the proper one, as follows: "The comment about the Columbian postage stamp because the Discoverer is represented with a face smoothly shaven on the one-cent stamp, the day before he landed, and with a full beard on the two-cent stamp, on the day of landing, is easily set aside. The one-cent stamp should represent the landing scene, and the two-cent the day before. Columbus when he sighted the coast of San Salvador wore a full beard. Through his long glass he saw the Indians on the beach with smooth faces. Out of compliment to them he shaved himself and went ashore. The engraver got these two episodes reversed. See!"

When Doctors All Agree

It is a fact well established, that February and March are the most trying months to ager or inflected persons. Pneumonia, influenza and kindred chest affections, are most liable to get in their deadly work. There is but one thing to do, build up the vitality of the system with a pure stimulant. Medical men all over the country agree that Klein's "Silver Age" at $1.50 per quart, and "Dionesea" at $1.25 per quart, stand without a peer. If you want the six year old (4 years heimer, Finch, Gibson, Overholt, or Bear Creek, you can have them at $1.00 per quart or six quarts for $5.00. We are recognized in all the leading cities of the choice brands of Wine, Liqueur, Cordials, etc. Goods expressed anywhere. Send for complete price list; mention this paper. Sold by LEVIN, 82 Federal St., Allegheny, Pa.

The strongest recommendation that any article can have is the endorsement of the mothers of the town. When the mothers recommend it you may know that that article has more than ordinary merit. Here is what the Centerville, South Dakota, Citizen says editorially of an article sold in their town: "From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children. We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times over, and are recommending it every day. 50 cent bottles for sale by Siggins & Nason."

DIED.

THOMPSON—At Plumer, Pa., Feb. 21st, 1893, Walter Hastings, son of Rev. C. R. and Laura Thompson.

The stricken parents, who have the sympathy of all their old Forest county friends in this bereavement, write us as follows: "Our youngest son, Walter Hastings, has gone to join the angels. On the 21st, after a week's illness with pneumonia his spirit took its flight. The funeral services were held at the parsonage, in Plumer, on the 23d, Rev. H. A. Ties of Centerville officiating. The light of our home is gone out, but Jesus can lighten the gloom. The Lord gives grace in sorrow. We are enabled by His grace to say 'Thy will be done.' We now have a treasure in Heaven. Our three girls and the remaining boy join with us in saying: "There is another, better world Beyond this world of ours. When the Whose crystal streams in beauty glide Amid immortal flowers; 'Tis there we hope to meet with him We've loved and lost below. Where pain and anguish ne'er again Shall cause our tears to flow. 'Tis hard to give him up, but we bow submissively to the will of Him who doeth all things well."
