A similar contest will be held at West Hickory on Friday evening, March 17th, which all are cordially invited to attend.

The Cox well on the Spooner tract, Kingsley township, will begin this week, the crew, Messrs. W. A. Grove, Frank Hunter, John Noble and Z. T. Shriver, expecting to start for there this morning. The new venture is located about half a mile south, or southeast, of the mouth of Bear creek, on the old "Jee-buck" road.

At the State encampment of the Woman's Relief Corps, Department of Pennsylvania, at Lebanon, last week, Mrs. Charlotte J. Cummings, of Tidoute was elected State President, and Mrs. Jennie C. Rumberger of East Brady, was honored with the appointment of Department Inspector. Both very worthy selections.

We learn with much regret of the serious illness of our esteemed friend, Will Pettigrew, of President, who has been a sufferer from lung trouble the greater portion of the past winter. He has become so weakened as to be scarcely able to leave his room, and his friends are much concerned about his condition. We hope Billy will weather it through yet.

At the recent term of Elk county court, Judge Metzger, of Lycoming, being on the bench, the question was raised whether or not a hotel keeper had a right to have two bars in the same house. The court decided that as long as the license had been granted without restrictions, the hotel keeper could sell liquor in every room in his house if he desired to do so, and he could not be convicted of violating the law. Ridgway Advertiser.

The post-office fever has broken out in Tionesta since the inauguration of Cleveland, and although yet in its incipient stage there is every prospect that the malady will have a full run. Those thus far affected are Messrs. Robert L. Haslet, Joe W. Landers and John T. Carson, with one or two others to hear from who have been "exposed" to the contagion. We believe no fault can be found against any of these candidates on account of their Democracy.

The Christian Endeavor society of this place gave a very pleasing entertainment in the parlors of the Kelly mansion, last Friday evening. The society is making an effort to raise a certain sum toward the remodeling of the Presbyterian church, and have adopted this method of accomplishing the object. If the initial entertainment is a fair sample of what is to follow, the young people will undoubtedly succeed in their undertaking.

An old timer in the Oil Region gave the Derrick the information Thursday that up to and including March 2, there have been 69 days of good sleighing. He says there has not been such a stretch of sleighing since 1865, a winter which resembled this one very much. If this resemblance should continue to the end, then we be to denizens of the low lands, for that was a perilous visitation of water before the final break-up came. Never before or since did the floods reach such magnitude on this end of the Allegheny. The flood came in April of '65.

Attention is directed to the ad. of the Lindsey Mowing Machine Knife Grinding Co., Limited, of Lindsey, Jefferson county, Pa., which appears in this issue. This is an instrument that is bound to take the eye of the wise awake farmer of the present day. It is quickly adjusted to the cutter bar of the mower, and while the machine is being driven to the meadow, or in less time, the knife is ground to a keen edge, and a much better job of grinding than can be done on the stone, and with absolutely no time or labor expended.

The late firm of H. J. Hopkins & Co. has still a number of unsettled accounts, and would be pleased to have all knowing themselves indebted, to call and settle same. The books will be found at the store of Hopkins & Lanson, where settlements can be made.

The Grand Army of the Department of Pennsylvania, at its annual meeting at Lebanon last week, elected the following officers for the coming year: Commander, Thomas G. Sample, of Pittsburg; Senior Vice Commander, Charles F. Chidsey, of Easton; Junior Vice Commander, J. C. Calvin, of Hollidaysburg; Chaplain, Rev. John W. Savre, of Philadelphia; Medical Director, Dr. Samuel Starr, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Geo. Horton died last Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at his home in Sheffield, from the effects of a fatty tumor in the glands of the neck. Mr. Horton was a nephew of the late Walter Horton, head of Horton, Cray & Co., the largest tanning company in the United States, and since whose death he has been one of the leading members of the firm. The firm with which he has been connected has five large tanneries scattered about the country, together with a wholesale house in Boston, and they are known to be doing a flourishing business in every department of their work. Mr. Horton was about 45 years of age and leaves a wife and three children, all of whom are well known in Warren.

The prospect of Jefferson county becoming a separate judicial district says the Brookville Record, has developed a phase which promises to be mighty interesting in county politics should Senator Mitchell's bill materialize. It is reported that in that event John W. Reed, who was defeated for the president judge of Clarion district by Judge Clark, would move to Brookville from Clarion and become a candidate for judge of the new district. When Mr. Reed made his canvass for the judgeship a year ago last fall he raised himself high in the esteem of the Republicans of Jefferson. A move of this kind would not meet with the approval of the attorneys, but the voters, who recognize ability when they see it are beginning to look upon Mr. Reed as their possible future president judge of Jefferson county.

An Old Citizen Passes Away.
Morris Purdy, one of the pioneer citizens of this community, died at his home in Rockland township, Venango county, on the 22d day of February, 1893. He was born in Steuben county, N. Y., May 8, 1811. When 15 years of age he moved with his parents to this section, located on Tionesta Creek. For many years, until 1865, he continued his residence in this county, afterward moving to his late residence, in Rockland. March 18, 1838, he was married to Dorothy Siverly, who survives him, with the only daughter born to them, Mrs. Gertrude Pryer. His death was caused by old age, being in his 82d year. The deceased is well remembered by all the older residents of this section, by whom he was always held in highest esteem as an honorable, upright man.

Coating Catastrophe.
It did look for a time as though we were to be cheated out of our annual coasting accident item, but a party of four young people came to the rescue on last Friday night, and here it is: On that evening the sliding was extra good, and the cross-street just below the Public Square in fine condition. The sled was coming down the hill at a reckless speed, and on Elm street crashed into a cotter occupied by a couple who were enjoying a sleighride. It was all over in a moment, but the effects will be felt for some time to come. One young lady sustained some severe bruises, yet may be thankful for her lucky escape, while another is nursing a badly sprained ankle and Postmaster Knox is minus his efficient clerk in the meantime. Had our dentist worn a baseball mask his nose would now present a much handsomer appearance, no doubt, but it wouldn't have saved the arm any, which makes up-hill work of sug-pulling, though he grins and bears it first rate. A man who is born to go by another route will never be killed coasting, and this may account for the exceedingly lucky escape of our popular bachelor Burgess, who had been giving the usual attention to prohibiting the small boy from coasting on the streets, would not have been caught at it himself. But what has all this to do with the smashing of the cotter, and the unceremonious interference with the quiet sleighriders? We think the matter should be investigated by the new council, and if necessary institute impeachment proceedings.

Every one gives it the highest praise. H. Gradel, Druggist, Walnut and Allison Sts., Cincinnati, O., says this of his trade: "I sell my share of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and my customers that have used this preparation speak of it in the highest terms.

Kelleysville.

This week completes the tenth week of unbroken sleighing this winter, and still the lumbermen are busy, while a few are nearly done hauling.

Mr. Rainey, an Oil City gentleman, will be in town a few days in the interest of the Knights of the Maccabees. Mr. R. delivered a lecture in the meeting house Friday evening on the early history of the Maccabee order. The citizens here are taking an active part in the order and with the assistance of a few workers a camp will be organized this week with 25 or 30 charter members.

J. B. Haverly has several rats ready for the spring freshet. He will have a number of rats both here and at the saw mill which will require the attention of several good pilots.

The creek road is still piled chock full of ice, and all communication is cut off by that route between here and Mayburg. To reach the latter place now it requires about 7 miles of a drive.

Frank Hindman narrowly missed losing his team, and himself also, by breaking through 2-mile bridge on Salmon creek. Fortunately both driver and horses came out without any serious damage being done.

A sled load of wood from town went to Marienville, and while returning the horses became unmanageable and started on a break trot. Some of them were frightened into jumping out, while a half dozen were hanging onto the reins when they succeeded in bringing the frightened steeds to a stand still. Aside from a few slight bruises no other excitement occurred.

S. H. Haslet and Wm. Hood were up visiting E. D. Miller on Thursday and Friday.

The local institute held in the school house here on Saturday was fairly well attended. The next meeting will be at Whig Hill school house. The meetings are held monthly.

Rev. Albert Bean is holding a revival meeting in the F. M. Church at Whig Hill. Thus far the meetings have been attended with a fair measure of success.

Warren Wrinkles.
Winter lingers. Crows and robins have appeared. Cheaper gas soon. The new company is piping the town.

A new axe factory is certainly in the near future. They will only employ about fifteen men, but all skilled mechanics at good wages.

The East Warren flats are rapidly filling up with manufactories, and business is good.

The spiritual interests more than keep pace with the material. We support two crowded prayer meetings each Sunday p. m. The legitimate children of Rev. Humanson's noble work.

Disolution Notice.

The firm of H. J. Hopkins & Co. has this day dissolved partnership by mutual consent, H. J. Hopkins retiring from the business. Business will be carried on at the old stand by L. J. Hopkins and F. R. Lanson, who will adjust all accounts of the old firm.

We wish to thank the people of the community for the liberal patronage we have received during the past ten years, and hope the same kind treatment may be extended to the new firm, with many new customers added. Very truly, H. J. HOPKINS, L. J. HOPKINS, F. R. LANSON. Tionesta, Pa., March 1st, 1893.

Truly A God Send.
The "Garten Remedies" for the cure of the liquor, morphine, cocaine and tobacco habits are not only acknowledged to be vastly superior to any thing of a like character in use but are highly endorsed by our best physicians, ministers and temperance organizations all over the country. A complete cure is guaranteed in every case treated. The remedies are perfectly free from any injurious drugs, therefore patients never experience a minutes sickness. On the contrary mental and physical vigor begin to return with first day's treatment. No loss of memory or mental derangement or the loss of any physical powers. The treatment is positively humane, absolutely safe, safe and speedy. Duration of the treatment three weeks. Patients are not restricted in any way but free to go where they please and when they desire to continue to follow their daily occupation. Mrs. A. Elmore, Pres. of the W. C. T. U. of Meadville, Crawford Co., Pa. (Address 382 North Main Street, Meadville, Pa.) a noble and enthusiastic temperance worker endorses fully the Garten remedies and is now lending her time, ability and influence in spreading throughout Crawford and adjoining counties, the established, true, merit of them. We refer to her for verification of our claims. The Patent Co. having its headquarters in Pittsburg, Pa. is founded on Philanthropy, Love and Charity. The poor as well as the rich can secure the advantages of the Garten Remedies. Please address all orders to the Proprietor, Alex. McKnight, Manager, Garten Company of Penna., Room 403 Ferguson Building Pittsburg, Pa.
