Mrs Orion Siggins, president of the W. C. T. U. of that place conducted the affair in a very pleasing manner. Mrs. Dr. Nason of Tionesta presided at the organ, and the Keeley quartette sang several songs which were well received, as were also the recitations by Miss Marie Allen of Tidioute, and little Flo Floyd. Mr Ritchey, on behalf of the W. C. T. U., presented the medal to the successful contestant, and at the same time presented each one of the other contestants with a handsome bible, the gift of Mr. T D. Collins of Nebraska. So pleasing has the contest proved that the young people of West Hickory are already actively engaged in the preparation of another.

SPECIAL INDUCEMENT!

In order to more thoroughly advertise my work, both large and small, and also to enlarge my Frame trade, I will, at my Tionesta Gallery, until June 1st, 1893, give free to each customer sitting for one dozen Cabinet Photos, one two-thirds life-size Bromide Crayon Portrait, providing they purchase a suitable frame for it at the Gallery. In order to get the benefit of this offer you will please cut out the card below and present it at the time you sit for your Photos. My frames are as cheap as you can get anywhere, but we will not sell a frame cheaper than our $2.50 one on this work, as we want the work to do us credit, and unless the picture is put in a good frame it never looks well, I care not how fine it may be; so this is the reason we will not sell a cheap frame for this work, and not, as you might think, that we want to get the price of picture and frame for the frame alone by no means. The frames are all marked in plain figures, and you will pay the same price for one in any case, and it is as cheap as it can be bought anywhere. I have at present an A 1 man at the Gallery, who will try his best to please you and do you good work. I have also fitted the place up in good shape to do be finished at the Gallery, without being sent to Oil City.

This inducement, with our steady business will have a tendency to make a rush, so if you want Photos soon after sitting I would say, come at once, as those coming first will, of course, be served first, vors, and inviting new ones, I remain Very Resp'y, J. W. SIRES. W. J. BULGER, Operator at Tionesta.

H. W. LEDEBUR.

T. J BOWMAN. East Hickory, Pa., March 2d 1893. We wish to thank 'he people of the community for the liberal patronage we have received during the past six years, and hope the same kind treatment may be extended to the new firm, and many new customers added. Very truly, T. J. BOWMAN.

DIED.

SMITH-At Nebraska, Pa., March 17, 1893, of diphtheria, Bird, daughter of James H. and Mary Smith, aged 11 years, 8 months and 7 days.

One we love has left our number For the dark and silent tomb,-Closed her eyes in deathless slumber, Faded in her early bloom. Shed not for her the bitter tear, Nor give the heart to vain regret;

Tis but a casket that lies here, The gem that filled it sparkles yet. Father and Mother have done their last, And now can do no more; The bitterness of death is past,
