THINGS are mixed in Washington among the Pennsylvania Democrats who are struggling for office. Those who are doing the hardest fighting seem to be doing nothing else and getting nothing, while those who keep quiet and work without a brass band are corraling the offices.

THE recent local elections in New York State show large Republican lows in the departments, being hired gains, which would indicate a reaction on the part of those who "wanted a change." This reaction will extend all over the country just as soon as the Democracy get their free trade schemes into operation.

According to a Washington correspondent Senator Hall, of Elk, will be United States District Attorney for Western Pennsylvania. All ministration is his friend, and that clinches it.

THE Methodists of Kansas bave given the bounce to Rev. V. H. Biddleson, the Populist chaplain of the State Senate, because he cursed the Republican party in his prayers, and in one of his petitions requested God to "palsy the brain and still the heart of the treasonable conspirators." The brethern concluded that the Rev. Biddleson was too anxious to earn his salary.
