Commissioner W. H. Kerr, brother of Supt. Kerr of this county, was re-nominated by the Republicans of Clarion county at their primaries last Saturday, by a very flattering majority.

The Saturday half-holiday bill has become a law, and in accordance therewith all banks will close hereafter at 12 o'clock noon each Saturday. Business men should paste this notice in their hats.

Judge Morrison of McKean county, held court in Warren for Judge Noyes last week, who has been somewhat indisposed for a few days since, but we are pleased to learn is again able to be out.

Post Band 274 will take in the reunion at Conneaut Lake on Friday next. The Hickories will be largely represented by the G. A. R. boys and their families on this delightful occasion, says a friend from that vicinity.

The Free Methodists will hold a quarterly meeting in the Evangelical church, German Hill, commencing on Friday evening of this week and continuing over the Sabbath. Rev. J. Barnhart will be in charge of the meeting.

The Slater sawmill, located on the Allegheny river opposite Thompson station, burned to the ground at an early hour Sunday morning. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin, as the fires had all been thoroughly extinguished on Saturday evening.

The contract for building the addition to the Presbyterian church was on Monday awarded to Moses Hepler and Henry Shoemaker, their bid, $1,644, being the lowest. The work is to be completed by September 1st, but the contractors expect to have it ready to turn over before that date.

Mac Agnew, who holds a position in the war department at Washington, occupies a desk in the building which collapsed on Friday last. As good luck would have it Mac was not in the building at the time it went down, but had he been at his desk he would have had about one chance in a hundred of escaping instant death.

Work on the water line is progressing under the management of Jerry Birtell, and it will not be long before the pipe will be laid from the dam at the spring to the reservoir. The contract for putting the plant into town will be let in a few days, and the company expect to be ready to make connections by the first of September.

Y., at the church of Saint Sacramento, at Bolton, on Lake George, Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock, July 1st, 1893. We join Harvey's large circle of friends in extending congratulations and best wishes in advance of the happy event.

The bill authorizing boroughs in Pennsylvania to appoint regular boards of health passed both houses of the legislature and was signed by the governor the other day. The bill gives the burgess the power to appoint five members, one for one year, one for two years, one for three years, one for four years, and one for five years and one for every year thereafter. One member of the board must be a physician.

The Prohibition State Convention met in Harrisburg last week, but was not so large a gathering as on former years. It passed an oldtime platform, nominated a ticket of eminently respectable gentlemen, and passed a resolution denouncing the opening of the World's Fair on Sunday and called on the Christian people to stay away from the Fair.

For Supreme Judge, H. J. Ames, of Williamsport, was nominated, and for State Treasurer, J. L. Kent, of Delaware.

The new school board of this borough met last Wednesday evening and organized for the year. D. S. Knox was elected President, J. T. Brennan, Secretary, and A. B. Kelly, Treasurer. There were present Messrs. Ritchey, Brennan, Clark, Holeman and Wenk, absent, Knox.

The board decided to have eight months of school, beginning the first Monday of September. Teachers salaries were fixed at the former rate, viz: Principal, $65, and $40 each to the other three teachers. Wednesday evening, June 21, was fixed as the time for the election of teachers for the ensuing term. At that meeting the tax levy will also likely be fixed.

Governor Pattison has signed the bill to establish the school for feeble minded children, and has appointed Christopher Heydrick of Venango; Norman Hall of Mercer; George A. Jenks of Jefferson; George Guthrie of Allegheny, and W. Horace Rose of Cambria, as commissioners to select the site for the Western Pennsylvania institution. As this institute must be located in the Western portion of the State, what would be the matter with making an effort to show up the many advantages of Tionesta for such? It wouldn't be much trouble to "show our goods" whether the commissioners care to invest or not. They might be favorably impressed.

Those who have been along the river recently say that the number of dead fish of all sizes and kinds found lying along the shores is simply astonishing. This is the result of dynamiting some where, and just why such contemptible work should be allowed to go on any longer is one of the mysteries that needs explanation.

Every decent citizen should constitute himself a committee of one to assist in bringing this sort of lawlessness to speedy punishment. Let us all lend a hand and see if it can't be stopped. A few arrests and convictions would act like a charm, and if the better element will stand together in the matter, there will be no difficulty in stopping it.

The man who stops his paper because there is something in it that he doesn't like, observes an exchange, should be consistent, get up and leave the hotel table if he happens to find something on the bill of fare that did not just suit his taste. He would be just as consistent in one act as in the other. A good newspaper is the bill of fare of mental food for as many tastes as possible, and the reader ought to know that the article which does not suit him is, perhaps just to the taste of nearly every other reader of the paper. The man who insists on having a paper to his individual taste should buy the material and edit one for himself and ask no one else to read it.

The entries for the races to be held on the Meadville kite track, July 4-8, are so numerous and of such high order as to insure the finest events of the kind ever seen in this part of the country. They are certain to draw a large attendance from all sections of the country, and afford some splendid exhibitions of trotting speed. The fact that Messrs. Miller & Sibley are proprietors of that everything will be done toward making the meeting a success in every particular, and that all the features will be strictly of the first order. Mr. Sibley gave the track an inspection on Saturday and expressed himself as pleased with the general condition of things at the track.—Franklin News.

The Northwestern Association, G. A. R., meeting at Conneaut Lake on Friday next, 16th inst., gives promise of being the most largely attended affair of the kind yet held by that organization. A special train will be run from this vicinity, passing Tionesta about 7:00 a. m., returning the same evening. All old soldiers, members of the Relief Corps, and their families, as well as all others, are cordially invited to go with the Grand Army boys on this occasion. The affair will be in the nature of a basket picnic, and no one should think of going without taking a well filled lunch basket. One of the beauties of the occasion is the low rate of fare, $1.25 from Tionesta and return. Conneaut Lake is a beautiful spot for a day's outing; fishing, boating, driving or strolling can here be enjoyed to the fullest extent. Remember the date, train time, and don't forget the lunch basket.

The ever glorious Fourth will receive a royal send off in Tionesta this year. Since our last issue meetings have been held, committees appointed, and a good boom started for a real old-fashioned celebration of the great national holiday. The program of events has not been fully completed yet, but among the attractions may be mentioned, a side-splitting parade by the "Hoodlums" at 9:00 o'clock in the morning, followed by the grand parade of citizens, societies, associations, &c., reading of the Declaration of Independence, some fine orations, and other doings appropriate to the occasion.

At 1:30 the racing and sporting events of the day will begin, among which will be bicycle races, foot races for boys and men, tub and potato races, etc. In the evening a balloon ascension will take place, along with other attractions, the whole to conclude with a dancing party. Everybody is most cordially invited to come and enjoy the festivities to the fullest extent. The Tionesta Silver Cornet band has been engaged to do duty, and it is expected that other bands will be on hand to help lighten the day. It is expected to make this celebration a rouser, and none should miss it who can make it convenient to be here. Let the Eagle scream.

From the Clarion Democrat of last week we learn the following particulars of a brilliant marriage feast, which will be read with pleasure by a large circle of friends in this county, where the accomplished bride has a host of admirers: One of the most notable and successful society events ever witnessed in our town was the reception given Dr. Charles C. Ross and wife, by Dr. J. Frank Ross and wife, brother and sister of the bride and groom at their elegant home on Seventh avenue on Wednesday evening.

At the residence of Mrs. Judge Andrew Cook, at Cooksburg, Forest county about 11:30 a. m. Wednesday, June 7, 1893, Dr. Charles C. Ross one of Clarion's popular and most successful young professional men, and Miss Hattie June Cook, of Cooksburg, a young lady possessing unusual talents and recognized as one of the most popular and accomplished young society ladies in this section, were, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the family only, pronounced man and wife, Rev. David Skilling, of Harrisburg, Pa., officiating. Later in the day the wedding party drove to this place, where, as above stated, they received a most royal welcome.

Among those who assisted the bride and groom in receiving were Dr. and Mrs. J. Frank Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cook, John D. Ross, of Denver, Col., Miss Nannie Handerson, of Brookville; Mrs. J. B. Patrick, of Clarion; and Rev. David Skilling, of Harrisburg; Gen. W. W. Greenland acting as master of ceremonies with characteristic suavity and skill.

At an early hour on Thursday morning the happy bride and groom took a carriage, mid a shower of rice and good wishes, and drove to Foxburg where they breakfasted and then left on the A. V. R. R. to spend their honeymoon in the Northern lakes, after which they will be at home to their many friends in this place, where they will take up their permanent residence.

Home and Foreign Missions. At the Convention of the Home and Foreign missionary societies of the M. E. church, held here last week, there were present about 25 or 30 delegates, including the District Conference officers. The ladies represented Franklin, Oil City, Titonville, Tidouste, Clintonville, Machanville, Polk, Eau Claire, Martinsburgh and Kenderdell.

At the close of the session the following resolutions were passed: Resolved, That we return our warmest thanks to the people of Tionesta who have so graciously received and entertained us.

Resolved, That we specially thank the Quartette of gentlemen, and the ladies, who have, by their sweet music, added so much to the interest and spirit of our sessions.

Resolved, That we return a rising vote of thanks to Mr. T. D. Collins, who made it possible to have the important work done by Rev. Kennett in foreign missionary work in Franklin District.

Kellettville. T. D. Collins was in town on Friday attending to business. J. M. Kepler and Joseph Adamson were in town a day or two last week.

During the past week our town was overrun with candidates. The boys have not long to wait now to know their fate. Representative Haight was in town on Thursday.

Four or five of the town boys started for the river Friday to try fishing. They fished home early Saturday morning, having caught about a hundred pounds of fish.

A son was born at the home of Harry Smith on Friday. Harry seems well pleased.

Quarterly meeting was well attended here, the weather being fine. Miss Emma Cowan has returned from Williamsport where she has been attending school. She will return about the first of July.

There is some talk of a ball game here on the 4th of July, but as yet nothing is known definitely. Shaffer & Jenkins are peeling bark. Bark hauling will commence in a short time now.

C. S. Andrews was at Tidouste on Friday. Mrs. Barber is slowly recovering from a two weeks' sickness. WILL WALES.

East Hickory. Wedding cards for the marriage of Miss Savilla Kiestler, of East Hickory, and Mr. Shippe, of Marienville, are out for June 15, 1893. The ceremony will take place at the residence of the bride's parents and the best wishes of the entire community, as the bride is honored and esteemed by the entire population, and is deserving of a happy married life.

Miss Leona Bowman, a student of Cornell University, is home on a vacation. Dr. L. D. Bowman has charge of the practice of Dr. Acomb, of Tidouste, during his absence at the World's Fair.

Miss Bird Stoughton, who has been in New Orleans for the past year, returned home last week. The duplicates have been handed out and the pathmasters are busy repairing the highways.

Mrs. Rose Yeater, of Dempsytown, is with friends here for a few weeks. The summer schools will soon begin. Miss Leona Bowman will teach the lower room; Miss Comstock, of Erie county, will teach the upper room.

Candidates are very thick at present and will be until June 24th, when the last primaries will be held. A large number of people attended the Odd Fellows' banquet at Tidouste on the 5th inst., and reported a very enjoyable time.

James Miller has taken a bark job from Eli Berlin & Co., on Salmon creek. NEWSY NOTES.

The Pennsylvania Legislative Record has not yet adjourned. Osceola, Clearfield county, was the first town in the State to organize a board of health under the new law and therefore holds certificate No. 1.

Governor Pattison having signed the bill granting a special appropriation to the Clarion State Normal School, all that now remains to be done is the erection of the buildings for which the amount was granted. Work will no doubt be commenced in a short time.—Clarion Democrat.

Edwin Booth, the world's greatest tragedian, is dead. After many weeks of suffering he expired at the Players' club, New York, where he had lain since his illness. There is no telling when so great an actor will again appear on the stage. Perhaps not for many generations.

The jury empaneled to inquire into the cause of the death of the five men killed in Main's circus wreck, near Tyrone last week, rendered a verdict that the cause of death was "the fast running of the train down the mountain of the Clearfield branch, Tyrone division, Pennsylvania railroad." That's simple enough.

The majority of people, says the Bradford Era philosopher, think they want to be rich. Most of them are mistaken. They want to spend money. The man who wants to be rich must save and invest his money. A very small saving from a small income ultimately grows to a big saving. Nine out of ten men could grow ordinarily wealthy if they would. To do it they must devote themselves to the purpose and save their money instead of spending it for the first things they see after pay day.

The following epicurean note is from the Cochranton Times: "A number of Cochranton people (young men and old boys) have been out frozging on French Creek every night this week. They take a boat, a lantern and a spear, slip silently up onto the hollowing bank, dash their eyes with the lighted lantern and stab him with a spear. It's as easy as falling off a log and a good deal funnier; besides the hind quarters of the frog make the most delicious morsel—so those who have eaten 'em. Another favorite way to bring down the game is to take a small fire, and with twenty-five cents' worth of ammunition a good marksman can shoot ten cents' worth of frogs in half a day—when frogs are plenty."

Resolutions of Respect. At the regular meeting of W. R. C. No. 137, held on June 7, a committee was appointed to draft resolutions relative to the death of Mrs. Margaret Clark, who died May 28, 1893.

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst, our dear sister, Mrs. Margaret Clark, we feel that we can but feebly express our sense of grief and loss, she was an active member who took a lively interest in all the doings of the Corps; was ever ready to contribute generously whenever we were called upon to aid in any good work.

Resolved, That we draw our Charter in mourning for a period of thirty days. Resolved, That these resolutions be published in our county papers, and entered upon the minutes of the Corps; also a copy be sent to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That we return a rising vote of thanks to Mr. T. D. Collins, who made it possible to have the important work done by Rev. Kennett in foreign missionary work in Franklin District.
