

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

COUNTY.

Prothonotary, Ac. CALVIN M. ARNER, Tionesta Boro. Sheriff, HARRY MAZE, Jenks Twp. County Commissioners, W. M. COON, Barnett Twp. W. A. CONNELLY, Hickory Twp. Auditors, M. E. ABBOTT, Hickory Twp. W. L. STROUP, Howe Twp. Jury Commissioner, J. E. CARPENTER, Kingsley Twp.

The President is going to write his message to Congress during his stay at Buzzard's Bay. With a rheumatic foot as an aggravation, we may look for more than the usual amount of scold in his document.

About the only sure things that will happen when Congress meets are the election of Crisp for speaker and Kerr for chief clerk. The first is disliked by Cleveland, and Kerr is not in accord with the Pennsylvania Democratic machine, but neither is outside of the breastworks.

The death of Justice Blatchford, of the United States Supreme Court, puts at the disposal of the President another very high office as a reward for some member of the party. Justice Blatchford was from New York, and it is thought the new selection will be made from that State.

The Syracuse Courier, Democratic organ, says "there is no margin for tomfoolery among the Democrats of Ohio this year." Quite right and the Ohio Democrats realize it. It would be the height of tomfoolery for any Democrat to take the nomination for Governor in Ohio this year. McKinley's election will be practically unanimous.

Crisp was elected Speaker because he was a rapid free silver and free trade man. The silverites are asking where they are at on the deal, Crisp having intimated that he is now against free silver, while the free traders are pondering over the hint that the tariff is not to be touched at the extra session by orders of Crisp. Promises, like platforms, are made to be evaded.

"I EXPECT to have a session of Congress on my hands at that time" is the way Grover Cleveland writes to the President of Williams College, in accepting an invitation to visit him and explaining why he can stay but one day. Grover is not writing anything now that he does not use "I" or "my" or "mine" or "me." As an egotist he outranks every man in public life. His attack of big head will next prompt him to refer to this country as "my United States."

A CONFESSION.

The condition of affairs to-day, when the Democratic Administration has been in power less than four months, is described by the New York Magwump Evening Post:

It would be difficult to exaggerate the distress and anxiety which to-day pervade the business world and are hourly becoming more acute. It has become almost impossible to borrow money on any security whatever, and this means, of course, that the crisis will soon reach the working classes through all the great agencies of production.

The falsity of Democratic campaign representations is confessed at last. Free Trade organs have seen confidence destroyed, enterprise halted, credit paralyzed by the success of their party. They have seen the securities in which the people's earnings are invested diminished by more than a billion dollars since last November. They saw only Wednesday of last week bonds of the United States sold publicly at ninety-six cents on the dollar; and they are compelled to admit that the promises with which they deceived the people were falsehoods. Shuffling and sneaking attempts to lay the responsibility for the people's loss on the Sherman law are doomed to failure. When Republicans held the reins of power the nation was splendidly prosperous. The Sherman law was in full operation but no harm was done. Democracy obtained control on a free trade platform, statesmen and patriots were replaced at Washington by Bourbon blunderers, and credit and enterprise have been overwhelmed with disaster.

What do the people whom the Democracy has plundered, and the wage earners, who are already feeling the disastrous effects of the Democratic rule, think of their "object lesson?" - Citizen Press.

Helping Anarchy.

The paroling by Gov. Altgeld, of anarchist Fielden, Neebe and Schwab is an outrage without shadow of excuse or palliating circumstances. The Cleveland Leader is quite right when it says that he deserves the censure of every good citizen for his action. These men were convicted in the due course of law, after a fair trial, of a most outrageous crime. It was not a crime against an individual, but against the organized society of this century. They came to this country from a foreign land and used the liberty enjoyed by them in a mad attempt to overthrow the liberties of all. They have never repented of their crimes. They and their followers are as bitter enemies to American social order to-day as they were when they attacked the guardians of the law and peaceable citizens in the Haymarket riots. These men deserve to be branded as enemies of society. No possible excuse exists for Anarchists in this country and nothing in their contentions should excite a feeling of respect or a spark of sympathy in an American citizen. They will receive good encouragement from the pardon of the three prisoners, and the unfortunate event may be expected to give a new impetus to the dissemination of anarchistic sentiments. Illinois is unfortunate in having a demagogue for Governor who was chosen this Columbian year to inflict this disgrace upon the State and Nation.

GOING DOWN.

It is not very surprising after all how things are going down since March 4th. Cleveland started out with a flourish. He thought he could run things. He finds out he can't; things are running him. He didn't want an extra session of Congress; he has had to surrender. He started out to have it in September; he has had to come back to August 7, and a good many think that is too late. He does this because the people tell him to. They can't trust him to run the Government. In fact he is in a muddle. He don't know "where he is at!" He isn't equal to the occasion. After trying for thirty years and finally getting full control of the Government on the promise that the McKinley Tariff was to be abolished, this slim promise is so dangerous and kicks up such a bobby that they dare not try even that. If a simple promise of such a change is so dangerous, what might we not expect with a fulfillment of that promise? If this country is in danger now what would save it if the whole threat was carried out? If the President would just say to the people that there would be no attempt to abolish the McKinley Tariff it would doubtless settle things and restore confidence. But he won't do that. So he calls on Congress to patch things up. Ex-President Harrison says he is trying to drive a "wild team." It is doubtful whether he can drive the team, or whether the team will drive him. They are all on the down hill grade. Just see. Silver has gone down, and gold has gone out of sight. Commercial confidence has touched bottom. The free trade plank in the Chicago platform has gone down and they can't find it. The American Flag at Honolulu went down with a snap. Veterans' pensions have gone down, and will keep going down, if there is a possible chance.

About every thing with a downward tendency gets an additional downward kick under this Democratic administration. If Congress takes charge, it is questionable whether it will not have a grand cat-fight on the way down or up—who can tell? Is it strange that Cleveland is discouraged and goes off to Buzzard's Bay to console himself with the baby? But we hope he will brace up. When invested with the responsibility of governing he certainly should take the responsibility of government. Throwing partisan spite into his proclamation won't help him out of a hole. The Democrats in Congress were as much responsible for our present legislation as the Republicans and he won't help him to scold about it. He had better drive his wild team safely if possible. If he can't, the Lord only knows what will become of the balky team and its fat driver! - Warren Mail.

The way it is going is told by the Pittsburg Dispatch: "Three hundred pensions suspended! That is about the correct number of the unfortunate at the Pittsburg agency so far as can be learned from outside sources. Last Wednesday is looked upon as a very unlucky day by many pensioners who then learned for the first time that they were not on the list of those to be paid. Comrade Bengough says that Wednesday was the busiest day that the office here ever saw. No such number was ever paid on a first day before. The number of pensions paid was 2,146. The rush is accounted for by the fact that every other one feared he would be suspended and wanted to get in before the notice came from headquarters."

Judging from the way the people and press are pounding Governor Rhinoceros Altgeld's hide it will not take two weeks to get through it. From the way he is fuming and fretting and explaining his hide must even now be completely riddled.
