SEPTEMBER 7th will be Pennsylvania Day at the World's Fair, and the old Keystone State will show the world what it can do in the way of lifting the figures at the turnstiles.

WHEN William McKinley is through toying with that man Neal out in Ohio he will wish he had never heard of the heavy Tariff bitter. The Major certainly does strike a 40-ton blow.

PROTECTION means a fight for American labor and industry. Free-Trade means surrender. If Free-Trade were not threatening the Fall River mills, recently closed, would be running. The conclusion is that Free-Trade is not good for the country.

By the way where is the Bowery parrot with its cry of "The Tariff's a Tax?" Did he have his money in a bank that went under, or did he have confidence in the Democratic platform and put his money in an industrial establishment that has closed its doors?

FREE Australian wool to compete with the wool of our American farmers is recommended in the new Tariff bill, but the farmer will have to pay a tax of 25 per cent. on his clothes that are made of wool. This is "rubbing it in" to the poor farmer with a vengeance, but it is the Free-Trade idea.

SOMEHOW Cleveland cannot drive enough Democratic Senators into the clearing to count a majority for the repeal of the Sherman bill. They linger in the underbrush and refuse to be counted until they have some assurance that they will be given something as a substitute for the bill. Is the extra session going to be a failure?

MR. BLAND, of Missouri, said in opening the silver debate in Congress, Friday that, "We do not intend that any political party shall survive that will lay the confiscating hand upon America in the interest of England and of Europe and demoralize silver in this country, and my friends of the eastern Democracy, we bid you farewell when you do it."

THE meeting of the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic in Indianapolis will be doubly interesting for the reason that the veterans propose to tell Hoke Smith what they think of him and when they talk out loud they are not afraid to say what they think. The raid on the pensioners is being resented by old soldiers in many States.

The "Pension Paupers."

A dispatch from Noblesville, Ind., says: The veterans of Noblesville, getting tired of the Southern complaints that the South is robbed to support the army paupers of the North got together and disseminated the following interesting facts:

While Texas paid in revenue taxes the sum of $806,377, she received in the way of pensions the sum of $905,230; while South Carolina paid in revenue taxes $71,812, she received in pensions $171,129; while Tennessee paid revenue taxes $1,278,862, she received in pensions $2,434,708; while Alabama paid in revenue taxes $106,771, she received in pensions $400,729; while Arkansas paid in revenue taxes $95,718.86, she received in pensions the enormous sum of $1,470,000; while West Virginia paid in revenue taxes $807,588.66, she received in pensions $2,158,708.12; while Louisiana and Mississippi paid in revenue taxes $734,832.29, they received in pensions $847,552.25; while Maryland, Delaware and North Carolina paid in revenue taxes $3,288,873.77, they received in pensions $4,120,880.13. Thus the amount of pensions received by these Southern States is largely in excess of the amount they paid in revenue taxes, a large portion of the pensions being paid to the survivors of the Mexican war.

THE International Union of Carriage and Wagon Workers, in session at Chicago, have passed a resolution endorsing Gov. Alsgeld's action in pardoning the Anarchists. The union ought to go out of existence now. There is no longer any call for it among reputable labor organizations. The Anarchist chicken will come home to roost some day to those who have been expressing approval of Alsgeld's course.

THE Hon. William McKinley, out in Ohio, is having a triumphal march in his second canvass for Governor. We read that at a monster meeting recently attended by farmers and laborers and old soldiers and others of the honest yeomanry of the Buckeye State, Governor McKinley was given an enthusiastic reception and his speech was cheered to the echo. All of which means that the fight is on in Ohio, and that Larry Neal and his free trade party will be pulverized by the gallant leader of protection and his rapidly increasing army of followers. This is going to be a bad year for free traders, and Neal will be one of the worst mangled of the victims.

SENATOR GORDON, Democrat, of Georgia, has a plan to stop the panic in fifteen days. He has introduced a bill to suspend for six months the operation of the law taxing the notes of State banks ten per cent., and in this, he insists, lies the remedy for the financial stringency. If Senator Gordon can prove this to a suffering country he will be regarded as a financial Moses, but we regret to say that we think Senator Gordon is talking through his hat. No man nor no measure can stop a panic of the present magnitude in fifteen days. It is too broad, too far-reaching, too universal to be halted in a fortnight by Senator Gordon's plan or any other plan of a like character.

A CORRESPONDENT chides us for supporting the bill to allow national banks to take currency to the par of their bonds and thus put $19,000,000 bank currency in circulation as a surrender to the Ohio idea of fiat money. Fiat money is that which expresses nothing but the power of the Government to make it money, irredeemable and unsecured. National bank currency is not legal tender. No one is obliged to take a dollar of it in payment, but as it is secured by national banks it is a currency so safe and convenient that no one stops to consider that it is not a legal tender. The banks are now allowed to issue currency to 90 per cent. of the face value of their United States bonds now above par. As the payment of the bonds has cut down the bank currency, and as the security is good for a larger issue, it is right and proper to extend the limit on which circulation may issue from 90 per cent. to the par of the bonds. This is not the Ohio idea. It is the soundest of sound financing—proved and justified by experience.—Phila. Press.

Lying Again.

Newspapers such as the Philadelphia Times, Philadelphia Record and others of like character are now trying to educate the people into the belief that the hundreds of thousands of idle workmen in this country are idle because they are "calamity howlers." This is of a piece with their mendacious lying of last year. Their campaign of education of last year and for years preceding was built on lies, naked, bald lies, pure and simple. When they told the farmer that Cleveland's election would give him an increased price for his wheat and an increased price for his wool, they lied and they knew at the time they were lying. They saw that the history of revenue legislation in this country was just the opposite. When they told the workman that he would get better wages, steady employment, and that strikes would not be so frequent, they again lied. They knew that under a tariff for revenue laws, heretofore, wages had been lowered, employment was uncertain, and instead of strikes there were lockouts.

Now the election is over. Cleveland is in the White House. Democrats are in control of both branches of Congress, and the mills have shut down, workmen are turned out, banks have closed, wheat has gone to 58 cents, and the price paid for wool is not more than one-half of what was paid last year. And yet these newspapers that exclaim against "calamity howlers" would have their readers believe that the howling has produced the calamity. They want to screen themselves from the responsibility for the calamities which their lies have brought upon the country. They are now running away from the havoc which their campaign of education has created. But the farmer and workman is not such an arrant fool as to longer be deceived by them. They know what has caused this trouble. And the whole pack of Free Trade, Revenue Tariff shriekers, Tray, Blanche and Sweetheart, can continue in full cry without changing the fact.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
