LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Hunter & Morgan have just got in a line of delicious California fruits.

Misses EuRetta Proper and Effa Walters returned Monday from the World's Fair.

Mr. J. A. Nash, Howe township's efficient tax collector was a visitor to the county seat yesterday.

Tionesta township will hereafter hold its elections at the toll house, at the west end of the river bridge, as per order of court.

On account of New Years Barnet's store will be closed on Monday and Tuesday next. Patrons should make a note of it.

Mr. J. M. Kepler and son Will returned yesterday morning from a rather extended visit to Mr. K's Centre county farm.

Miss Maggie and George Robinson returned from Chicago Monday. Miss Artie Robinson is now a visitor at the great exposition.

Miss Kate Canfield departs for Chicago to-morrow to pay her sister, Mrs. Frank Thomson a six weeks visit, and see the World's Fair.

Plastering at the new Presbyterian church has begun, and it is expected the new edifice will be ready for dedication in about a month.

This is the last day for being registered to legally entitle you to a vote this fall. If you have not attended to it already, see that your name is on the list.

S. R. Cogau is up from Maryland to spend a month or two with his family, his lumbering plant having shut down for that length of time in hope of a business revival.

Miss Minnie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. W. Reck of Sawyer, McKean county has come to live with her grandmothers, Mrs. Judge Reck, and will attend school here this winter.

Reports from points along the river between Horse Creek and Tionesta say that large flocks of wild ducks have been plenty in that section for the past two days.—Derrick.

Mr. Bulger is opening a branch of the celebrated Sires photo gallery at Tidouite. Mr. B. will have charge of all the work there and the people will find him a strictly first class operator.

Our readers are reminded that the Warren County Fair begins in Warren next Tuesday, and those who would see a really good county show should attend at least one day. It will pay you.

We go to press a bit early to-day in order that all hands may take in the Keeley League reunion, which gives promise of being an event to date from. Upward of 2,000 are expected within our gates to-day.

Mayor Dick Davis returned from Chicago last Saturday, and has the same story to tell of the greatness of things about the Fair. He met all the Tionesta boys now located there, whom he found well and happy.

There is some sidewalk building going on in the borough, but there is room for a vast amount of improvement in that line, and it should not be allowed to go too long without a start.

The Proper & Walters building is rapidly assuming proportions, and is going to be a marked improvement on the appearance of things in that quarter when finished. It will be two stories, flat roofed.

F. M. Reck and daughter were down from Marienville Monday as the guest of Mrs. Judge Reck. Frank reports business at his handle factory in a fairly active state considering the stringency of the times.

Lancaster has more farms than any other county in the State—9,440 Venango, according to the census of 1890, contained 3,054 farms; Clarion 3,115; Crawford 7,786; Butler 5,354; Mercer 5,021; Warren 2,881; and Forest 491.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Root and daughter departed from their home at Kelse, Washington State last Thursday, after a very pleasant visit of several months with old Forest county friends.

—The Pioneer Creamery, located at Wolf's Corners, just over the Forest county, sends in a big wagon load of fine butter each week for shipment at this station.

—The Derrick's monthly oil report for August shows a decrease in new wells from the July report of 56, which is accompanied by an increase of 674 barrels daily production, and decline of 22 rigs and drilling wells.

—We neglected to mention last week—through a spirit of envy perhaps—the removal of our neighbor, the Vindicator, to new and very sleek quarters over Haslet & Sons' store.

—Lawrence & Smearbaugh received word yesterday morning to the effect that their bid for furnishing the timber a lumber for the new dam at the mouth of Tionesta creek had been accepted by the U. S. Engineering department.

—The Warren fair opens on the 12th of Sept. and continues four days. The management promises the best fair of any yet held.

—The borough schools opened Monday with a very good first-day attendance. Some little delay and, possibly, vexation has occurred on account of the order of things consequent on the free text book law, but as parents, pupils, teachers and directors are all more or less unfamiliar with its workings and requirements, that is not to be wondered at.

—The trial of Samuel Mauk in Clarion last week for the murder of John W. Crawford, station agent at Foxburg, on the Allegheny valley road the night of May 19th, ended in a verdict of voluntary manslaughter.

—A number of our citizens have already made connections with the water line and are using the fluid, which is pure, clear and fresh. The water was turned on the first of last week and the line was found to be in good shape, with an excellent pressure already, although the water is yet coming direct from the supply line, the reservoir not yet having been completed.

—The harvest-missionary festival held by the Sabbath school of Mt. Zion Lutheran church, German Hill, last Saturday, was very largely attended, and proved one of the most successful affairs of the kind ever held in that vicinity.

—The George A. Horns' patent reclining and folding chair is one of the newest and best articles ever offered to the public.

—The New Peterson for September is in many respects the very best number yet of that excellent Magazine.

This work is done by the Cornplanter at Watsons. The gentlemen interested in these works are: Capt. H. H. Cumings, C. A. Cumings, H. H. Cumings, Jr., and T. H. Ellis, of Tidouite, and J. P. Keefe, of West Hickory.

—On Thursday afternoon last Sheriff Osgood pulled in a fellow giving his name as Samuel Hackett and his residence at Franklin, who will stand a very good chance of serving a term in the pen before he is much older.

—On Wednesday morning Landlord Brownell of the Central House discovered among his bar receipts of the previous day a bogus silver dollar. He thought nothing so very strange of that, yet took the precaution to give the Sheriff an inkling of the matter and arousing that official's suspicions somewhat, but on the following morning when he discovered five more of the same kind of dollars, he became considerably indignant.
