He was riding on the engine of the passenger train when the engineer discovered that one of the ties of the trestle they were on, and which is 72 feet high, was afire. Hulings went with them and in leaning over to look at the fire lost his balance and fell to the ground below and was almost instantly killed. He is survived by his wife and two children.

—The following poem won for its author the editor of the Rocky Mountain Celt, the prize of $1,000 offered for the best appeal poem to newspaper readers to pay their subscriptions: "Lives of poor men oft remind us, honest men won't stand no chance; the more we work there grows behind us bigger patches on our pants. On our pants, once new and glossy, now are stripes of different hue, all because subscribers linger, and don't pay us what is due. Then let us be up and doing; send in your mite however small, or when the snow of winter strikes us we shall have no pants at all."
The Keeley Remun.

The second annual reunion of the graduates of the Tionesta Keeley Institute is a thing of the past, but its pleasures will long remain, a green spot in the memory of those who participated actively in the festivities of the occasion. The morning train brought large delegations from Oil City and Titusville, while a later special train of several coaches landed an immense throng from Franklin, Meadville and the country surrounding, the men-folk being accompanied by their wives and families, until the strangers within our gates numbered considerably above the thousand mark. The threatening aspect of the clouds in the early morning no doubt kept hundreds from attending, yet, as it turned out, a more perfect day for such an affair could not have been made to order.
At the depot the first arrivals were met by local committees of the Tionesta League, as the graduates alighted from the trains the regulation blue and gold badge being adjusted to each man's coat lapel. The second train was met by a still larger party, and at the west end of the bridge the party was formed in line and paraded through the principal streets, headed by the famous north-western band of Meadville, finally breaking ranks at the picnic grounds at the upper end of town. Here Manager F. A. Wheeler called the meeting to order and bade all a hearty welcome on behalf of the town and the Tionesta League. Rev. Rankin offered prayer, and followed this by a most hearty address of welcome. Hon. J. G. White, of Mercer, delivered the set speech of the day, which abounded in logic, pathos and humor. He was frequently interrupted by hearty applause.
Dinner was announced immediately after the speaking, and the large crowd present gathered about the tables, or in little parties throughout the grove as it suited them, all giving themselves up to the enjoyment of replenishing the inner man, holding little reunions of their own and having a good time generally. Dinner over, a large percentage of the crowd drifted toward the dancing pavilion, where all who wished indulged in tripping the "light fantastic" to the delightful strains of Coleman's orchestra, while others watched and many wished, no doubt. These festivities lasted until late into the night. During the afternoon the Keeley clubs of Franklin and Titusville played a game of base ball which afforded no little amusement for the spectators, Franklin, as usual, winning the game by a score of 20 to 15.
The festivities of the day were brought to a close by a social meeting of the League at the club room, where greetings and farewells were said, and the second annual reunion of the Tionesta Keeley League was at an end. There was a general expression of praise among the visitors for the people of Tionesta for the hospitality shown on this occasion, and doubtless many will vote to hold the third annual here next year.

Clarion County Sentences.
Last Wednesday was sentence day in the Clarion courts, and Judge Clark pronounced sentence on several parties, convicted at the August term of court, whose names have become quite familiar to the reading public in these parts:
Jarod S. Cook, the horse thief, plead guilty of larceny as bailee in two cases. In one he was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, and to be imprisoned in the Western penitentiary for three years, and in the other to pay a fine of $100 and to be further imprisoned in the same institution for two years.
Austin Hess was sentenced to pay fines aggregating $250 and undergo seven years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. For stealing a horse from F. W. Steiner, October 20, 1892, he got two years. For complicity in the burglary of F. W. Steiner's house, near Tylersburg, on the night of the 7th of December, 1892, four years, and for receiving cattle stolen from Valentine Ochs, of Paint township, knowing the same to have been stolen, one year.
William Blair, convicted jointly with Hess of the burglary of Steiner's house, was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, the cost of prosecution, and to be imprisoned in the penitentiary for three years.
Samuel Mauk, convicted of voluntary manslaughter, was asked if he had anything to say why the sentence should not be pronounced against him, shook his head. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, the cost of prosecution, and to undergo an imprisonment in the penitentiary for seven years.

The W. C. T. U. Convention at West Hickory.
The 7th Annual Convention of the W. C. T. U. of Forest County met Tuesday, Sept. 5th, at West Hickory, in the Evangelical church. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. J. Gillilan of Nebraska, and Mrs. A. B. Kelly of Tionesta. The convention was called to order by the President, Mrs. J. H. Derickson. The attendance was good, delegates from all over the county responded to roll call with appropriate scripture verses, one new union being reported at Redefield. The singing by the children was good. We then listened to an excellent address of welcome by Mrs. Orion Siggins. After the reports of Cor. Sec'y, Mrs. Irwin, and Treasurer, Mrs. Kelly, we listened to the address by our President, Mrs. Derickson, which touched the hearts of all present, making each one more determined to work harder the coming year and try to recollect her Presidential vote, which they did by a unanimous report on following subjects: Evangelistic work, Mrs. Gillilan; Rail Road, Mrs. J. A. Kender; Sabbath School, Mrs. Geo. Kerr; Juvenile work, Miss Sallada; Prison work, Mrs. Mary Irwin; Narcotics, Mrs. W. G. Wilkins; Contest work, by Mrs. S. Sharp, deserves special mention. It is a grand work for the young and we hope to make it better next year than ever before. Tuesday the lecture by Rev. Anna Shaw, "The Temperance Problem," was indeed a grand treat for Forest County, and was appreciated, for although the night was very stormy, there was a full house. Wednesday morning the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. J. H. Derickson; Vice Pres., Mrs. Orion Siggins; Corresponding Sec'y, Mrs. Mary Irwin; Recording Sec'y, Mrs. S. E. Warden; Treasurer, Mrs. A. B. Kelly.
S. E. WARDEN, Sec'y Protem.

Mrs. Orion Siggins, Mrs. Mary Irwin, Mrs. J. Gillilan, Committee to select time and place of holding next annual convention, name Tionesta as the place and last week in August as the time.
Following is the report of the Resolution Committee:
Whereas, through the providence of God we have been permitted to meet at another Convention, Resolved,
1. That we will continue our work until the saloon shall no longer have a place in our land.
2. That we urge our union to carry on only as many lines of work as they can effectually follow in their different localities, becoming familiar with them by careful study of literature prepared on those subjects.
3. That the local Sup't ask for and follow the suggestions of the County, and the county the State, and report to the State.
4. That, as the duty of each individual is self-development, and suffrage is conducive to personal independence and mental growth, we seek for the ballot, not only as protective of these ends but as the most efficient means of defense, liberty and happiness.
5. That we return our sincere thanks to the press of Forest county, which has given us space in their columns for temperance items and reports. That we recognize the press as a mighty power in our work and solicit space in all the County papers.
6. That we pledge our support and personal interests and influence to those teachers of our country, who are trying to fulfill the spirit as well as the letter of the law, requiring scientific instructions in our public schools.
7. That we give our Christian sympathy and hearty approval to the workers in the Keeley Institute, and we encourage by words of love all who try to help themselves, by scientific treatment, to a purer and better life, giving thanks to our loving Father for opening this new door to helpless men.
8. That we appreciate the efforts of our County President in her earnest work during the past year, publicly acknowledging our gratitude and thanks for her service, and hoping she may continue to serve many years.
9. That the thanks of the convention be tendered to Hickory Union for their cordial welcome, and the trustees who have so kindly given us the use of the church, and to the children who have entertained us so admirably with their singing, and to all who have contributed to the success of this convention.
Committee—Mrs. W. G. Wilkins, Chairman, Mrs. E. L. Kerr, Mrs. C. Carson, Mrs. A. S. Stewart.

NEWSY NOTES.
Samuel Ridgway, of Hydettown, who has been dangerously ill is recovering.
The next national Grand Army Encampment will be held in Pittsburg.
Johnson, the Tidoute colored ballist, is doing some good base ball playing for Punxsutawney.
A Greenville man found a snake coiled up in his yard and attacked it with an ax. Next morning he found his lawn hose cut into four pieces.
Since the records have been kept, the G. A. R. of the United States has expended $2,500,000 for charity. Last year the organization gave $178,845.32 to that cause.
And now it is reported that an application for the pardon of Ralph Crossmore will be presented to the Board of Pardons. On what grounds informant says he is not.—Mt. Jewett Herald.
To be photographed while you doze in a corner of your pew at church is one of the latest terrors. The local humorist made his way into the pulpit. An Irish clergyman the other Sunday during the service took a snap shot of his congregation.
The resetting of the boundary monuments between Pennsylvania and New York has begun. The Commissioners will travel on foot along the entire line between the two States from the Delaware River to Lake Erie, and are required to carefully examine every monument.
The Commission appointed by Gov. Pattison to select a site for the asylum for feeble-minded children, has decided on a location near Polk, Venango county, on the Lake Shore railroad. The state board of charities will visit the place in a few days and ratify the selection if it suits them.
A Pittsburg cigarette fiend set his best girl's dress afire while courting her the other night and indulging in his favorite habit at the same time. This is only another evidence of the impossibility of doing two things well at the same time, even two things requiring as little brain power as smoking a cigarette and courting a girl.—Meadville Gazette.
Hon. Isaac G. Gordon, ex-Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, died at his home in Brookville at 1 o'clock p. m., September 4th, of gastric catarrh. Judge Gordon had been sick for several months, but his condition was not deemed critical until very recently, when he was taken down and began to sink rapidly. He was in the 74th year of his age.
We have received from a friend in New Orleans a specimen copy of the seventeen-year locust. And he's a bird—not the size of a humming bird. The sender says they make a noise like a bass horn and are difficult to capture. The specimen received looks as if he might make a good bait for fishing and the chances are he may end his career dangling at the end of a line.—Blizzard.
About a year ago Calvin Bruner was convicted in Venango county for aggravated assault and battery, and while awaiting sentence disappeared and has not been heard from. A few days ago Judge Taylor sentenced Bruner to pay a fine of $500 and costs and undergo imprisonment in the penitentiary for two years. No doubt as soon as Calvin learns this piece of intelligence he will make haste to get back.
George Wilson, aged 22, whose parents live near Corry, was arrested a few days ago at Grand Valley, Warren county, on a charge of stealing horses. He tried to commit suicide by drinking a bottle of liniment, but was pumped out in time to save him. Although so young he has a big record as a crook. He has confessed to stealing a number of horses near Corry, and is suspected of the murder of a young woman.—Franklin News.
David Henderson, a farmer living five miles east of Erie, Pa., after working his poor old horse nearly to death and abusing him, turned it out into the woods to die of starvation and thirst. The poor animal wandered about for three weeks, without food or water, before death ended its sufferings. Brought before Alderman Sewall the two-legged brute plead guilty, and was fined ten dollars and costs. That was a very mild dose for such an inhuman act.

The late Chief Justice Gordon, of Pennsylvania, whose death occurred on September 4, intended to be an iron founder, and was only driven to study and finally a lawyer's life by an accident from some molar iron. Judge Hagaman, of Berks county, was driven by a similar accident from the same pursuit into the same profession and also became a Judge. Their success should be an encouragement to those who are disposed to yield to misfortunes.
If, as seems to be demonstrated beyond a doubt, an average man weighing 154 pounds contains within his physical organization, inter alia, thirteen pounds, three ounces of calcium, which at the present market price is worth $300 an ounce, it seems mighty tough in these Democratic times that a poor man has to carry around with him $18,300 worth of marketable goods and can't realize on it. Few men realize how much they are intrinsically worth. Let no man hereafter say, I am poor.—Mercer Dispatch.
A manly man, says the Punxsutawney Spirit, will not only stick to his principles, and what he believes to be right, but he will stand up for his friends and defend them under all circumstances. A friend who is only a friend when the winds of prosperity are blowing every sail, and you are bounding joyously along over the billows of success, is not a friend at all. It is the fellow who is by your side when the storm comes on, when the heavens are black and the rocks of adversity loom up in your course, that is useful to you. The sunshine and prosperity friend is a fraud.
