Republicans, Pay Your Taxes.

Every Republican should have paid a State or County tax within two years and at least 30 days before election. Oct. 7 is the last day on which you can pay your tax and vote at the election, Nov. 7.

This nation is talked to death. Why doesn't the Senate take a vote and be done with the silver question?

It is all right enough for the newspapers to publish encouraging reports of returning prosperity, but the men who are working half time, or not at all, experience the same difficulty in making ends meet. —Blizzard.

The important message was flashed over the wires one day last week that the name of Baby Ruth's sister has been decided upon. The President has just announced that she is to be christened Esther. Now let Congress go on with the repeal bill.

How that man Neal is floundering around in his campaign for Governor against McKinley. If all reports be true, and they cannot be denied, for they come direct from Democratic Protectionists in Ohio, Neal will be snowed under so badly that he will not be heard of again. The Republican victory in Ohio is assured.

HOKE SMITH has introduced into his department the spy system of the Scotland Yards to ferret out information to be used against persons drawing pensions for military service. In this country the name of Pinkerton has become the synonym for a degenerate degree of villainy that finds no suitable term for expression in the text books. Compared with a Scotland Yard detective, Pinkerton's bandits are as white winged doves to a vampire. The Democracy is making a poor record. —Derrick.

THE cause of Protection is marching on in Ohio. At Akron on the 12th inst. McKinley spoke to 50,000 enthusiastic people, all of whom will vote for him, and they were not all Republicans. Many were Democrats who had been thrown out of work by the anti-tariff demonstrations of the Democratic leaders, and they will show by their votes this year that they are for protection and the party that gives them work. This is a campaign of education in Ohio, and the people at its close will know all about tariff, the financial question and pensions.

A FAREWELL dinner was given in London the other evening to Col. Charles Mitchell, the English bruiser, who is coming to this country to fight Col. James J. Corbett, the American fist swinger, for the championship of the word and, incidentally, a purse of $40,000. When these two citizens get together in a ring they ought to pummel each other so soundly that they will never be able to again enter the ring. Their calling is a disgrace, and it is disgraceful that they can find a city in this country the authorities of which will permit a slugging match such as they propose to hold.

It is a difficult thing, observes the Kansas City Times, to destroy a crop in this country. If the Dakota wheat crop is caught by the frost or drought Kansas is pretty sure to have enough for the deficiency. When corn fields of Illinois and Indiana are parched into fodder at midsummer, old Missouri rolls up her sleeves and dumps on a few hundred thousand bushels extra. A few days ago it was reported that the Carolina rice fields were devastated by the wind. Now it appears that Louisiana is somewhat of a rice State itself and this year has a yield of 1,500,000 barrels or more of the best quality. Rice pudding will still be on the bill of fare this winter.

MONEY makes pretty much every thing go, but there is no money to move the Chinese, and Congress doesn't seem to be in a hurry to appropriate any. Since the threat from China that she will retaliate there has been a dying out of the old cry of the Chinese must go.

To-DAY the banks of the country have passed the panic stage, but the business men and manufacturers have not, as witness the continued reduction of wages and the thousands of empty freight cars along the lines of our great railroads. With the status of silver practically settled does not the continued depressed condition indicate that there is something else the trouble than the relative value of silver? —Harrisburg Telegraph.

THAT sterling Confederate sheet, the Richmond State, commends Hoke Smith for taking away the pensions from the old soldiers whom the State designates as "bums, ex-outlets and men who never heard a gun in the war." This is the talk of the rebel press all through the South. It only goes to show that Hoke is carrying out instructions from home, and that he is greatly pleasing his constituency when he raids the poor old crippled pensioners. It is a sad commentary on what a man will do for office to see Pension Commissioner Loebren, himself an old soldier, assisting Smith in this assault on the pensions of his comrades.

GOVERNOR MCKINLEY is not afraid to speak out loud on the pension subject. He was a gallant soldier, and he believes in helping his old comrades. In the course of a speech recently he said: "Just a word about the old soldier 'looting the Treasury.' You would not have had a Treasury but for the old veterans. It was patriotism, love for the old flag, and not for pensions, that they sprang to arms. I resent the stigma they would cast upon my comrades with the utmost indignation. Let them take away their pensions. The old soldier is ready to fight for the old flag again, and would do it to-morrow. I object to his not being able to face his accusers. I object to his being dropped from the pension rolls without a hearing."

The iron and steel representatives told the Ways and Means Committee of Congress some very plain truths the other day when they made their argument in favor of the tariff on iron and steel as it was fixed by the McKinley bill. They told the free traders that since the tariff agitation a great many mills and furnaces and foundries have shut down, wages have been reduced in a great many more, thousands of men are out of employment in the 29 States where iron and steel are made, and 93 big firms engaged in manufacture have failed, while all of the others are hanging on by the eye-lids. This was a strong presentation of facts that cannot be controverted, and yet the free traders say that the best interests of the country demand a reduction of the tariff on iron and steel. Boosh!

The Secretary of the Mahoning and Shenango Valley Manufacturers' Association (the iron industry of Ohio) in a reply to a request from the general manager of the iron and steel association to send delegates to tariff hearings before Wilson's free trade committee in Washington declines to do so. He says: "As you know we have in previous years gone to Washington and appeared before the ways and means committee when it seemed proper to do so. We do not feel that this is appreciated by the working classes and they do not seem to understand that what has been done in the way of tariff legislation has been done in their interest. On the contrary, it would appear, from the votes of the presidential election, that the employees considered their interests adverse to that of the employers, and from our standpoint voted against what we believed to be their best interest. The truth is that 90 per. cent of the cost of manufacture of iron and steel is labor, and if free trade or lower tariff is coming the workmen will alone suffer."

Everybody Reads It.
The Pittsburg Dispatch's unsurpassed special service to Washington enables it to publish the fullest accounts of the doings of Congress. Daily letters from the World's Fair, sporting news, full base ball reports and interesting fiction by brilliant authors each day are among its special features. Rider Haggard's story now being published in the Sunday issue surpasses all previous efforts of this great author.
—Closing-out Sale of Summer Suits, regardless of cost, at Miles & Co's.

THE Democratic State convention which met in Harrisburg yesterday was perhaps to most inanimate affair of the kind ever known. Samuel Gustine Thompson of Philadelphia was nominated for Supreme Judge, and Frank G. Osborn for State Treasurer.

The New Ballot.

The County Commissioners have received specimen copies of all the blanks and tickets that will be required to hold the Fall election, and in some respects differ greatly from the ones used last fall. The corrections are made in accordance with the amendments to the Baker ballot law at the last session of the Legislature. The new ticket is now so plain that a blind man could vote it without making a mistake. It is got up on the same plan as heretofore with the exception that it only takes one mark to vote a straight ticket. At the head of each column representing the different political parties is a ring. If a person desires to vote the straight ticket all he needs to do is to mark an X within the circle and the task is at an end. Should the voter want to split he must stay away from the ring and put an X after the names of those he wants to vote for. If there are not enough names in the three old parties there is still a place reserved to add others.

The new ticket will not be large as the old one. This is due to the omission of the residences of the candidates. It is only necessary to have them on the certificates of nomination. The old law said that the Commissioners would send out two sets of ballots, each of not less than seventy-five for every fifty voters. The law now says that they shall send out one set. Heretofore the Commissioners only had to furnish the ballots for certain elections. The ballots for the borough and township elections were looked after by their respective Auditors. Now this is all in the hands of the Commissioners. The certificates of nomination and nomination papers for county offices must be filed with the County Commissioners at least twenty-eight and twenty-one days respectively before the time of election. Forty-two and thirty-five were the number of days allowed before. The papers for township and borough offices must be filed with the Commissioners ten and seven days respectively before the election.
