LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

- Oil market closed yesterday 69 1/2.
- Next Friday, Oct. 20, will be fall Arbor Day. Plant a tree.
- Heavy frost in this locality Monday night, forming ice of considerable thickness.
- Nelson, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Russell, has been quite seriously ill for two weeks past.
- Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Green of Wolf Run, N. Y., are spending a couple of weeks with Tionesta friends.
- Chestnuts are plenty, and the boys and girls are not allowing them to decay on the ground, either, if they know it.
- Mrs. W. L. Hunter has been confined to her bed with a severe attack of pneumonia, but is some better at this writing.
- L. J. Hopkins attended the meeting of the Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W., at Erie last week as the Representative of Forest Lodge, of this place.
- In connection with my millinery I have secured a competent dress maker and will be pleased to do dress making and sewing at reasonable prices. Mrs. W. W. GROVE, 1t.
- See Hopkins & Lanson's new ad this week. They claim to have a big stock of goods for the fall trade, and perhaps the matter had better be investigated by the public generally.
- Quarterly meeting services will be held at Wesleyan church, Stewart Run, commencing next Saturday evening and continuing over Sunday. A cordial invitation is extended to every one.
- The rains of last week made a good boat flood in the river, but that don't help business much hereabouts as the markets below are about as dead as they can well get, boats being hard to get rid of at any price.
- The County Commissioners have posted bills announcing that they will receive bids for painting the upper creek bridge at Nebraska, and the creek and river bridges at Tionesta. Bids will be opened at 2 o'clock, Oct. 25.
- Nebraska sent a good delegation to the World's Fair last evening, as follows: James G. Carson, Gus Wenzel, Rilly Myers, Elmer Patterson, James Thompson, Fin. Watson, E. S. Collins, Charles and Fred Klinefelter.
- Elders Warren and Schell and their singers are holding services in the Mount Pleasant meeting house, on German Hill. The meeting will be protracted about two weeks or longer. All are cordially invited to come.
- Al. Ault of Nebraska fell into one of the barges which he was helping to run yesterday, near Rockwood, and was brought home on the afternoon train. He was quite badly bruised in several places and may be hurt internally.
- Perhaps the largest single run of boats and barges from Nebraska that has yet taken place was made since the first of the week. Upwards of forty pieces were brought out, most which have started for the lower markets.
- Attention is directed to Hunter & Morgan's new ad in to-day's paper. These gentlemen understand their business, and keep a fresh stock in everything pertaining to their line. They will please you if it is in the line, both in quality of goods and reasonableness in prices.
- The work of improving the channel of the river by the Government which has been going on under the direction of Lyman Cook for the past month, has been suspended on account of the rise in the river. The crew had reached a point below Franklin, and have done excellent work.
- Hopkins & Lanson are at home in their line of business, with a store full of new goods. Come in. 2t.

The twenty-third annual reunion of the Eighty-third Regiment, Pennsylvania Vols., will be held the 31st of this month at Titusville. Company G. of this famous regiment was recruited in this county, and a number of its survivors still reside in this vicinity. Doubtless some of them will attend the reunion.

Tuesday afternoon of last week George H. Higgins Esq., so well and favorably known to many Forest county people, was married to Miss N. A. Starbird of Corry, Pa., one of the most popular ladies of that city. The Republican joins Mr. Higgins' friends hereabouts in hearty good wishes for a happy future.

The Pleasantville Record of last week says: Diphtheria seems to have lost its grip in this place. There are no new cases to report, and all those affected by the disease are recovering rapidly. The indications are now that the disease has been stamped out, and in view of this the public schools will open Monday.

Grandin Brothers, for twenty-five years in the banking business in Tidoute, have announced to their patrons and correspondents that "wishing to retire from active business and be relieved as far as possible from detail work" that they have decided not to do a general banking business after October 15th.

Don't fail to see the millinery ad of Flora Walters & Co., in this issue. The ladies are now pleasantly located in their new rooms, and with a new and well selected stock of goods will take pleasure in showing customers the newest things in the line of millinery and ladies' furnishings. Call and see them.

We regret to learn that some of the members of Mr. Joyce's family who have been sick with typhoid fever, are not getting along as well as could be wished. His eldest son, John, is in a critical condition, while the baby, about 8 months old, is also quite low. The last to come down with the disease is the second son, Joe.

Some thieves were calling on some of the neighbors one night last week. They were of the hungry variety, and confined their visits principally to the cellars. At Mr. Poffinberg's they swiped a good supply of fresh beef, and at Capt. Knox's bagged about a dozen cans of fruit and a pair of rubber boots. Moral: Either keep less provisions in store, or more stout guns.

If the following is true it will save a good deal of expense to a family who burn oil for lights. It is worth trying: "When you buy a lamp chimney, place it in a vessel of water, put the vessel on the stove, let the water boil, then remove the vessel from the stove and allow the water to become cold. Take out your lamp chimney, and you will have no trouble about its cracking when in use."

The water company's reservoir is about completed and will be ready to receive its supply of water by the last of the week, or when the cement is thoroughly set. The job is a solid one and reflects credit on the workmanship of Mr. Joyce who has had charge of the work. The capacity of the reservoir will be upward of 3,000 barrels, sufficient, it is thought, for all the needs of the borough for many years to come.

The Presbyterian congregation expects to occupy the new church next Sabbath. Communion services will be held in the morning, with preparatory services on Friday and Saturday evenings. A congregational meeting will be held on Thursday evening in connection with the prayer meeting, to which all interested in the church are invited. The dedicatory services will take place on Sabbath evening. The other congregations of the town have been invited, and short addresses will be made by Revs. Rankin, Brennan and others. All cordially invited.

The 25th annual meeting of the Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, A. O. U. W., closed its session in Erie last week, over 200 delegates being in attendance. The following grand officers were elected: Master Workman, A. A. Andrews, Pittsburg; Foreman, John Bittel, Norristown; Overseer, Silas K. Hathaway, Wheeling; Recorder, J. M. McNair, Pittsburg; Receiver, O. K. Gardner, Pittsburg; Guide, C. L. Hannon, Allegheny; Inside Watch, G. P. Karnes, Braddock; Outside Watch, H. E. Cottinger, Cambridge; Medical Examiner, P. Y. Eisenberg, Norristown. West Virginia is included in the jurisdiction. The Grand Recorder's report shows a membership, June 30, of 17,098, a gain over all losses of 254 in the last six months and a gain since the last Grand Lodge session two years ago of 1,189. By the adoption of a new rule persons over the age of 45 years of age cannot now become members of the order.

The Blizzard very correctly remarks that "reduced rates for transportation have swollen the attendance at the fair very materially of late, but had the charges been reduced earlier in the season it would have been vastly better for all concerned. The railroad companies would have derived larger revenues, the receipts of the fair would have been greatly augmented and thousands upon thousands of people would have been enabled to attend the greatest exposition the world has ever seen who will not now be able to do so. Had the visits of the excursionists who are now crowding the White City been strung out through the season the jam during the closing weeks would not have been so great as to intimidate people who dislike the idea of endangering life and limb, even to see the fair. The railroad companies have displayed vastly more of the characteristics of the porcine than of the patriotic spirit which would have been so potent in adding to the success of the fair."

Prof. Hicks has been furnishing us with some pretty stormy weather for a few days. We would request that Mr. H. give us a few weeks more of such fine days as we have had the past few weeks.

Clarence Catlin, eldest son of M. F. Catlin of Whig Hill, met with a slight mishap on Saturday at Fools Creek, where he is superintending a log job for his father. A tram road about two miles in length is used for carrying the logs to the mill. During the morning the young man went to the upper end of the road to carry the double-trees down to the stable, and when about half way back the heavy wind uprooted a large tree near the road. The boy did not see the tree until it was partly down, or too nearly so to escape being caught by the falling tree. His only course was to jump clear off the road, which is about 5 feet high at this point. The tram road was smashed into shivers and one of the strings caught the young man on the foot, causing a very painful bruise, but otherwise he was unharmed.

The creek is on a small rise caused by a long spell of rain. Not high enough however, to run any lumber. Log driving on Salmon Creek was one of the features of Saturdays work. Not a very large number of logs were driven as the water was not plenty enough. Two-mile dam was washed out which will cause some delay.

The festival at E. Berlin's at Whig Hill on Friday evening, the proceeds to go towards buying heating material for the F. M. church at that place this winter, was a small affair as weather did not permit of any one going without becoming drenched. We did not learn the amount raised.

Kellettville people wishing items inserted in the Kellettville news will be accommodated by leaving the same at the Post Office. Bring in the news.

NEWSY NOTES.

When the World's Fair closes the contents of the Pennsylvania building, which were not included in the gift to the Chicago Naval School, will be shipped to the State arsenal. They will be sold at public sale.

As the Pennsylvania farmer passes through the State building at the World's Fair he may happen to see this legend in plain view: "The average value of farm land in the United States is $10.92 per acre; in Pennsylvania it is $19.30."

A Cattaraugus county editor announces sarcastically that he wants to buy a bag of flour, a pair of shoes, and a winter hat and is ready to receive bids for the same. He says that is the way the merchants do by him when they want $2 worth of printing.

Judge McPherson, of Harrisburg, appointed Alfred G. Church, of Meadville, auditor thereto under the report of Samuel H. Griffith, receiver of the Economical Mutual Benefit Association of Sandy Lake. The balance in the hands of the receiver is $4,391.71.

Here's some good advice from an unknown source: "Keep clear of personalities in general conversation. Talk of things, objects and thoughts. Do not smeltest myself recall ill of others. The smallest minds occupy themselves with personalities. There is evil enough in man, God knows; but it is not the mission of every young man or woman to detail and report it. Keep the atmosphere as pure as possible, and fragrant with gentleness and charity."

A glib-tongued stranger, with a new swindle, has made his appearance in Clarion county, says the Democrat. He asks whether or not the family has lost any children and if the answer is in the affirmative, the age, etc., will be asked. Subsequently he puts in an appearance with a certificate containing the information given and demands five dollars for the same. His idea is to frighten women into paying the amount. Throw a pan of hot ashes in his face, or let the bull dog play with him.

A newspaper man in some instances like other people. He respects his friends, appreciates a kindness, and is always willing to return a favor. He will not continue to put a man on the back, tell what a good man he is, and how much he has done for the town and give him a free business puff every week when the men will not, through personal prejudice or otherwise, continue to aid in supporting the paper. In other words, he stands by the man who stands by him. That's about the way of the world, and the newspaper man can't be expected to be so much different from other people.—Clarion Jacksonian.

A Veteran Speaks His Mind.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—Our country is now being confronted by a condition of things in the Pension Department of this great government without precedent in its history.

The Pension Bureau has now become a house of wholesale slaughter of Union Soldiers; their character and good names are being besmirched under pretense of law by Georgia's son Hoke Smith. That gentleman appears to be determined to make the Union soldier feel the weight of a southern hand. Just why Hoke Smith was put at the head of the Pension Bureau is a problem easily solved, and we scarcely need add that it is truly humiliating to us to now be compelled to have our destiny and just rights administered by a man, who, having been tutored under southern impulses and ideas of State Rights and Southern schooling, while there are thousands of Patriotic men of tried union sentiments and who would have at least reflected some credit upon the administration, left at home.

The action of Hoke Smith suspending pensions without a hearing upon the part of the defendant is without a parallel in our land, without a shadow of law, and in direct violation of the Constitution, which guarantees to its citizens the right of life, liberty and property. A man's pension is his property in the true sense; it is not a gift or donation from the government, as some advocate, but it is property duly earned by labor done; those who think or try to teach the public mind to the contrary will ere long have the definition as rendered by the Supreme Court of the U. S. The Hon. Hoke Smith has no legal right to brand a pensioner before the world as a fraud, giving him sixty days in which he is to show up to the gentleman from Georgia that he is not a fraud. Such a course is preposterous. No pension should be tolerated that is not just or honest, but the proof must be produced before the verdict is rendered, or in other words, in this land of ours, a man is considered honest until he is proven dishonest. No doubt the gentleman thinks he is in a fortified position and is capable of holding out as long as his worthy ancestors did a few years ago, but the law is still his superior, and the Court may yet bring him to the conclusion that setting aside law, even against Union soldiers, is not the best of policy. J. A.

Resolutions of Respect.

FORCES GRANGE, No. 883. As it has been the will of our Heavenly Master to call from our midst our worthy brother, William Anderson, we feel his loss very much, for the chair he once occupied is now empty and sad to look upon, yet we trust that he has gone to join the great Grange above, not made with hand eternally in the heavens, where he will receive his welcome, "well done good and faithful servant; as thou has been faithful over a few things I will make thee ruler over many." He leaves a father, mother, one brother, four sisters, and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

We extend heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family, and be it Resolved, That our charter be draped for thirty days in behalf of our brother, and a copy hereof be sent to the family. Mrs. H. G. WITT, J. DAWSON, C. WINDBOARD, Committee.

Perhaps some of our readers would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other. We will tell you. When this Remedy is taken as soon as a cold has been contracted, and before the inflammation has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effect of the cold and greatly lessen its severity, and it is the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquefying the mucus and causing its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties. No other will cure a cold so quickly. For sale by Siggins & Nason.

"During my term of service in the army I contracted chronic diarrhoea," says A. E. Bending, of Hasely, Oregon. "Since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief, they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only that gave me permanent relief and no bad results followed." For sale by Siggins & Nason.

"I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a specific for cough. It is very pleasant to take, which is one of the most important requisites in one of the most important remedies for use among children. I have known of cases of cough where I know the life of a little one was saved by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." J. J. Signs of the Times. The leaves in the forests are beginning to turn yellow and brown, and to drop off one by one, presaging the approach of Autumn and bringing with it many climatic changes. It needs a very strong constitution to withstand the sudden shocks of snow and moisture. Unfortunately there are few so fitted, the majority of the human race need to have their natures strengthened and stimulated, and there is no better remedial agent than a pure rye whiskey. Klein's Silver Age Rye has stood the severest tests and has been found to be absolutely perfect, being recommended and prescribed by the highest medical authorities. It is for sale by dealers generally, at $1.50 per full quart, Duquesne Rye at $1.25 per quart, and Bear Creek at $1.00 per quart are highly recommended. VETERINARY SURGEON, RURAL HOUSE, Tionesta, Pa. Horses suffering from soreness, or any diseases horses, dogs or cattle are heir to, successfully treated. The dentistry of the horse is a science in itself. Horses' teeth the cause of disagreeable habits. Horses having diseased teeth are hard to keep in condition, and if poor, it is impossible to train. There are few horses, young or old, without numerous sharp points or rough projections upon their molars. The sharp edges lacerate the mouth, causing torture to the horse, and he tries in various ways to rid himself of the trouble. Some start suddenly or stop short, toss the head, drool or slobber; others shy, drive sideways or hold their head in an unusual manner. Inproper grinding of feed causes indigestion, and indigestion produces loss of appetite, hide-bound, swollen limbs, starting or head like out of habit, coughing, discharges at the nose, running at the eyes, etc., etc.

All irregularities of molars or incisors easily removed. Practical experience enables me to give satisfaction in all cases. Have fine roomy stalls for the treatment of all diseased animals. All calls promptly attended to, night or day, and no charge for examination at office.
