Let us hear a good report from all quarters. Let each individual make it his personal business to see that every vote is out on election day. This is your duty, and I hope it will be a pleasure to you. The result will be the election of our entire ticket by good majorities. J. I. WOODS, Chairman.

ONE mark is enough to vote a Republican ticket this fall. That should be a cross in the circle at the head of the column. Every member of the party should put his mark there this year if never before. NO REPUBLICAN should be idle from this hour to election day. The straight ticket is what Republicans of the county must elect, and we hope none will so far forget his duty to the party as to vote a man. This is not the right year for splitting. A Republican who cannot vote his party's ticket straight this year must be a strange one indeed. We should think all have had their fill of splitting by this time. REPUBLICANS, stand firmly by your county ticket. That's the best way to show your disapproval of Democratic rule. Congress is now in session; what is being done? It has been suggested that the question of the financial affairs be submitted once more to the vote of the people and that the complexion of the next Congress shall be an indication of what the people desire. If that is the case now is the time to commence voting on the question. Let the election just approaching be the beginning of the test. Let every man who disapproves the present state of affairs cast his ballot for the straight ticket, not cutting a single candidate, but laying aside personal feelings stand by the ticket. Our ticket is a good one and deserving of the support of the united party, and we believe it will be supported to a man. Carry these thoughts with you to the polls, Republicans, and see if you feel like giving a vote to the enemy.

The new board of pension examiners for Forest county is composed of Drs. Siggins, of the Borough, Weber of Hickory, and Brewer of Clarington, all solid Democrats. We have no fault to find with these gentlemen personally, but it was customary under Republican rule to have at least one Democrat on the board. The present administration, however, believes in taking everything in eight, even to depriving the hosts of good and loyal veterans who are Republicans of even a smell in that direction. If anybody can see any fair treatment in this action it would be interesting to have it pointed out.

HON. D. NEWLIN FELL.

Hon. David Newlin Fell, of Philadelphia, the candidate of the Republican party for Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, was born November 4th, 1849, in Buckingham, Bucks county, Pennsylvania, where his ancestors settled in 1704. He was educated under the direction of his father, Joseph Fell, who was a distinguished teacher and superintendent of the schools of the county, and who, for fifty years, was actively connected with and did much to advance the educational interests of the State. Upon the completion of his studies, Judge Fell was graduated at the State Normal School, at Millersville, Pennsylvania, in the class of '62. With a full realization of the brilliant prospects of success which his education and talents would secure for him at home, he enlisted in Company E, 122nd Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. This command was recruited largely from students of the State Normal School. The sterling quality of mind and heart which have since been so freely recognized by his fellow citizens, even at that early day, caused his student associates to elect him Lieutenant of the Company. Four days after being mustered into service this command was at the front and assigned to the 3rd Brigade, 3rd Division, 3rd Corps, then under command of General Stone, and later commanded by General Sickles. The most disastrous campaign in which the Regiment took part was that of Chancellorsville, where 135 of its gallant men went down on the field of battle. Mustered out after the expiration of his term of service, he again went to his books and studies, and devoted himself assiduously to the science of the law. Again we find him with a preceptor who had a keen interest in his success—his brother, William W. Fell. Passing successfully and brilliantly the examination, he was admitted to the Bar March 17th, 1866, where he soon acquired an extensive and lucrative practice. While still a young man, his ripe legal attainments and sterling qualities of character were recognized by Governor Hartranft, who appointed him, on May 3rd, 1877, Judge of the Court of Common Pleas No. 2, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Pratt. In the following November, as the sole nominee of both Republican and Democratic parties, he was elected to the same position for the full term of ten years. When this expired in 1887, he was again honored with the double nomination and a unanimous election. During more than a quarter of a century he has been an active and enthusiastic member of Post 2 of the Grand Army of the Republic. In addition to his services in the Post, he has brought his splendid attainments to the positions of Senior Vice Department Commander and Judge Advocate General of the Grand Army of the Republic, Department of Pennsylvania. Such, in brief, has been the career of a brave and valiant soldier, an upright and public spirited citizen, and a learned and able Judge.

Death of Mrs. Emily A. Ault. Emily A. Ault, nee Brewster, was born near Tylersburg, Clarion county Pa., Aug. 19th, 1847, and died at Nebraska, Forest county, Pa., Oct. 20, 1893. She was converted and joined the M. E. Church at Tylersburg under the pastorate of the Rev. E. R. Knapp. She was married to Jno. R. Ault, May 29th, 1866. She was a dutiful daughter, an affectionate wife, a tender mother and a fond sister. Her door was always open to the needy. She never thought any work too much to do for the comfort of others. She always greeted her pastor with a pleasant smile and a hearty handshake. Her sickness was very severe but sustained by the grace of God, she bore it with patience and Christian fortitude. She was a woman of few words but manifested an insured peace, which only those possess whose mind is staid on God. She leaves a husband, two children, an aged mother and eight brothers and sisters to mourn. The funeral was conducted on Sabbath morning, Oct. 22nd, at the house in Nebraska, and her remains laid to rest in the Tylersburg cemetery. "Beyond the parting and the meeting— Beyond the farewell and the greeting. There shall be joy."

NEWS NOTES.

The McKean county grand jury last week, found a true bill against George Snyder, James McCovey, Dave Parsons and John Fitzgerald, for the murder of Mrs. Snyder, near the Kinzua bridge, some weeks ago.—Emporium Independent. Last Saturday morning while a little son of Charles Harding, residing at Knoxville, and aged about three years, was eating chestnuts a piece became lodged in his windpipe, and he choked before relief could be given him.—Brookville Democrat.

The gas supply was shut off from the people of Saxenburg, Butler county, the other day, and everybody was excited and looking for the cause. When the crowd went to see the regulator, they found a large red rooster roosting on the lever, thus stopping the supply of gas.

The W. N. Y. & P. have placed a bulletin board on the Central depot that gives the arrival and departure of the trains of the different roads centering here, and also registers whether the trains are on time or not. In addition to saving the ticket agents and employes of the railroads much loss of time in answering questions the boards are a much appreciated accommodation to the patrons.—Derrick.

A fire at Irvineton, Monday afternoon, of last week, resulted in the total destruction of the Junction House, in which it started, and the Irwin and Exchange Hotels. The American and Adams Express Companies had their offices in the Junction House, in which were also located the D., A. V. & P. waiting rooms and ticket office. Nearly all the goods and effects of the offices and hotels were saved. The losses were as follows: Junction House, $2,500; Irvine House, $2,000; Exchange Hotel, $2,000, nearly covered by insurance.

A peculiar hunting accident occurred at Tidoute Thursday forenoon that resulted in George Slocum, an 18 year old youth of that place losing the sight of one of his eyes. In company with Harry McDonald, a young man of about the same age, the injured man started to hunt woodcock. Slocum flushed a bird and after it passed him McDonald shot it, but one of the shot struck a twig, changed its course and struck Slocum in the eye, penetrating the eyeball. He was sent to Buffalo for treatment in less than two hours after the accident occurred to have the shot extracted and to take proper precaution to preserve the sight of the other eye.—Derrick.

The Titusville Herald says: "A number of farmers living in the Cherrytree road have been annoyed considerably of late by the disappearance of farm produce, fruit, vegetables, butter and eggs, and were at a loss to account for their having vanished. The other day while one of them was going through the woods he was surprised to find a shanty erected there. The door was locked with a lock stolen from his barn, but this did not deter him from lifting off some of the roof boards and entering. He found most of the missing property stored there, and lying in wait, a number of the sons of neighbors came to the spot and the cat was out of the bag. The matter has been settled."

Horses suffering from soreness, or any diseases horses, dogs or cattle are heir to, successfully treated.

The dentistry of the horse is a science in itself. Horses' teeth the cause of disagreeable habits. Horses having diseased teeth are hard to keep in condition, and if poor, it is impossible to fatten. There are few horses, young or old, without more or less sharp-edge or rough projections upon their molars. The sharp edges lacerate the mouth, causing torture to the horse, and he tries in various ways to rid himself of the trouble. Some start suddenly or stop short, toss the head, drool or slobber; others shy, drive sideways or hold their head in an unnatural manner. Improper grinding of food causes indigestion, and indigestion produces loss of appetite, hinders, swollen limbs, starting or dead like coat of hair, coughing, discharges at the nose, running at the eyes, etc., etc. All irregularities of molars or incisors easily removed. Practical experience enables me to give satisfaction in all cases. Have fine roomy stalls for the treatment of all disabled animals. All calls promptly attended to, night or day. No charge for examination at office.
