The foregoing constitutes the list of vigilance committees. Let us hear a good report from all quarters. Let each individual make it his personal business to see that every vote is cast in favor of our individual efforts from this on. Work together harmoniously and see if you cannot make an extra nice showing for the entire ticket in your several districts. The result will be the election of our whole ticket by good majorities. J. I. Woods, Chairman.

Republican's Stand Firmly by Your County Ticket.

The time for argument has passed, and there remains only the plain duty of all Republicans to make a bold and manly stand for their ticket from this on till the polls close next Tuesday evening. A few words in the way of a review of that ticket will not be amiss at this time.

FOR PROTHONOTARY, &c.

For the office of Prothonotary, Register, Recorder and Clerk of the Courts, the Republican party has a candidate who has been tried and not found wanting. Calvin M. Arner has for two terms served the people well and acceptably, his administration of the important office for which the people have a third time nominated him being satisfactory to all regardless of party affiliations. Courteous and gentlemanly in his treatment of those having business to transact there he has made himself popular with all, and he will be supported by many outside his party on account of his personal popularity. Mr. Arner takes special delight in making people feel at home when they have occasion to do business at his office, and lends them every assistance in his power to expedite their business when called upon to do so. Many of the old veterans have learned to appreciate this fact when having their pension vouchers executed at his office, and he has never charged one of them a cent for his trouble, notwithstanding the law allows him to charge a regular fee were he so inclined. The boys will remember him at the polls with a whooping big majority next Tuesday, and he will not disappoint them in his future administration of that office.

FOR SHERIFF.

For Sheriff the Republican party nominated Harry Maze of Jenks township, by a good and decisive majority at the primaries last June. Since that time he has conducted a quiet, orderly and gentlemanly campaign for the office for which the party nominated him. Of his capabilities there is no question, and that he will make an obliging and painstaking official there is also no doubt. Warm-hearted and agreeable toward his fellowmen, Harry has few real enemies wherever he is known. A Forest county boy, born and reared, he has a claim on the party and the citizens of the county which entitles him to a united and hearty support. No person could go to Harry Maze in distress and be turned away without receiving his aid, and his last loaf of bread would be shared with the needy. The large vote he received at the primaries at his home where he is best known fully attests his popularity among the people, and is the best evidence of his worthiness as a man and citizen. Mr. Maze will make a faithful officer and will conduct the duties of his office with fairness to all parties, in an orderly manner, with credit to himself and without ostentation or great fuss. The party will stand by Harry because he is deserving of its support and because when elected he will faithfully serve the people.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

For the important office of County Commissioner the Republican party nominated two gentlemen in every way fitted for the duties of that position, W. M. Coon of Barnett and W. A. Connelly of Hickory. W. M. Coon is one of the active, energetic and sensible citizens of Barnett township, whose neighbors showed their faith in his worthiness by an excellent support at the primaries, he having received the vote of every Republican in his township but two, and these he lost by mistake, as the parties who cast them were his warmest supporters. Morris is one of those quiet gentlemen who makes no long speeches but does a heap of thinking, and his conclusions are generally correct and fair. He has had a large experience in township affairs, having always taken a lively interest in matters pertaining to the welfare of the people and the upbuilding of his community. A Republican from way back, he deserves and will receive hearty support of his party throughout the county. He has ability, honesty and firmness to make a good manager of the affairs of the county, and the people will honor themselves by honoring him.

W. A. CONNELLY is a man of the people; straight-forward in his business transactions and faithful to the discharge of every duty entrusted to him. With him in the Commissioners' office the people can rest assured they have a man who cannot be swayed from what is right and just to all parties. Almost from boyhood he has been placed in positions of responsibility in township affairs, and has had to do with matters of great moment to the taxpayers, and yet he has never been blamed for doing an unfair or dishonorable act in the discharge of his duties. His frequent and repeated election to positions of trust in his township fully attests the confidence the people repose in him. Mr. Connelly is not a policy man, and it has never been said of him that he would court the good opinions of any body for mere personal popularity. So with Coon and Connelly in the Commissioners' office the taxpayers of the county may rest assured their interests will be looked after faithfully and well. Rich and poor will be put on an equal footing, with each bearing his share of taxation and no more. The people should stand by and elect them, and we have reason to believe they will.

COUNTY AUDITOR.

The Republican party has named two most excellent young men for these positions, Messrs M. E. Abbott of East Hickory, and W. L. Stroup of Howe township. Two more capable gentlemen could scarcely be found, and as neither has opposition both will be elected, and the people will have reason to be proud of them when they are once tried.

JURY COMMISSIONER.

J. B. Carpenter of Kingsley township is the party's candidate for Jury Commissioner. As in the case of the Auditors he will be elected, there being two to elect, and but one other candidate for the place. "Doc," as his friends are pleased to familiarly call him deserves the support of his party to a man, and will always be found faithful in the discharge of his duties.

Thus we have gone through with the ticket, and we feel confident the people will bear us in all that we have said concerning the candidates. It now remains for the party to stand shoulder to shoulder in this campaign. Every member of the party must lay aside whatever trifling prejudice he may have in the matter and give the candidates his earnest support. This is not a year for bickering or backbiting; we have had enough of that in the past, and it now becomes the duty of every loyal Republican to sacrifice any little personal feeling, should he have any, and support the ticket from top to bottom. In the light of events in the past six months and the present condition of the county we don't think that is a very difficult thing for Republicans to do this year.

VOYE straight, Republicans.

Mayor Harrison Murdered.

The city of Chicago was convulsed Saturday evening by the intelligence that Carter H. Harrison, five times mayor of Chicago, and one of the best known men in the west, had been shot by a crazy crank and lay in the throes of death, at his home on South Ashland avenue. The murder was committed about 8 o'clock by Eugene Patrick Prendergast, a paper carrier, who declared that Mayor Harrison had promised to make him corporation counsel and had not kept his word. This he said was the only reason for committing the crime. Mr. Harrison was at his home when the murderer called and asked to see him. When the mayor walked into the hall the murderer, without warning fired three shots at him each one taking effect. Mr. Harrison lived but two hours. Prendergast hurried to the police station and gave himself up. He is a crank of the Giteau stripe, and his devilish crime has given the country its worst shock since that awful murder.

WELL that awful Sherman act is at last repealed, after 12 long weeks of dilly-dallying. Now what's going to happen?

REPUBLICANS, our last admonition to you is, don't split your ticket. It don't pay.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

PROHIBITION TICKET.

State Treasurer—J. L. Kent. Supreme Judge—H. J. Ames. Prothonotary—S. T. Work. Sheriff—N. G. Cole. County Commissioners—Wm. Lowman, George S. Hindman.

HORSES suffering from soreness, or any diseases horses, dogs or cattle are heir to, successfully treated.

The dentistry of the horse is a science in itself. Horses' teeth the cause of disagreeable habits. Horses having diseased teeth are hard to keep in condition, and if poor, it is impossible to fatten. There are few horses, young or old, without more or less sharp-edge or rough projections upon their molars. The sharp edges lacerate the mouth, causing torture to the horse, and he tries in various ways to rid himself of the trouble. Some start suddenly or stop short, lose the head, droop or slouch; others shy, drive sideways or hold their head in an unnatural manner. Improper grinding of food causes indigestion, and indigestion produces loss of appetite, hite-bound, swollen limbs, starting or dead like coat of hair, coughing, discharges at the nose, running at the eyes, etc., etc.

All irregularities of molars or incisors easily removed. Practical experience enables me to give satisfaction in all cases: Have fine rotary stalls for the treatment of all disabled animals. All calls promptly attended to, night or day. No charge for examination at office.

Prices that will interest and please you. Another tremendous Fall Stock is now on our counters. To get a move on these goods we offer the following prices:

Fall and Winter Overcoats As low in price as the ready made article, but Oh what a difference in the style, fit and finish. Scotch Serges and Homospuns $18 to $20. English Serges $22 to $24. Meltons, Kerseys and Venetians $20 to $30.
