—Pawling's Hygienic underwear at Ledebur & Miles. 2t.

—The "beautiful" has come and the sound of bells is heard in the land.

—Revival services are in progress in the M. E. and Free Methodist churches.

—The best stock of men's wear ever shown in the city can be seen at Ledebur & Miles'. 2t.

—Usters, suits, overcoats, hats, caps, are our specialties. Call and see us. Ledebur & Miles. 2t.

—Hartman Lawrence started on Monday for Pittsburg where he will take a business course in college.

—If you want to wear stylish clothes go to Ledebur & Miles. They give you city styles at country prices.

—T. V. Powderly who for years has been at the head of the workmen's Association has been deposed.

—Lyman Cook started down the river with two barges last Saturday. This closes the boat business for the season.

—The young man who congratulates himself on the close of the ice cream season will have to watch the oyster market closely or go to work.

—The trial of Prondogast who shot and killed Mayor Harrison of Chicago is to begin to-day. They have had serious difficulty in securing a jury.

—Mr. Samuel Sloan was in town on Monday. He is making his home in East Hickory this winter where his daughter, Miss May, is teaching school.

—R. G. Brownell, Private Sec'y to President Jerry Cray of the Penn Tanning Co., was down from Sheffield and ate Thanksgiving turkey with his parents.

—The Oil City Board of Health's report for the month of November shows five cases of typhoid fever, four of diphtheria and fifty-nine of measles.

—Following is a list of letters remaining in Tionesta, Pa., Post Office, Dec. 5, 1893: Miss May Sanders, Miss Tillie Roy, Miss Emma Davis, S. C. Davis, Tho. W. Jacobs.

—Buy rubber boots where every pair is guaranteed. Ledebur & Miles have them for the same money you pay at other places where you have to take your chances. 2t.

—Hunting casualties are beginning to come in. On last Friday near Meadowville Earnest Winans blew the top off of G. D. Bailey's head, mistaking it in the brush for a rabbit.

—The Pennsylvania Railroad paid to its stockholders last month $3,232,665 in dividends, which is said to be the largest dividend ever paid by any railroad corporation at any one time in the World.

—The Tionesta Board of Health has issued in pamphlet form the rules of the Board for the information and guidance of the citizens, these have been distributed and should be carefully observed by all.

—Foot ball is being condemned by some of our leading colleges. They say it has become a business and not a sport. Its effect upon the spectators is like witnessing a bull fight. If this be true the sooner it is stopped the better.

—The play given by the town talent in the School Hall on last Friday evening was a success. All those taking part acquitted themselves well. The proceeds were for the school library. Already quite a number of good books have been purchased. Tionesta will soon have a school library to be proud of. The faculty deserves much praise for the work they have done in this direction.

—The Clarion Normal School begins a winter term of 12 weeks on Jan. 2, 1894. It costs only $39 for tuition, board and furnished room for the entire term. The outlook is favorable for a good attendance. Students who have been there speak highly of the ability of the teachers who are all specialists in their several departments.

—The newly elected officers of the Christian Endeavor were installed at the meeting on Monday evening by the Pastor. They are: President, Prof. Armstrong; Vice President, Mrs. George Holman; Cor. Sec'y, Miss Anna Anderson; Rec. Sec'y, Miss Inez Brownell; Treasurer, Hartman Lawrence; Organists, Vinnie Randall and Florence Klinefister.

—Influenza, or the Grippe, and Pneumonia have made their appearance in this place. Quite a number are down, some serious. The latter disease has assumed a somewhat different form from former years. Its point of attack is generally the throat and lungs. Great care is needed as this has proved to be a more serious disease than the people sometimes imagine.

—Another instance of the folly of American girl purchasing a titled husband has recently come to light. Ten years ago Miss Hungerford, step-daughter of millionaire John W. Mackey, married Prince Feodidred Colosa, an Italian, after having her very liberal allowance of $175,000 a year squandered and suffering personal abuse she now sees for a divorce.

—A very sad accident occurred near East Hickory on Thanksgiving Day. William Herrington, son of George Herrington, deceased, while out hunting had the misfortune to lose part of his hand and arm by the bursting of his gun. He was hunting squirrels and it seems that the gun was too heavily loaded. His arm was terribly lacerated and he will probably lose the use of it.

—Congressman-at-large, Gen. William Lilly, died at his home in Mauch Chunk, Pa., very suddenly on last Friday of congestion of the lungs. The vacancy caused by his death will not probably be filled before the February election. Gen. Lilly was elected in November 1892, and was 72 years old. Since writing the above we notice Governor Pattison has fixed the above named date as the time for electing a successor to General Lilly.

—Judge McPherson, of Lebanon county took occasion to say in court the other day upon the refusal of a witness to kiss the bible before taking his seat upon the witness box: "I don't blame anyone for not kissing that book which everyone has been handling, and I am very glad you have given me an opportunity to refer to this matter, for on taking an oath it is a mistaken idea that the bible must be kissed, and I hope a reform will be made so that hereafter oaths will be taken by the uplifted hand."

—The editor of this paper is sick this week, very sick. In fact life seems to have lost its charms. He is one big ache from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet. He disclaims all responsibility for this issue of the paper and orders that we may say he has the Grippe but to spell it with a big "G," and put the ending "pe" to it. Nothing less will express it satisfactorily and even this is not complete without an occasional groan. He hopes to oversee next weeks issue himself when he can correct any heterodox tendencies that may occur in this.

—Smallpox is becoming epidemic in many places. It would be well to take preventive measures in time to avoid the scourge. Many have been vaccinated so long ago that they could scarcely expect it to be effective now. Some and especially children have never been vaccinated. While there is no immediate cause for alarm it certainly would be wise to make all possible preparation for it if it should come. In these days when so much traveling is done there is always a possibility of its being brought here. It is useless to repair the walls when once the enemy has entered the gates.

—A gentleman who owns a fine horse sends him out to be trained. He frequently goes out to see what progress he is making and to note if his trainer is doing his work properly. Should parents who have children they send to school to be trained in life's work show less interest in them than a man does in his horse? It is strange how seldom parents, names are found in the school visitors list. Even Directors and Trustees who have the duty of hiring teachers are often very late in this. It should not be. If you want good schools visit them often. Good teachers welcome visitors. Parents can then have an opportunity to see how their children are being trained and Directors can determine which teacher ought to be retained.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

The Forest County Teachers' Institute will be held in the Court House, at Tionesta during the week commencing December 25, 1893. The court room will be open at 2 o'clock p. m. for the enrollment of teachers. Regular session of institute will commence at 2:30 p. m. Good instructors have been engaged for the week, and every teacher in the county is expected to be present. Under the direction of the W. C. T. U. a Gold Medal contest will take place Monday evening.

On Tuesday evening, Hon. R. G. Horr will lecture on "The Genuine vs. Sham," and on Wednesday evening on "The Labor Problem." A musical and elocutionary entertainment will be given Thursday evening, under the direction of Prof. S. G. Smith. By request of the State Superintendent, Hon. S. D. Irwin will talk on Arboriculture Wednesday afternoon.

NEWSY NOTES.

In this state selling of adulterated articles of food is a misdemeanor, and the offender may be fined $100 or imprisoned for six months or both. If this law was enforced there would be a big revenue collected, as it is an undeniable fact that a large proportion of what we eat and drink is adulterated.

Five men attempted to rob John Arner of Rimbursburg a few nights since. They had him bound on the counter, intending to compel him to open the safe in which he had $800, but while they were completing arrangements Mr. Arner undid the knots opened the door and gave the alarm.—Clarion Jacksonian.

John H. Miller, son of William, the Prophet, who founded the Second Advent sect, long known as "Millertites," many of whom have prepared to ascend bodily to heaven at various times, died recently at Whitehill, N. Y., aged seventy-one, strong in his adherence to the views of his father, who died in 1849.

The body of Mrs. Hugh Shields and her three children who perished in the fire in Oil City on Tuesday morning of last week, were found in the ruins on Wednesday. The remains were terribly charred, but were identified. The mother was clasping the baby in her arms, and the charred bodies of Fannie and Charlie were found close beside her.

A great many people who can recollect when at 2:40 was the gilt edge speed for a trotting horse will be surprised to know that during the year 1893 three thousand new horses beat the 2:30. Two hundred and twenty-three newcomers made records below 2:20. Sixty-three new ones got below 2:15. Last year there was but twelve on the 2:10 or better list. This season raised the number to twenty-two. A horse that cannot beat 2:15 now is a very ordinary animal. With 2:04 as the record two minutes is now the ambition.

Kellettville.

The grippe seems to have cast itself upon us again and is doing about as lively a business as times will permit. No serious cases are reported.

Mrs. M. Andrews departed Monday on her fall trip to Buffalo where she will avail herself of the astonishing low prices in holiday goods. She will be absent during the week.

The play spoken of in progressing finely and the young people interested are doing their best at rehearsing their parts. The low price of 25 cts. admission will be asked and all money raised is to be spent in building a meeting house. Several prominent people have signified their willingness in giving sums of money toward the erection of a house of worship. For a town the size of Kellettville to be without a house of prayer is certainly heathenish and we as citizens should do all in our power to aid the good work. The performance will be held in the P. O. S. A. hall, and date will be given later.

Miss Christie Hilliard of Butler county, is visiting her cousins John Bell's family. Miss Hilliard will be remembered by most of our young people who are exceedingly glad to see her once more.

The present snow has afforded pretty fair sleighing and some of our people have taken advantage of the same by having a drive up the plank.

Nimrods are considerable plentier than cash and game is on a par with the latter named article, only one deer being killed near here, a 7-pronged buck that dressed 190 pounds. Jack Welsh claims the laurels of bringing down the game having shot it several different times one shot striking one of the horns and cutting it entirely off, thus destroying them. T. J. Fleming purchased the venison and since then, jerked venison has been on tap.

A birthday party was held at Mrs. John C. Wilsons in honor of the 17th birthday of the oldest daughter Jennie on Saturday evening. A number of her young friends were present and the presents were many and costly. Plays, singing and dialogues were the chief amusements of the evening. One play in particular deserves special mention, namely, "A Family Jar," by Mrs. Wilson and son, Clarence, which was well rendered and caused considerable merriment for the young folks. The parts were well rendered and was an exact counterpart of the genuine article. The Salmon Creek mill has shut down for the time being, having run out of stock.

Dr. Barber and wife have returned from a weeks stay at Pleasantville.

Great Slaughter in Meat.

Heath & Giering wish to announce to the public that they may still be found at their old place of business, handling the best goods that can be obtained at the lowest possible prices. Owing to the hard times they will divide profits with their customers, selling round steak at ten cents; best cut at 12 1/2 cts; boiling meat from 4 to 8 cts; liver pudding, Bologna and head cheese 10 cts; 3 lbs. for 25 cts; pork sausage 10 cts; and all other meats in proportion.

HEATH & GIERING.

The Only Hicks' Almanac.

The Rev. Tri R. Hicks' Almanac for 1894 is the first and only almanac entirely written and published by the greatest work prophet, himself. It is an elegant book of 64 pages, besides the cover, with an attractive original design on the cover. It contains Prof. Hicks' monthly weather forecast complete for the year 1894; all the current astronomical phenomena for each month, finely illustrated, including four eclipses and the transit of the planet, Mercury; an article on "Foundation Facts" giving the philosophy and essential points of Prof. Hicks' weather system; a paper on the use of barometers and scientific instruments; an article on longitude and time by the leading authority on longitude and time in this country, accompanied by an excellent map, and other useful articles. The price of this excellent little work is 25 CENTS.

It will make an excellent holiday present for your intelligent friend. For sale by all newsdealers; or send 25 cents to the publishers and it will be sent post paid. Word and Works Pub. Co., St. Louis, Mo.

Hallow'en at Indiana State Normal.

The following letter, descriptive of an entertainment given at the Indiana, Pa., Normal School, we publish this week, believing it will be interesting to many of our readers, as showing how a visit to the great Fair can be indulged in by those who could not go to Chicago. The letter is by Miss Nannie Morrow, of this place who is now a member of the senior class in that school.

A most delightful evening was spent at Indiana State Normal School, October 30, 1893. Through the characteristic kindness of the faculty, arrangements were made some two weeks before to celebrate Hallow'en by a reproduction of the World's Fair. This called for the assistance of many of the students. Each worked hard to make it the most enjoyable event in the history of the school, and their efforts were crowned with success.

According to the announcement the gates were opened at 7:30 o'clock, and immediately the quietness and dignity which prevail in the hall and classrooms was transformed into merry laughter and pleasant resorts and the crowded thoroughfares of the White City.

How quickly the news had spread! As soon as we could get there Midway was crowded with strange looking people from all parts of the world in their native costumes. Some were being carried to and fro in their somewhat Americanized sedans, and the slah, slah, lah, lah, gave warning to any one in the way.

We proceeded at once to the "Transportation Building." Here a series of astonishing inventions of the last great century was displayed. There were all sizes and descriptions of conveyances from "The carriage in which Miss Leonard first came to Normal," down to the elevated R. R. (a toy Railroad strung up to the wall, and a section of a sleeping car (a bed with a screen around it.) We spent some time there and still in our astonishment we would ask, "what next?"

The Art Department displayed no small amount of skill and ingenuity on the part of the committee in their choice of paintings and engravings. Something was there to appeal to the finer feelings and sensibilities of every visitor. Much of the history of our country was to be gleaned from these object lessons. In our imagination we could see the sturdy young man who endured the hardships of "The Pioneer," (a piece of pie on an ear of corn) in our primitive forests to make a home for his "Sweet-heart Across the Sea," (a candy heart across the letter "C.") "Boston by Moonlight" recalled to the mind how a crude foundation stone of Union had developed into the "hub of the universe," (A hub with a burning candle in it.) And the sad and pathetic tale of the trials and sufferings of those who won for us our glorious liberty in '76 and of those who, in '61-'65 endured many hardships that the shackles might fall off the hands and feet of millions, was read in "Mustered In and Mustered Out," (Mustered in and out.) Our time was short so we hurried on to the headquarters of the Turks. We were conducted through a narrow winding street to a place where we found the only true Turk (ey) that was on exhibition.

Just across the way was the merry Irish Village where we were greeted very cordially by Pat who insisted that we "climb the winding stairs and kiss the 'blarney-stone' on Blarney Castle, and forever after have good luck." There we saw all the conveniences of an Irish kitchen, could get a good drink of "out-ter-milk and kiss the pig just outside the door for the small sum of ten cents— which we declined.

The next place of interest was the "Ferris Wheel" which did credit to the inventor. It was much enjoyed by young men and maidens from every county, either for its ease or the picturesque scenery of the backboard.

Happy gypsy lassies were seen everywhere and many of the visitors availed themselves of an opportunity to have the mystic veil drawn aside and to catch a glimpse of the future. Each seemed well pleased and we suppose the difficult lessons of the future and the late proceedings of the Senate will transform themselves into beautiful dreams.

One of the most enjoyable features of the evening was the parade headed by Uncle Sam and Aunt Columbia whose grace and dignity did justice to the occasion. They were followed by people of all sorts and descriptions, society leaders of '90s' old time; high born Japanese women; Sisters of Charity; Germans; rudy Irishmen and their families; horrible Zulus; Arabians, Turks and Indians. There were the well known Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and family (colored), Mr. and Mrs. Haywood, who were continuing to flound about with each other and who were always getting ahead of one another, and the old maid with corkscrew curls who is afraid of everything, etc.

After the parade, Midway was thronged and the police had all they could do to manage the beachheads, the tramps and the pickpockets.

How strange it did seem that in that vast assemblage there was not one person from the strong and powerful nations of the earth, the depth of Africa, and the pole of the sea who could read the sign, "Ice Cream," and still more wonderful that the people from different parts of the earth could talk together most fluently. After a short visit at the elegant Japanese tea rooms we left the White City taking with us a well filled page in the volume of our memory of our school life, that will be read with pleasure in years to come.

—Mr. J. P. Blaise, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of that state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaise had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaise went to nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaise regards his cure as simply wonderful. For sale by Siggins & Herman.

—For a sore throat there is nothing better than a flannel bandage dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will nearly always effect a cure in one night's time. This remedy is also a favorite for rheumatism and has cured many very severe cases. 50 cent bottles for sale by Siggins & Herman.

—When on a visit to Iowa, Mr. K. Dalton, of Liberty, Russell county, Kansas, called at the laboratory of Chamberlain
