-Gas was at a premium Monday evening and some found it necessary to resort to kindling wood in order to get a warm supper. The trouble was caused by a burst in the high pressure line down along the creek bill, are taking out timber, a stick of which struck the pipe, it being uncovered. The danger from that source will soon be removed, for when tract it will be stripped.

-Of all the handsome exchanges none excel the Titusville World, especially since donning its new "dress." From the start this journal has been a success, and the acquisition of F. F. Murray, late of the Blizzard, as one of the editors and proprietors, has added greatly to the paper's former excellence. Br'er Murrry is as genial and exhilarating in his editorial work as the zephyrs of a May morning, and whether editing a base ball game between Franklin and Oil City, or a funeral procession, like the bug with neither wing nor flame, "he gets there just the same." All success to the World.

Arrested for Attempted Arson.

Our readers will doubtless recall an item in our Marienville correspondence of a couple of weeks ago, giving an account of an attempt to burn down the large school building at that place. Since then the citizens have on several occasions been horrified to find evidences of similar attempts in different localities of the town. A sharp watch was instituted, and on Sunday evening the guilty one was caught while in the act of house. On the same evening, shortly after dark, attempts were made to fire the dwellings of S. Thomas B. Gillouly is the newly appointed postmaster of Ridgway. He is said to be one of the popular young Demcrats of the place.

The epicure of the Franklin News says it is the fashion now to serve raw oysters in tall, handled tumblers. A dressing of pepper and salt, lemon juice and Wortershire sauce goes with them, and they are picked out with the long oyster fork.

A new roller skate has been invented! Each skate has two wheels with pneumatic tires. It is claimed that on this skate the adept wearer can travel over turnpike roads, up hill and down, at a rate fully as rapid as on ice with old fashioned skates. The postoffice department has ruled that parties answering "green goods" circulars and sending through the mail for fine not more than $500 and imprisonment not less than 18 months.

A young man giving his name as Low-Pratt, was arrested in Punxsutawney t week as a counterfeiter. A few spurious coins were found on his person, and a number of dies in his satchel. He is in the Brookville jail awaiting the sitting of U. S. Court at Pittsburg.

The Supreme Court has recently deided that publication in a newspaper of a notice of withdrawal from a bank partpership does not relieve the withdrawn from liability to those who had deposits only relieves him from liability to those who deposit afterwards. This decision affects all banks which are private partnership, but does not affect stockholders in incorporated banks, either State or national.
