

REPUBLICAN COUNTY COMMITTEE MEETING.

The members of the Republican County Committee of Forest County are hereby notified that a meeting of said Committee will be held at the Court House, Tionesta, Pa., Monday evening, Feb. 20, 1894, and as business of importance to the party will be transacted, it is especially requested that all members be present.

The landslide of yesterday in the old Keystone state is one which should strike terror to the conscience of the most hardened free trader. But will it?

An election to fill the vacancy in the Third Ohio Congressional District will probably be ordered by Governor McKinley to take place at the time of the April elections.

GRESHAM still draws his pension. Hoke has not got around to him on the raid. Hoke prefers to raid men like Judge Long, who is so badly disabled that he cannot walk unassisted.

THE Kentucky peach crop, which had been killed twice already, was subjected to another fatal operation by the present cold snap. The Delaware peach crop should beware, or it will be crowded out of sight by Kentucky.

THE present Congress is engaged in passing "urgent deficiency" bills to make up what it, in a spasm of alleged economy, failed to appropriate for ordinary expenses last year. If there is a way to blunder the Democracy always goes that way.

AGAIN has David B. downed Grover C. In the battle which has been going on in the Senate over the confirmation of Mr. Cleveland's appointee to the Supreme bench, Wheeler H. Peckham, the wily New York Senator came out on top, having succeeded in mustering up nine of a majority against confirmation.

THE President sent to the Senate the name of Senator Edward D. White to be an associate justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, on Monday quickly on the heels of the knockout of Mr. Peckham. The Senate immediately and unanimously confirmed the nomination, and thus does the State of New York lose the position.

AUSTIN L. TAGGART, of Montgomery, member of the House of Representatives and prominent in Grand circles; a man endeared to all as "Farmer" Taggart; a bluff, honest citizen who commanded the respect of every one who knew him, died at his home at Norristown on the 15th inst. His death will be deplored all over the State.

WHILE there are many sides to the question involved in the rejection of Mr. Peckham by the Senate, it cannot be denied that Senators as well as Presidents have rights. President Cleveland adds nothing to the dignity of the high office he holds by persistently naming for the position men whom he knows to be distasteful to the Senators from New York. They certainly cannot be blamed for battling for what they consider their rights.—Blizzard.

At last some of the Tammany heeled and ballot box stuffers in New York have gotten their just deserts. Under the Federal election law, recently repealed by the Democratic Congress, Inspector John I. Davenport was empowered to appoint watchers at the polls to prevent fraud and his men succeeded in securing evidence sufficient to show how Tammany succeeds and also to bring some of the rascals to book. Their trial was exceedingly interesting, all the influence that Tammany has been brought to help them, but justice triumphed and they were convicted. Recently three of them were sent to the penitentiary, and their sentence was well-deserved. The repeal of the Federal election law, however, throws the doors wide open for these rascals to act with impunity. Mr. Davenport is legislated out of office, there are no safeguards about the ballot-box any more, so far as the Federal Government is concerned, and if there is a fair election in New York or any of the Southern States it will be only by suffrage. But there is a satisfaction in knowing that three of the vote thieves are in jail.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

GROW'S GREAT SWEEP.

The Largest Majority Ever Given a Republican Candidate in Pennsylvania.

150,000 AND UPWARD.

GALUSHA A. GROW.

While the returns from the State are still meagre enough as to show that Galusha A. Grow will have at least 150,000 majority, the largest ever given a Republican candidate. The vote outside of the cities seems to have failed to get out, which reduces the vote on both sides to considerable extent.

The victory is complete, and is a fearful rebuke to the party which would bring free trade on the American people. Will the warning be heeded? Not likely.

TIONESTA BOROUGH

Elected the entire Republican ticket, the majority for Grow being phenomenally large considering the light vote polled. It stood on the State ticket, Grow, Rep. 88; Hancock, Dem. 32; Morrow, Pro. 3. Only 129 votes were polled out of a registry of nearly 180, and of those out several votes for the State ticket were evidently lost. The officers elected in the Borough are as follows, all Republican: Burgess, C. R. Davis; school directors, L. J. Hopkins, L. Agnew; council, John R. Osgood, F. R. Lanson, G. W. Robinson; high constable, W. L. Hunter; overseer of poor, W. A. Grove; collector, D. S. Knox; auditor, A. W. Richards, H. H. Shoemaker; judge of election, R. B. Crawford; inspector, H. O. Davis.

At last Thug McKane, the Graveyard ballot manipulator and manufacturer of bogus majorities for the Democracy, is confronted by the prison bars. Salt nor sugar nor money nor influence will not save him this time. His conviction, following swift on the sentencing of three New York ballot-box stuffers, shows that Brooklyn, too, proposes to deal severely with the men who would make a mockery of the ballot and kill its potency for good. McKane was sentenced to the penitentiary for six years.

ONE of the New York Congressional candidates on the Democratic ticket, who was defeated, a few weeks before the election attended a meeting of the Tammany leaders where the chances of electing both candidates was discussed. This particular candidate, after listening for some time to the plans to get out the vote, picked up his hat and, with a yawn, said "Gentlemen, this is all very well but it seems a waste of time. I am already elected. You can turn in your help for the other fellow." On election day he was defeated by 900 majority. This same candidate felt so certain of election that he had rented a house in Washington and sent on furniture from New York to have it ready after election day. He is shipping the furniture back home now. It is said of H. C. Blowler, the gentleman rejected by the Senate for the Supreme Bench, that he felt so sure of being confirmed that he held a competitive examination among a lot of newspaper men in Washington to select a secretary, the lucky man being a young Chicago writer. He is still writing for the Chicago paper and Hornblower is not on the supreme bench.
