—Mr. J. B. Erb of West Hickory gave the sanction a friendly call Monday. —G. G. Gaston is moving into the Hickling house, lately occupied by Mr. Lanson. —Charles Bonner of Chicago, is one of Tionesta's welcome visitors, having arrived yesterday. —F. R. Lanson has moved into his new domicile in rear of his store, which he has very coisly arranged. —Geo. F. Watson was down from Golizna last Friday, and during his stay gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call.

—Will L. Thompson, of Nebraska, Merchantile Appraiser of Forest county, publishes his report this week. —Mrs. Harry Litch of Brookville, who has been visiting Mrs. T. F. Ritchey, of this place, has returned home. —Miss Flora Walters is in the eastern cities making the selections that will comprise the firm's elegant stock of millinery goods for the spring.

—The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will give a supper in their Reading Room, Friday evening, March 9, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Supper 25 cents. Everybody invited. —Next Monday is the regular time for the annual settling up of township and borough affairs. The auditors of Tionesta township will meet at the new Township house, near the creek bridge, this year for that purpose. —It is by all odds the best liniment. Mr. Chas. Metzger, 217 Grey Ave., St. Louis, Mo., is of the same opinion. He says: "Salvation Oil is the best remedy we have ever used in our family. It is the best remedy on earth."

—Wm. B. Krosskop, druggist, a leading citizen of Oil City, and extensively known throughout the oil region, died on Saturday night. The deceased was unmarried. He was active and prominent in the Masonic fraternity. —The Derrick of the 2nd inst., contains the following: The infant child of Rev. A. T. Sager, formerly of this city, died at the home of its parents in Homestead. The body will be brought to this city to-day for interment in Grove Hill cemetery.

—A number one cough cure. Mr. Jas. H. Barnett, 243 Cedar St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes thus: "I am using Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in my family and deem it a number one medicine for coughs and cold, and my house shall never be without it."

—Robbins are here and have been for several days. It is also claimed that bluebirds have put in an appearance, but the authority is not so good on that point. Spring weather for the past few days has been with us, and has received a hearty welcome. May it stay. DAVID MINTZ.

Notice. I am going East the last of March to purchase my Spring and Summer stock of Dry Goods, Millinery, &c. All parties having accounts with me are requested to call and make settlement promptly or remit on cheques. DAVID MINTZ.

—The births that are reported during the past few days in the vicinity are: Feb. 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Dewdney, Foxroek, a son. March 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Diekrager, German Hill, a daughter. March 2, to Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Grove, of the Borough, a son.

—Charles Russell moved into his new house yesterday. He has now a very convenient house, and can take solid comfort. It is a two story house, plastered throughout with marble plaster, done by George Armstrong, which means a first class job, is painted and has all the gas fixtures and other conveniences to make it pleasant. All these things would indicate that Charles is here to live the balance of his days.

—Rev. Rumberger is conducting a very successful revival at East Brady, judging from the following item in last week's Review, which his friends in this section will learn with pleasure: "The success of the M. E. revival meetings is phenomenal. Over 120 have been converted, and at this stage it seems that the meetings have just about begun to realize the full measure of success that will result. Tuesday evening fifteen persons came out on the side of religion—the largest number yet in one evening. The meetings have now been in progress about seven weeks."

—Sheriff Carson returned home from Huntington, Pa., on Saturday, whither he conveyed the boy Willie Lowman, as per sentence of the court. The boy seemed resigned to the situation when he arrived, and gave evidence of a determination to so conduct himself as to merit his release in the shortest possible period. —The boys have been lifting a good many suckers during the past few days of balmy weather. At this time of the year a sucker of average size, nicely scored and crisply fried knocks the pegs from under anything in the fish line, or line of fish, that can be produced. In the regular season for game fish the sucker is too soft for any good.

—A visit to the State Normal School, at Clarion, Pa., will convince you of the superior facilities, thorough instruction, original methods, ambition and industry of students, and the kindly feeling and earnest co-operation between faculty and students. Expenses are indeed low, being only $3.25 per week for tuition, board and furnished room.

—Flora Walters & Co. will have their grand Easter Opening, March 23d and 24th, and especially invite the ladies to call and see and make their selection of millinery goods. They expect to excel all former efforts, and will be prepared to show the finest stock of goods pertaining to their line that has ever been brought to Tionesta. The invitation is to all.

—The elocutionary entertainment given by the R. T. of T. in the court house last Wednesday evening, was a decided success, though the attendance was not as large as should have been. Miss Sage's impersonation of childish characters was especially good, though she charmed the audience with all her recitations. The local talent was also excellent in the assistance rendered.

—The West Chester daily Republican, one of the oldest and best journals in the State, has added the Mergenthaler Linotype machine to its outfit, and the typesetting is now done on these machines. The work is much better than is generally accomplished by machine-set type, and is an evidence that experienced men are at the helm. The paper is deserving of the success which this new departure seems to indicate.

—Robert J. Huddleson, son of Wm. Huddleson of Hickory township, died suddenly of inflammation of the bowels at his home on the Desher farm, near President, Pa., on Wednesday last week. The deceased leaves a wife and two children, the youngest but three weeks old, to mourn his death. His parents, two brothers and one sister also survive him. Robert was well known in Tionesta, in which community he made his home for many years. He was usually of a strong and robust nature, a good worker and an industrious young man. He was a member of Lineville Tent, K. O. T. M., which society had charge of the funeral on Friday last, the services being held in the Heckathorn church near his home. The sympathies of the friends of the deceased are extended to the bereaved ones.

Court Minutes. When our report closed last week the case of the Fox Estate vs. W. A. Newland et al was on trial. Verdict was rendered for plaintiff. The case of H. W. Marks vs. The Lebanon Mutual Insurance Co., of Jonestown, Lebanon county, Pa., occupied the attention of court from Wednesday morning till Thursday noon, when the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for the full amount of insurance with interest, amounting in all to $1,038.33.

The Grand Jury's report included several recommendations, among which is a new jail, condemning the old one as "an unfit place of detention," but they recommended the repairing of it at least until a new one may be built. The building of a pantry or kitchen to the Sheriff's house is recommended, also the repairing of the Sheriff's office; a fire proof vault in the Commissioners' office for the safety of records, the safe now in use being too small to contain them. The county bridge across the river they find in need of new ice breakers, in order to insure its safety. The bridge across the mouth of Coleman run, in Barnett township is found to be in bad condition and unfit for public travel. The report closes by especially urging upon the road commissioners of the townships throughout the county the necessity of erecting guide boards at all necessary places, as they find that in most townships this is sorely neglected, greatly to the disadvantage of the traveling public.

East Hickory. Mr. and Mrs. George Watson were visiting friends at this place last week. Alabama will receive quite an addition to her population from here this coming spring. The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. George Nuss is very sick; at last accounts it was better. The Free Methodists are building a new church at Beaver Valley. Rev. Fink preached his farewell sermon at West Hickory last night. A masquerade ball will be given in Whilton's Hall on the 16th. All are cordially invited. Panna.

Kellettville. Mr. Wesley Albaugh has been lying very low with erysipelas of the face, but is getting better now under the care of Dr. Barber. Mrs. Dr. Barber has so nearly recovered from her late illness as to be able to return home on Pleasantville. John Littlefield is laid up with a relapse of the gripp which has turned into neuralgia and sore throat. On last Tuesday the dwelling house of A. H. Downing was discovered on fire. There was no one about but Mrs. D. when the fire was first discovered, which was on the second floor. She soon put out the fire and thought nothing more of it until her son George came home, when she went to show him where the fire had caught. When they went upstairs they discovered that the building was on fire again. With considerable outside assistance the flames were extinguished after having burned one partition and ceiling boards in two rooms, and destroying a lot of bed clothes and carpets. A few days work made the building look as well as ever.

About 10 o'clock Saturday night a fire alarm was rung by the fireman at the tannery. The blowing of the whistle had the desired effect, for a large number of the citizens were out to help at the fire, but 'twas a false alarm—only a large stump pile on fire in the rear of M. Andrews' property. The first flock of wild geese of the season passed over town on Monday afternoon. Miss Kate Gillespie of Whig Hill is visiting relatives in town. Election is over, the Democrats are sad, and the Republicans, Oh how glad! One hundred and five are the votes that were polled in Kingsley Twp., so we are told. For Congress at-Large Galusha A. Grov Received fifty-six votes, now that wasn't slow. James Denton Hancock thirty-four had he Which leaves twenty-two of a majority. For school director there were four on list: J. H. Shunk and C. Zuenel got the whole grip. John Berlin and John Burhenn were left in the shade. And now they're up Salt Creek, so it is said. Road Commissioner got two, as will be seen, A. H. Downing and Jefferson Dean. H. A. Zuenel and Miller J. C., Well, they got left, and now they're up on Salt Sea. Overseer of Poor was Burhenn, Com., For his large vote rolled up to seventy-one. Wm. Tobey, his opponent, twenty-seven had, Now that's such a large majority it may make Wm. mad. Next we find is Collector of taxes, With J. M. Zuenel to grind his axes. Well, this he did when he worsted Dick Flynn. Who made a good fight but was taken in. Auditor next fell to Hindman, G. S., That battle scarred veteran who got the big mess. His popularity was surely shown When he beat W. A. Kribbs, as sure as you're born. Twp. Clerk, the best pie on the floor, Was won by J. A. Shaw, with a vote of sixty-four. His majority was double that of his man, And his man was W. F. Jones, who defeat will stand.

The Treasurer came next on tap, And won by R. C. Heath, that quiet chap. He was closely followed by Chas. Bauer, Who takes second base and attends to his store. Judge of election was Rudolph, R., Who polled a large vote and doubled by far, His rival, who lost the day, And answers to the name of Fleming, T. J. H. E. Lovell, for inspector of election, Is the right man in the right direction, And R. J. Flynn—for there are two— That can't be beat no matter what you do. And last seven Pathmasters we find Stright Republicans, just the right kind. Seven were lucky and seven weren't in it. But they didn't work for it, not even a minute. —Electric Insoles keep your feet warm, prevent disease and cure rheumatism. Ledeber & Miles, sole agents. tf.

—Step in at Ledeber & Miles' and see the bargains you get there. tf.

—A gentleman lost a buckskin glove, for the right hand, somewhere between Hotel Agnew and the depot. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office.

—Charles Russell moved into his new house yesterday. He has now a very convenient house, and can take solid comfort. It is a two story house, plastered throughout with marble plaster, done by George Armstrong, which means a first class job, is painted and has all the gas fixtures and other conveniences to make it pleasant. NEWSY NOTES. While coasting on the hill leading from Clarion borough down to the river recently, three boys, Peter Schleich, Paul Brockman and Lawrence Herman, were badly injured. The two former had each a leg broken, and the latter had the ligaments of one of his heels badly torn and mangled. The Erie railway company have taken a decided step toward making Sunday a day of rest. At midnight on Saturday an order went into effect to suspend all freight movement on Sunday as far as possible and to hold all common freight in the yards on that day every week in the year. The order will give a full day on Sunday to about half the operating force, or about 4,000 men. The formation of anti-cigarette leagues among boys is worthy of encouragement. The use of cigarettes is not merely the use of tobacco, it is a vice by itself. The cigarette works a special evil of its own, which tobacco in other forms does not effect. This evil result may be due to drugs or the paper wrappers, or to the fact that the smoke of cigarettes is almost always inhaled into the lungs, while cigar smoke is not.—Blizzard. The March New Peterson opens with "In the Azores," by William S. Walsh with illustrations by George B. Lukes. The popular author and distinguished artist were sent out by the New Peterson in search of material for a series of articles on these picturesque islands. This initial paper is delightful reading and Mr. Lukes' drawings are full of character and spirit. All the other articles and poems are alike fine and entertaining. Terms, one dollar a year. Address: The New Peterson Magazine, Philadelphia, Pa.
