the death of a woman, occurred in Bradford last Saturday. The woman, Mrs. E.
Marriam of Sheffield Mass., went to a cleft from which smoke was issuing, to investigate; upon opening the door she

—The Oil City Blizzard and the Franklin News have been alternately hugging and offering deepest sympathy, each to the other lately, over the way the base ball teams of their respective hamlets will wipe the other from the face of the earth, this summer. The season opens with a game between the two towns on the 17th of May, and on and after that date, until the close of the season try moon and the Blizzard and News will meet as strangers.

—The Derrick's Field report for March gives an increase of 44 wells, for the show the largest increase in new work, then Bradford and Siererville, while both McDonald and Mannington show a decline in active operations, though they combined, supplied more than half of the March production. Glen Hazel, Elk Co., is awaiting the completion of several tests, now nearing the sand. No new fields were opened during the month.

society's aims. Various committees were appointed who will make report at the meeting to be held next Monday night, when a permanent organization will be decided.

DIED.

At Russell, Pa., March 26th, 1894, George L. DuBois, aged 62 years, 7 months, and 11 days.

The widow, four sons—Lewis G., El-son B., George P. and Oliver, and two daughters—Edith, and Mrs. S. Holmes are left to mourn his loss. He will be sadly missed by all. He was a kind and affectionate husband and father.

In the silent tomb we laid him, There to rest till Jesus comes,
Then the trump of God will wake him And we'll all be gathered home.

O 'tis then with joys immortal,
We will sing in strains of love And within the shining portals We will be with Christ above.

We were sad and full of sorrow
When we knew that he was gone, But his labors all are over And he's waiting for a crown;

Peacefully he now is resting In the paradise of God,
'Till his Lord shall come with blessings, In fulfillment of His word.

Epiphany on filled with brightness Now a vacancy appears,
And the voice so full of sweetness,
Is not heard by mortal ears;

O what loneliness comes o'er us When around the board we come,
And we know that he has left us Never more to cheer our home.

He has gone but we shall meet him Over on the shining shore Then we'll join in shouts of raptures, When life labors all are o'er

O the joyful happy meeting In a world from sorrow freed, There with songs of heavenly greeting, When our loved ones we shall see.

—Men's woolen suits at $5.00 at Ledebur & Miles'. 1t.

bad and farmers are so busy, that it have been had it been held a month ference at Lottsville, Warren Co., farm and taken the job of stocking the logs for Mr. Wood.—Mr. O. B.

for six months.—Mrs. Gene Ives of Pleasantville, has been visiting here for a few days. She expects to go to the Indiana Oil field, where her husband is, the last of this week.—

Wilbur, son of F. E. Metcalf was quite sick yesterday. We have not heard from him to-day.—Mr. Jas.
Black of Smoke Hill was here a few days ago selling farm rights of his patent fence, which is a good one.

M. L. Range and J. G. Bromley bought one of the farm rights.— Mrs. F. F. Shoup and family are staying here while the meeting is in progress.—F. S. and S. W. Stewart are building a rig about two miles this side of Neiltown.—Mrs. Comings is quite sick.—Elmer Sciens house moved into Mr. Haady's house formerly occupied by Mr. Moon.—R.
A. Zahniser went to Bradford this week to attend a teachers examination; he intends applying for a school in that county this fall.

the guests of Miss Emma Kiser over Sunday.

Mr. F. C. Proper and Mr. H. H. Mitchell were down from Portkey, Sunday and took dinner at the Brooklyn House; wonder what it means? A very good plan Forest: be good to the old people.

Mr. M. C. Myers expects to loose his clock soon, as he expects to go Portkey to learn the boiler trade. Better stick to the store Bert, for there is lots of heavy lifting in handling boilers.

T. J. Fleming, Mr. & Mrs. Chas. Dotterer and Mr. & Mrs. John Shaw attended the party given at Mr. C. F. Gillespie's from down the river and report a very cold trip for the small price of $13.00; be a little more careful the next time boys.

Preparations are being made for the masquerade ball to be given the 20th, in the Proper & Myers hall. The McGraw band will furnish the music. Don't let the assistant postmaster fool you boys as he makes a very fine girl.

fine horse trade. Look out for W. A. for he is loaded for you all.
