HAMILTON STOW.

The death of Mr. Hamilton Stow which occurred in Cincinnati on last Thursday, April 10, removed one who has always been held in highest esteem by the people of this place and vicinity. Mr. Stow was born in Windsor, N. Y. in 1806, but afterward removed to Olean, in the same state. From that place he came to Newtown, on Tionesta Creek in 1839.

In 1851 he removed to Tionesta where he continued to reside till 1865, when he went to Cincinnati, in which city he lived till the time of his death.

Through the extensive lumber business which he carried on, Mr. Stow became widely known. He built the first gang sawmill at Newtown and afterward another at East Hickory, known as Stowtown. He was a member of the firm of H. Stow & Co., and through him the purchase of these properties was made. For many years he furnished employment for a large number of men and really laid the foundation for the more permanent settlement of the County. The interest he manifested in the men in his employ was more than that usually shown by employer for the employe. He had a care for their welfare in all things and was always ready to assist them by word of counsel, or by such gifts as they needed. In consequence of this, he was highly respected by all who trusted him as a friend.

In all his business dealings and relations, his integrity was never impeached; of him it has been said, "his word was as good as his bond." The farmer from whom he purchased grain and produce had the most implicit confidence in Mr. Stow and esteemed him as their best friend. Many of them can relate instances of kindness extended to them when they first settled in the neighborhood. He took a great interest in the public schools and was a director for many years. He was instrumental, with others, in having the academy building erected which was afterwards transferred to the borough and was used for the public schools.

Mr. Stow was thoroughly devoted to the welfare of the country. When the war of the Rebellion broke out he gave his son George, who went out as a lieutenant in Co. G. of the 83rd Reg. Pa. Vols. This son, after whom the present G. A. R. Post of this place was named, was killed at the battle of Spottsylvania. Mr. Stow was largely instrumental in securing the men that formed that company, riding over much of this county making talks to the people and persuading the young men to enlist. He took care of the families thus deprived of their means of support, and canceled the accounts due him by any of those who enlisted. He kept in constant touch with the boys visiting them a number of times during the war. When the Rebel army had entered Pennsylvania and word came of the battle of Gettysburg he sent two nurses.—Misses Shriver and Brownlee to aid, comfort and care for the wounded.

But it was in his Christian character that Mr. Stow shined forth most conspicuously. Uniting with the Presbyterian church at an early age he was always devoted to the cause of the Master whom he served. Both by precept and example he sought to adorn the Gospel he professed, and the influence he exerted for all that was true, noble and good eternally only will reveal. He left the impress of his character upon the places where he lived. While living at Newtown, when he could not procure the services of a minister of his own denomination, he procured the service of others, giving the use of his own house for such services. This he did largely for the sake of those in his employ that their spiritual wants might not be neglected.

After coming to Tionesta it was through his personal efforts a Sabbath School was organized of which he was the Superintendent. Later on he assisted in the erection of a Presbyterian house of worship and in the organization of a church of which he was elected a ruling elder.

In the church, as well as in all benevolent objects, he was noted for his generous gifts. No worthy cause or deserving poor appealed to him in vain. His purse was as open where money was needed as his heart was where words of advice or Christian sympathy was desired. Truly a good man has fallen, but he leaves behind him a noble record and an influence for good that will long survive him. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

—W. A. Fisher will remain in Tionesta. 1t.

—To be correctly dressed is one of the best introductions. You will find these essentials at Ledeber & Miles'.

Kelleysville.

Mrs. Dr. Weber of East Hickory was visiting at the Brooklyn house, on Sunday.

Miss Ella Ardery, who has just closed a successful term of school at Newtown Mills, is visiting friends in town for a few days. She will return to her home at Corsica, Clarion Co., in a short time.

George Berlin and Adel Kelsey returned home Thursday from a three weeks trip down the river. They were on a peddling trip and went down as far as Sistersville, W. Va. The lumber market is dull down that way, so we are informed.

Wm. Tobey's driving horse has had a few days illness but we trust he will be able for duty again soon.

Les. Collin is about through hauling stave bolts from Whippoorwill ridge to Raysburg.

R. Z. Gillespie, who so ably filled the position of book-keeper for the Penn Tanning Co., for the past four years, has severed his connection with that firm and moved his little domicile to his old home at Whig Hill, and now we learn that Rob't. is to occupy a like position for the Salmon Creek Lumber Co. If this be a fact, and we hope it is, the many "Squire" will soon be among us again.

Miss Kate Guenther, teacher of school No. 2, finished a successful term of school on Tuesday. Miss Guenther will attend the spring term at the Clarion Normal School, where she expects to graduate within a year.

Quite a number of our sports have been trying the angling since the trout season opened up. No fish; but fish rods are reported at every few rods along the trout streams. This would indicate that some one has "shield their castor" but with what luck we are unable to say.

The heavy rains of Thursday evening caused the creek to be somewhat swollen and on Friday two board rafts were run from Salmon Creek. On Saturday three log rafts were started for the mouth of the creek but the water had fallen so that all the rafts became stranded at different places along the creek. Mr. Collins will have about two "Alleghenies" of boards to raft and run to the lower markets and about 500,000 ft. of logs to raft and run to Tionesta, where the timber is sold to Robinson & Weant.

G. W. Osgood has bought up all the potatoes in this vicinity and is shipping the same to Pittsburg. The usual price paid per bu. is about 37 cts., delivered to the rail road.

The Masquerade ball was a decided success for the R. O. T. M., both financially and otherwise. The number in attendance was not as large as was expected, but if the weather had been favorable, the assemblage could not have been so commodious. The music and order was of the finest, and the costumes were both elegant and costly. The supper at the Brooklyn house was up to the standard and everyone present had their fill of good things to eat. We hope for many more such elegant times.

The Zuni Indian Medicine Co. closed a two weeks engagement here on Saturday evening. Every evening they gave a show that was witnessed by a large number. They were free and pay night the admission fee was the small sum of 10 cents. Right here we wish to state that on pay nights the hall was packed to its utmost capacity. This speaks well for Kelleysville and shows that the 10 cents was no draw back. The Co.'s next engagement is at Tylersburg, where they left for on Monday morning. WILL WALKER.

Start.

Quite a number of the farmers have their oats sowed and we think if there isn't a change of weather soon, they will have their work to do over again.

Miss Rosa Burben attended a party at Mt. Pleasant last week and reports a good time.

Mr. R. C. Heath had the misfortune to step on a garden rake and as a result has a very sore foot.

Mrs. Harry Lovell who has been confined to the house with an attack of rheumatism is convalescent.

Mr. Lewis Behrens and son, and Asa Heath who were building a rig on Whig Hill, have it completed and returned home Saturday.

Mr. George Burhenn who has been absent for some time has come home for the summer. Looks kind of natural to see you, George.

Stewart's Run.

F. E. Metcalf made a business trip to Tidioate last week.

The Rev. Walter Sellow, chairman of the F. M. church, of Oil City district, was with Rev. Shoup holding a meeting at the White Church, last week.

Quarterly meeting began last Saturday evening.

The Wesleyan Methodists have a new pastor here this year. We forget his name, but welcome him.

Mr. Chadwick of Warren; father of Mrs. George Dawson is visiting his daughter.

The well on the road side of Neilltown, on the Cherry Run tract; is down and dry. They got quite a gasser in the green oil sand. We are informed that Mr. Preston of Pleasantville, is going to drill somewhere in that neighborhood soon. A. E. McInyre has the contract of building the rig.

James Hogg's one of our old neighbors, but now living on the Lytle farm, have a young daughter.

James Riggler of Armstrong county is visiting at his uncle's, Mr. Len Range. Arzo Copeland is very low with the grip we are informed. Roy Copeland of Meadville, is visiting friends here.
