STATE.
 Governor, DANIEL H. HASTINGS.
 Lieut. Governor, WALTER LYON.
 Auditor General, AMOS H. MYLIN.
 Secretary of Internal Affairs, JAMES W. LATTA.
 Congress-at-Large, GALUSHA A. GROW, GEORGE F. HUFF.
COUNTY.
 Congress, A. W. COOK.
 (Subject to action of Dist. Conference.)
 Assembly, J. E. WENK.
 Associate Judge, J. A. NASH.
 District Attorney, P. M. CLARK.
 Coroner, J. W. MORROW.

The startling information was flashed on our ears the other day that our public debt was increased over $6,000,000 in May. About ten cents head all around.—Warren Mirror

No matter how good a law may be the Democrats are resolved to repeal it if the Republicans passed it. They are having a hard time, however, in getting rid of the McKinley law. It was so nearly perfect that they can't construct a Tariff law without embodying more or less of its provisions.—The Louisville, (Ky.), May 24, 1894.

The Democratic State convention, in session at Harrisburg to-day, will likely nominate the following ticket: Governor, Wm. M. Singlerly of Phila.; Lieut. Gov., John S. Rilling, of Erie; Auditor Gen., F. S. Magee of Lancaster; Sec'y of Internal Affairs, W. W. Greenland, of Clarion; Congress-at-Large, H. K. Sloan of Indiana, and Gerard C. Brown, of York.

You'll taste the Democratic Tariff tinker's work, when it's done, in every cup of tea and coffee you drink, unless you take them plain; in every glass of lemonade, unless you go it sour; in every "sweet cake" and mouthful of preserves that gets on the table, and in every pound of candy and confections that you buy. Fifty or sixty million dollars in taxes to be taken from the pockets of the people and put into the pockets of the sugar trust is what "Cleveland and Tariff reform" are doing.—Schenectady, N. Y., Daily Union, May 23, 1894.

SENATOR JONES of Nevada, all the sheep men know him, gave an answer that knocked Grover Cleveland out. He showed him that there were 830,960 different farmers in the United States that owned sheep, and that the Free-Trade disease, which is worse than the scab, would injure all of those 830,960 sheep farmers. Senator Jones was right. It has injured them. The loss on all the sheep in the country has been $25,660,013 under the Free-Trade sheep disease. Divide that loss among 830,960 sheep farmers and you will find that each farmer has lost $30.88.

PRESIDENT CARNOT, of the French Republic was stabbed in a vital spot by an Italian anarchist while riding in his carriage at Lyons, France, on Sunday night last. The assassin jumped upon the carriage steps and under the pretext of presenting a petition plunged the knife into his victim's heart. It was some time before the police could get the murderer away from the infuriated crowd, which nearly beat him to death while on the route to prison. The president lived but a few hours, and was conscious to the last. All nations sympathize with the French Republic in this great affliction, and among the most profound expressions of sorrow are those which go out from our own nation.

The farmers of the United States were all promised great things during the Presidential campaign of 1892, if Grover Cleveland should only be the successful candidate. He was. Even greater and better things were promised to the farmers if only a Democratic majority could be sent to Congress. It was. These results were very largely secured by the aid of the farmers, and the farmers naturally expected that the campaign promises of 1892 would be kept. The farmers will again be asked for their votes in the fall, and they should compare the promises of 1892 with the promises of 1894. The farmers raise sheep in every section of the country. There are 47 different States and Territories in which the farmers look to their sheep, and the wool from their sheep, as a money crop to supply them with hard cash wherewith to purchase the many necessary farm supplies and tools that they cannot obtain by trading in their local stores. The value of their sheep and the value of their wool are therefore very important factors to the farmer. Good prices for sheep and good value for wool mean comfort in the farm house; they mean the payment of mortgages; they mean new tools; they mean new buildings for more stock; they mean general prosperity to the farmer.

The fifth and sixteenth regiments of the State militia were called out by Governor Pattison in short order last week to aid Sheriff Gourley, of Jefferson, to keep the peace at the Walston mines near Punxsutawney. The would-be belligerents were mostly Huns and Italians, who had taken possession of the mines and had by threats and intimidation terrorized women, children and English speaking miners. The arrival of the soldiers had a quieting influence, and nothing serious has resulted thus far, and the probability is that while the soldiers are on hand there will be no trouble. The operators are preparing to start their mines with other men. In the meantime the greatest coal strike known is at an end in many sections, and big coal trains are once more seen on the railroads.

That is a big showing for one department of the Federal Government, yet it is an exhibit that the pension bureau will make for the fiscal year ending on the 1st of July. The semi-official announcement is made of the fact that on that date Commissioner Lochren will be able to return to the Treasury Department nearly $25,000,000, being the unexpended balance of the $165,000,000 appropriated by Congress a year ago for the needs of the pension bureau.—Pittsburg Post.

And how has Lochren been enabled to return this money to the Treasury? By suspending peremptorily the pensions of thousands of old veterans, maimed or stricken by disease during the war; by pinching the widows and orphans of the dead veterans; by raiding the pension lists and dropping from the rolls without any explanation whatever people who were entitled to the bounty of this Government. It is a shameful showing that Hoke Smith makes through Lochren. It is a confession that the Union pensioners of this country have been robbed of $25,000,000. In no other country on earth could it happen.
