

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

J. E. WENK, Editor & Proprietor. WEDNESDAY, JULY 18, 1894.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

- STATE. Governor, DANIEL H. HASTINGS. Lieut. Governor, WALTER LYON. Auditor General, AMOS H. MYLIN. Secretary of Internal Affairs, JAMES W. LATTA. Congress-at-Large, GALUSHA A. GROW, GEORGE F. HUFF. COUNTY. Congress, A. W. COOK. (Subject to action of Dist. Conference.) Assembly, J. E. WENK. Associate Judge, J. A. NASH. District Attorney, P. M. CLARK. Coroner, J. W. MORROW.

The Democrats of the Erie-Crawford district have re-nominated J. C. Sibley for Congress. Mr. Sibley has not yet given his consent.

The Slayer of Mayor Harrison of Chicago, Patrick Eugene Prendergast, paid the death penalty last Friday morning when he was executed at Chicago.

CHANCEY M. DEWEY in speaking of the assassination of Mayor Harrison and President Carnot, brushed aside the plea of the insanity of such criminals, and the claim that they should not be executed. He said "Men who are sane enough to kill deliberately are sane enough to be killed judiciously."

A CINCINNATI PAPER devotes a column to proving that Speaker Crisp has made a miserable failure of his present term. From a Democratic standpoint this is probably true, but it should not be forgotten that he had one gleam of common sense—when he permitted his party to adopt the principles of the Reed rules.

The increase in the virulence of cholera in Russia, as reported in late dispatches from that country, throws an additional duty upon the custom officials in the United States which it should not be necessary to describe. Immigrants from that country, no matter whether they are of the higher or lower walks of Russian society, should be inspected with unusual care. In this matter it will not do take anything for granted.

The McKinley bill, with its high protective duties, just yielded enough revenue to pay the expenses of the Government and provide a fund for the redemption of our outstanding bonds. How can the Wilson bill with greatly reduced schedules, increase the revenue without greatly increasing importation? With greatly increased importation, how can the markets for home manufactures be kept up?—The Texas Miner, May 19, 1894.

THE REPUBLICAN observes with more than ordinary pleasure that Hon. Lucius Rogers, of Kane, Pa., is prominently mentioned as the successor of Col. Grier as superintendent of public printing and binding, under our next Governor, General Hastings. Surely no better selection could be made from the standpoint of personal fitness, the law requiring that the office must be filled by a practical printer, and the appointment of Mr. Rogers would be a just recognition, not only of the north-western portion of the State, but of one of its most sturdy and prominent Republicans as well, and at once popular with the party of this section.

THE Democratic "bosses" are now trying hard to get William A. Wallace to run for Congress in this district. In view of the outrageous manner in which he has been treated by the bosses this is an unequalled exhibition of cheek. The Philadelphia Press says: "The unscrupulous use of Federal patronage defeated him for the Democratic nomination for Governor in 1886 and 1890, when he again sought to be the candidate of his party for the first office of the Commonwealth, he was defeated by organized machinery in the hands of those who were actuated by jealousy and resentment. The same organization had it in its power to defeat him when a candidate for delegate-at-large to the National Convention in 1892, and did defeat him. The second election of Cleveland brought no suggestion of honors, or of the least consideration, to Mr. Wallace. Those who still dominate the Democratic organizations of the State would have been very quick to resent any favors extended to him, while these who continued to be his friends have been pursued with steady fervor." Now the bosses want Wallace and his friends to pull "their chestnuts out of the fire."

THINGS have quieted down in the "strike districts," and the indications are that, while the strikes are not all over with, there will be no further lawlessness, barring perhaps a little scurraging here and there that may occur. In Chicago the trouble seems to be about at an end, and it is thought that in a few days business of all kinds will be running along as usual. The western country is still somewhat turbulent, but the authorities don't appear to be fearing any serious outbreaks.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN'S first speech on the Tariff question was short and to the point. He said that he did not pretend to be learned in political economy, but he thought that he knew enough to know that "when an American paid twenty dollars for steel to an English manufacturer, America had the steel and England had the twenty dollars. But when he paid twenty dollars for steel to an American manufacturer, America had both the steel and the twenty dollars." That was the sum and substance of the tariff question as he viewed it.

NOTHING has been so extraordinary in connection with the Christian Endeavor movement as the numerical growth of the organization, which during the past year, as shown at the convention in Cleveland, has been reinforced by the addition of 7,395 companies—an increase surpassing that of the first eight years of the organization's history. Such remarkable increase in membership is a sufficient answer to the frequent remark of superficial observers that religion is losing its hold upon the masses. The truth is that the earnestness of the endeavors is the popular response, to principles which are clearly seen to be essential to the present social conditions.—Blizzard.

UTAH, so long barred out of the Union by the Republicans because of its polygamy, is now admitted on trust, for there is no doubt that President Cleveland will sign the admission bill passed by both houses of Congress. Once in the Union the majority of the people can enact what laws they please, and it is folly to presume that these laws will bear severely on polygamy. There is a grave probability that we will have a sovereign State secure from Congressional interference with a majority friendly to polygamy, and with its Legislature and courts giving countenance and support to that ancient twin relic with slavery of a barbarous period in the world's civilization.—Phila. Press.
