Messrs. Henning and Mitchell, of Porkey, this county, attended the picnic of the National Transit officials and employes at Conneaut Lake last Thursday.

Grove Bros. expect to finish the Couch & Torrey well on the Ledebur farm, Green township, this week. The well is being closely watched by interested parties.

Meadville has built a "tramp pen" and propose to try the rather hazardous experiment of compelling the tramp to earn his bread by the sweat of his brow.

The hay harvest is now fairly on, some of the farmers having pretty well finished up. The crop, generally speaking is very light this season, though some meadows are turning out well.

Tionesta expects to send a team up to play Tidoutie a ball game next Saturday. Bicycle and other races are on the bill of fare, and it is likely our town will furnish some talent to take part in these sports also.

A grand ball will be given on the new platform at the upper end of town, Friday evening, July 27. Good music and good order will be had. All are cordially invited to attend.

W. H. HOOD, Manager.

George Kilmer has bought the store and billiard room of J. G. Hunter, in the Raab building, and will throughly replenish the stock. George will conduct a nice stand, and will keep right up with the times in everything.

There is a general shut-down in the boat building business along the Clarion river. This is brought about by the low price of bosta in the city markets. It is estimated that one thousand men will be thrown out of work by this shut down.—Clarion Rep-Gaz.

A party of young people from town and vicinity drove to Hickory last Thursday evening and spent a very enjoyable time at Mr. Bowman's. After enjoying social affairs for a few hours, an excellent supper was served amid merriment and pleasures indulged in by all. The moment of sorrow came when propriety demanded that they return to Tionesta, for it seems that such pleasant occasions have not been a feature with our young people.

The family of the late Henry Ahlers, of German Hill wish to make public acknowledgement of their gratitude to the neighbors and friends who rendered kindly assistance in their late bereavement.

We call attention to the new advertisement of W. L. Douglas $3.00 shoe which appears in our issue today. We have every assurance from the manufacturer that the recent improvements in style and quality will give more satisfaction than ever to the wearers of these popular shoes.

The following letters remain uncalled for in Tionesta Postoffice: Mrs. Rose J. Crawford, Mr. C. A. Drukler, Lucien J. Deau Esq., S. A. Reeser, Mr. F. A. Seywert, E. S. Shaw, Mrs. James Walters; postal card, Mr. F. A. Seywert; 4th class, Mrs. Anna Higley. R. L. HASLET, P. M.

James T. Brennan, of Tionesta, has been on the sick list for the past six weeks, and has been stopping at Dr. Jackson's residence for the past three weeks, so so much improved that he expects to return home in a few days. His family has been with him during his stay here.—Derwick.

The borough council has decided to lay a sewer on Elm street from the north corner of T. J. Brennan's property to connect with the court house sewer at Helen St., and one from a southern corner of the court house square at Bridge street, down which street it is intended to go to the river.

M. P. Barber, who has been in failing health for some time is now confined to his home, and in a quite feeble condition. His son Dr. Barber of Kelletville, has been with him for the past week.—Pleasantville Record.

Capt. Barber has many friends in this vicinity, who will learn of his illness with much regret.

Meachant Bovard's new block is progressing as fast as materials can be gotten, and we judge from present appearances that George will be selling goods there inside of three weeks. Will Hunter's new residence, west side, is coming on at a good rate, and William will doubtless be able to occupy it in the course of a couple of weeks.

Until next Friday evening, July 20th, bids will be received by the borough council for digging and filling in the sewer ditch which the council has ordered to be laid. Plans and specifications may be seen at G. W. Robinson's store. At the same meeting bids will also be received for building an amount of sidewalk in the borough.

Prof. Spreckel, Secretary of the State Sunday School Association, will address Sunday school workers in the M. E. church next Saturday evening, at 8 o'clock. On Sunday evening there will be a union service in the Presbyterian church, at which Prof. Spreckel will also deliver an address on Sunday school work. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Capt. S. F. Johnson, who has made Tionesta his home for the past three months, departed Monday for Emlenton, in which place he intends to locate. The Captain's stay in Tionesta has been pleasant both to himself and the acquaintances he has formed here. He is one of the most genial of men, and makes friends wherever he goes. Long life and success to him.

John Ritter, a brakeman on the P. & W. R. R. met a terrible death on Wednesday morning near Parker's Landing. He was in the act of making a coupling when he was caught between the cars and literally cut in two, dying almost instantly. The unfortunate man lived at East Foxburg, where he made his home with a widowed mother.—Clarion Democrat.

A number of our townsmen, who had just landed some boats at that place, were eye-witnesses to this distressing accident.

Messrs. Wagner Bros. have their flouring mill now in operation, having just completed the entire overhauling of the plant, and placing the new rolls, which were started this week, and which are doing excellent work. They are now fully prepared to promptly attend to all custom work, and invite farmers and others having grain they wish ground to give them a call, guaranteeing perfect satisfaction in every case. This is an institution which the farmers of this section have long been hoping for, and now that a first class roller process mill has been erected in their midst it is to be supposed they will give it encouragement by a liberal patronage.

Men's fine dress shoes, $1.25 at L. & M.

Warm weather to be talking about clothing, but still they are coming in and for sale for cash as cheap as any concern on earth at Lanson's.

It has been quite remarkable the number of freights carrying coal that have passed up the river over the W. N. Y. & P. R. R. during the past ten days or two weeks. The amount seems to grow larger instead of smaller as might be supposed. The depletion of stocks northward and eastward, caused by the recent coal strikes accounts for the extra business in that line. The shipments on Friday amounted to 656 cars; on Saturday over 800 cars, and on Sunday 700 cars were sent out from Oil City.

Robert Bradish was bitten by a rattlesnake last Thursday, while cutting logs in the woods near Foreman's mill, on the headwaters of Indian camp run, Tionesta township. The snake's fangs made a slight abrasion of the skin above the ankle, drawing blood, but didn't seem to deposit much poison in the wound, hence Robert wasn't much inconvenienced by the bite. Charlie Hunter was struck in the pant leg by a rattler the day following in the same vicinity, but, aside from the scare, no damage was done. That region seems to be well populated with snakes.

Glen Fern Springs.

For quite a number of years it has been known that there was a mineral spring, possessing certain medicinal qualities, on the hill-side just east of town. Some time ago a well was dug and a comfortable seat fixed up among the trees, where, on a warm day, one can enjoy the cool breeze and pleasant shades. A sample of this water was sent to a well known chemist for analysis, who pronounced it a spring possessing many healthful minerals in solution.

Last week Mr. Kelly, who owns the spring, had it put into good shape, and built a pavillion over it, where one can sit and drink the cool, sparkling, health-giving water which flows out the full of an inch pipe. A drive has been constructed from the main road to the spring, the brush this spring has been named Glen Fern, and a more pleasant place to spend a day can not be found anywhere in the country. These springs are open to the public and all are invited to come at their own convenience and drink water and enjoy themselves.

Kelletville promises to put out an elegant new axle grease, far superior to any brand now on the market. The new article is called Shaw's Excelsior axle grease; warranted to wear 4 times as long as any grease on the market. George Brower, one of the teamsters of the Penn Tanning Co., has used the Excelsior, and we have it from George himself that a wagon will run as easy and free after 2 applications of the axle grease as a new ball-bearing vehicle could possibly run. S. E. Shaw of Kelletville is the manufacturer, and we hope that Sherd may profit greatly by his new venture. When wanting an article that is highly recommended call for the Excelsior.

C. F. Gillespie is down from Whig Hill visiting his son, R. Z. Mr. Gillespie is in his usual health and by moving around some hopes are entertained that his old time robustness may return.

Joe Wuerzge, Jr., was in Kelletville on Sunday, the first time in six months or more. Joe has lately undergone an operation of removing an abscess of the left lung.

Kelletville can now boast of a real telegraph line connecting us with Nebraska and East Hickory, the line being put up last week. The line from Ross Run to Kelletville was put up double, and is generally called a loop, as no ground wire is required at this end.

The main sport with the boys now is playing foot ball. The best men physically usually come out on the top of the heap. It is great sport, but oh, for the shin plasters.

A large number of the boys attended the barn raising on last Thursday at D. L. Beck's, at Whig Hill.

A. L. Weller bought the 80 acre tract of Wheeler & Dusenbury Monday. The land lies just below town on the east side. Consideration $800.00.

NEWSY NOTES.

Frank Falter of Fryburg had his leg and three ribs broken, and was considerably cut and bruised otherwise by being thrown in front of a mowing machine, one day last week.

C. G. Harmon, late cashier of the defunct Curry National bank entered a plea of guilty to an indictment of ten counts for making false entries in the books of the bank. His relatives and friends had previously turned over security amounting to 100,000 to make good the deficiency and sentence was deferred.

The much abused English sparrow has at last proven itself of some service and the swarm of locusts that now infest this community dread his approach, for this spunky little chirper pounces upon the locust whenever found and devours him with an avidity that is truly edifying to behold.—DuBois Tribune.

The Titusville Herald says the evidence is accumulating every day against Fred McDonnell, which shows he is the murderer of John McAndrew. A pearl handled knife has been found lying about 60 feet from where the murder was committed, which had marks of blood on it. The knife has been identified as belonging to McDonnell.

While little Arthur Lavery was playing on the porch of the residence of his father, William Lavery, at Warren, Tuesday evening of last week, he ignited a match which set fire to his clothing. Before his clothes could be torn from his body he was burned from his hips to the top of his head so that the skin came off and the flesh was fairly cooked in places. The child died Wednesday morning.

Twenty-two years ago Andrew Cone, of this city, was appointed Consul of Para, Brazil. Since that time he has passed away, but now W. G. Hunt, who was one of his bondsmen, has received intelligence of a shortage in Mr. Cone's accounts which the bondsmen must make good. As Mr. Cone was a man of means, and left ample funds to pay the deficiency, it seems strange that the family will allow an outsider, who went on the bond merely as an accommodation, to pay the money. Some interesting developments may be expected in the case. Mr. Hunt went to Pittsburgh this afternoon to settle the matter.—Billard.

Judge Gunnison, of Erie, has rendered an important decision in the case of J. M. Harvey vs. the Equitable Aid Union. Plaintiff claimed that by the terms of his policy $1,000 was due him in May, 1893. His policy for $2,000 was issued in 1890, with the condition that he should receive $1,000 in May, 1893. In the meantime the by-laws were amended providing for a payment at the rate of ten percent when the amount became due and the remainder in 10 percent annual installments. The Court decides that changes in the by-laws are not legal, so far as intended to affect contracts already made. On the other hand the Union plants itself on the right to announce repeal or change of the by-laws, a right which is reserved in the by-laws, and to which the policy holders consent and subscribe. The Union officials hold that under the right reserved the Union may change the manner of paying the matured obligations.

The Titusville world gives this timely and very sensible warning to the boys of that city, which will apply more or less in all sections: "The boys who go around sucking cigarette smoke into their lungs, coughing it through their nose, gambling in sheds and other out-of-door places, reading obscene literature and cultivating other habits of depravity are as certain sooner or later to come to grief as the young tree is to wither when its roots are cut away. The world could name a good many boys in Titusville who come under that head. So could any body else. They will do well to change their course before it is too late. They can as well grow up to be men as to become outright criminals or the full grown outcasts which are found in all communities—impaired or ruined in constitution, poor, untrusting and despised. The World, in all kindness, extends a warning to these youths to turn over a new leaf, and at the same time be developing into healthy and useful men. Turn over a new leaf, boys, and the people who note your actions now, and there are more of such people than you imagine will give you all credit for your actions and be glad to help you in any way they can. The other course will surely lead to sorrow for yourself and others, when it is too late you will regret that you did not heed this friendly warning."
