

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE. Governor, DANIEL H. HASTINGS. Lieut. Governor, WALTER LYON. Auditor General, AMOS H. MYLIN. Secretary of Internal Affairs, JAMES W. LATTA. Congress-at-Large, GALUSHA A. GROW, GEORGE F. HUFF. COUNTY. Congress, A. W. COOK. (Subject to action of Dist. Conference.) Assembly, J. E. WENK. Associate Judge, J. A. NASH. District Attorney, P. M. CLARK. Coroner, J. W. MORROW.

AND where is Gresham in all this row at Washington? He has the reputation of being a fighter. Let him into the fray.

THE Welsh tin plate makers are preparing to flood this country with tin on the passage of the Wilson bill. They will have to wait awhile. That bill doesn't seem to be in it this year.

THE Democratic conference of this Senatorial district will be held in this place to-morrow, Thursday. Elk county will present the name of W. H. Hyde; Clarion has A. M. Neeley, and Forest presents Edward Goodwin. Cameron county, we understand, will present no candidate.

STRONG opposition to the re-election of Congressman William L. Wilson is being developed among the Democrats of the Second district of West Virginia. Some of the most extensive coal interests in the State are in Mr. Wilson's district, and as he favored free coal in his tariff bill he is accused of treachery to his constituents. The district is very close politically, and there is little doubt a Republican will be elected this fall.

IN October, 1892, that great Democratic authority, The Chicago Herald, exhorted the people to vote for "a change," and in order to catch the votes of the farmers it used the following bait: "Vote for Cleveland and $1.25 for wheat." - Chicago Herald, 1892.

IN less than two years we have seen many "changes" that have become only too painfully familiar to the people of the United States. It is unnecessary to dwell upon these beyond drawing the attention of the farmer to the manner in which The Chicago Herald's promise of $1.25 for wheat has been fulfilled. This we do by quoting from The Chicago Herald of July 6, 1894, a telegram which it published as follows:

VANDALIA, ILL., July 5.—Wheat threshing is in full blast in Fayette county. Six hundred bushels of the new crop was brought to market today and sold at forty-six cents per bushel. The berry is exceptionally fine and weighs over sixty pounds to the bushel measure. - Chicago Herald, 1894.

THE Democratic newspapers that would read the distinguished Senator from Maryland out of the party for disagreeing with Cleveland, overlook the fact that the Senator to-day is standing upon the same ground exactly as that occupied by Cleveland, until some freak of fancy suggested to him the folly of writing the impertinent Wilson letter. Gorman has not deserted Democratic moorings as fixed by the tariff reform Democrats, but he proves beyond the peradventure of a doubt, from the mouths of such good Democratic authority as the testy Harris of Tennessee, the fiery and dramatic Vest, of Missouri, and the double-dyed free trader Jones, of Arkansas, that the Maryland Senator had every possible reason for believing that Cleveland approved the course he and other conservative Senators are pursuing. The Senator denied that his party platform contained Cleveland's declaration in favor of free raw materials. As Mr. Gorman felt that he was quite as well able to read the platforms and say what they contained as the man in the White House, it could scarcely be expected that he would, like the "cuckoos," desert what he regarded as the wise and prudent policy for party and country and take up that of any other man, even if that man did occupy the highest station in the country. Gorman is right. History will vindicate him, as have already the most remarkable array of witnesses, called on the floor of the Senate. Gorman is on top and likely to remain there.

THE Harrisburg Telegraph says: "How many of Harrisburg's people remember the old original Bucktails from the northwestern part of the state? It was on a warm day that they dropped into Harrisburg and marched to Camp Curtin to be mustered into the army to fight for their country. The appearance of the Bucktails differed very much from that of any other troops that had come to Harrisburg. There had been many companies in Zouave uniform, many in gray and blue and green with all sorts of trimmings and gold lace, and all of them quite fancy before they put on their business suits of blue furnished by Uncle Sam. But the Bucktails were not fancy. They looked business from the start. Carrying their deadly deer-hunting rifles on their shoulders they marched out to Camp Curtin fully prepared to do battle from the word go. Few of them wore coats. They wore red shirts, dark trousers, high boots and light-colored slouch hats, one side pinned up and fastened with a bucktail, the emblem that gained such wide renown in after years. On their shirt fronts were curious designs made of white buttons, and to this day in the backwoods lumber regions you will see men wearing shirts of a similar style, buttons and all. The old boys looked as if they had walked right out of a lumber camp and taken the cars. There are not many of them left now, but those who live to hold reunions can well be proud to say that they belonged to the world famous fighters."

ONE of the first results of the war between Japan and China is the intimation that both nations will try to negotiate loans in England. Neither Japan nor China may make much out of the war, but the British money-lenders will get a clinch on both nations, and thus the way will be opened for Great Britain as a nation to protect British interests in these countries. This protection never has any meaning but one, and it would not be surprising if the war gave an opportunity to Great Britain to obtain a hold in China and Japan that will be difficult to shake loose.

TARIFF REFORM is easy enough. All that is necessary is for one Democratic Senator to whisper that he will not vote for any bill that does not put a protective duty on sugar; another to insist that he will support no bill that is not for free lumber; another to demand that collars and cuffs must be protected or he will bolt; another to exact a big protection on rice for his support, and several others to insist upon a duty on coal and iron ore. Everybody gets what he wants, and that's tariff reform. - Phila. Press.

THE fact will be noticed that Senator Gorman is simply reaping the promise made by the Democratic leaders in 1892 to protect the sugar trust, and for that promised protection the Democratic committee in New York was furnished the cash with which to carry the Empire State. Unfortunately for the good of the country the information comes too late. If the country had known it then there might not be the distress and misery that prevails to-day, because Democrats would not have been in power.

IT is now said that the local managers all over the country are insisting that that eminent actor, James J. Corbett, shall fight Jackson or that they will scale down his percentage as a theatrical attraction from 65 or 70 per cent. to 45 or 50. It will thus be seen that the relations of pugilism to the stage are closer than most people have suspected.

DAVID B. HILL's voice is lifted for free raw material, of which he has been an advocate ever since Tammany began to take immigrants direct from the ships to the polls and vote them for the Democratic ticket. David B. knows his business.

THE Republicans of the first congressional district, Maine, have done themselves proud in the re-nomination of Tom Reed. Such heavy weights are needed in Congress.

COL. BRECKINRIDGE has by this time compared himself with all the characters in Scripture. - N. Y. Recorder. Except Joseph.

GREAT Forest Fires. Northern Wisconsin has experienced in the past few days the most destructive fires in many years, whole towns being licked up in flames. The town of Phillips has been totally wiped from the face of the earth, barring a few dwellings on the outskirts of the town. Not less than fifteen lives have been lost by fire and drowning, they having sought relief from the flames upon the lake.

Many hundred families are homeless and destitute. The state of Washington has also suffered greatly from forest fires, a dispatch from Kelso saying: The losses so far reported from the awful forest fires raging throughout the mountains of this section aggregate about $125,000. The people of the Slocum districts are left destitute and without shelter or food. A relief party has gone there, but it is feared there will be great suffering before it pushes its way through the burning forests. Fires had been burning around the ill-fated towns for several days, but about noon yesterday a roaring gale swept down the mountains, lifting high in the air falling trees, and carrying them long distances as brands to start new fires in a thousand different places. Almost instantly a fire was raging in Three Forks. The terror-stricken people had to flee for their lives, leaving everything behind them.
