LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Oil market 80 1/2.

—Oh, welcome rain! Where are ye?

—The Katydids are here for the season of '94.

—August the 1. Only 152 days left of this year.

—F. J. Henderson was down from Hickory a few hours yesterday.

—Squire C. H. Church of East Hickory was a visitor to town yesterday.

—Some early gardeners are boasting that they are eating "roasting ears" already.

—Mr. S. L. Vail of West Hickory, spent a few hours of yesterday with Tionesta friends.

—Dr. Siggins is a physician universally admired by his patients at the Keeley Institute.

—Miss Lillian Miles of Fagundus, was the guest of Miss Minnie Hill during the past week.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. Wayne Cook, of Cooksburg, were guests at Hotel Agnew, Saturday evening.

—G. W. Bovard has moved into his handsome new store room, opposite the REPUBLICAN office.

—Manager Jones, of the Keeley Institute, returned yesterday from a very pleasant visit with friends in Titusville, Pa.

—Miss Alice Agnew handsomely entertained about 40 of her little friends last evening, the occasion of her 10th birthday.

—If you want to see a man of wondrous attend the entertainment at the school house next Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

—Rev. Mr. Kobitz, who has been on a short vacation, will again be with his congregation at the Lutheran church, German Hill, next Sabbath.

—It is said that clerk Dunkle, of the Central House, can cope with the most notorious story teller among the many traveling men who come to Tionesta.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Amsler desire to thank their friends for kindness shown them during their late bereavement, the death of their infant daughter.

—Mrs. C. M. Shawkey and children, of Warren, are guests at the home of Rev. F. F. Shoup. Mr. S. came down last evening and returned this morning.

—It is said a new postage stamp will soon be issued bearing a fac simile of the American flag. Just why this very sensible idea was not hit upon long years ago is one of the mysteries.

—Kels. Crawford, of Enterprise, Pa., was circulating among old friends hereabouts the past week. Kels. has lost none of his old time drollery during his 18 or 20 year's absence from the creek and river.

—Jared Hulings says if the party who took his square off the lumber pile in front of Daniel Walter's premises will return the same the whole affair will be called "square," otherwise there may be trouble.

—The Couch & Torrey well, on the Ledebur farm, Green township, is a duster. It was drilled in last week, and a fair article of sand, supposed to be the Balltown, was found, but no oil. The hole is 1810 feet deep. It is said the parties are not satisfied with the test, and are talking of sinking the old well on the Ledebur place to the depth of the Balltown sand.

Death of Mrs. H. F. Connelly.

On Saturday, July 28, 1904, at 1:15 p. m., Sadie, wife of H. F. Connelly, passed away in death at her home, at the Fogle Farm, Harmony township, this county. Her illness was of short duration, she having been ailing only since the Saturday previous, death being caused by blood poison.

The deceased's maiden name was Barr. About 12 years ago she was united in marriage with H. F. Connelly, and together they have lived happily during this period. The union was blessed with four children who, with the husband, survive her. Mrs. Connelly was a woman highly esteemed for her many good qualities of mind and heart, and in her death the community sustains an irreparable loss. Our stricken friend "Doc," as he is most familiarly known to all his acquaintances, has the heartfelt sympathy of all in his hour of great bereavement. To him, and the little ones left motherless the shock is very great indeed.

Mrs. Connelly was aged 32 years. The funeral took place on Sabbath afternoon, conducted by Rev. F. F. Shoup, and the remains were laid to rest in the Wesleyan Cemetery at Stewart's Run.

A RARE TREAT.

For the Citizens of Tionesta and Vicinity. Through the intercession of friends here of Prof. J. T. Teel & Company, of Erie, the far famed conjurer, has been engaged to give two of his very interesting performances in the school house in Tionesta next Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Aug. 28th and 29th. This much can be said that Prof. Teel has never before visited so small a place as Tionesta, playing exclusively in large cities at 50c, $1.00 and $1.50 seats, but has been induced to come to Tionesta by friends of his who are here. His show will prove a rare treat to our people. In order that all may attend, the prices of admission have been fixed at 35c, and 25c, and 15c for children. See lithographs and hand bills. Prof. Teel is the equal of Harry Keller, the world-famous magician.

Kellettville.

Clarence Jenkins has moved from the Kribbs farm on Whig Hill, to Kellettville, where he will strike another job much more to his liking than tilling the soil. Clarence has served one year on the farm, and under his able management Mr. Kribbs feels proud. Adolph Bauer takes the plow by the horns, as it were, and for a year at least will wield the farm machinery. Ad. is old in experience in farming, and as a horny-handed son of the soil is a complete success. If you don't think so just watch the farm of W. A. Kribbs for the next year.

L. J. Catlin of Oakdale Station, Pa., is home visiting his mother, Mrs. Wm. Tobey, and other relatives. Lennie has been running a string of tools in the Oakdale oil district for some time, and his success in the cleaning out of wells has been so great that he has constant work. A short time ago he cleaned out two old wells that had been abandoned after several efforts had been made to agitate them, but without success. Lennie says he just happened to get the right pinch on the wells, and as a consequence they are producing about 50 bbls. per day each.

H. E. Gillespie has begun operations on his old job back of farmery. Ed. has about 200 old logs to skid, and when that is completed he will begin on what has been peeled this season.

The little rain shower of Sunday cooled the atmosphere a little, and also gave the buckwheat and corn a little boom; potatoes are so far gone that nothing but a complete soaker would reach them, and then not much good would come of it, as the tops of the vines are dying off.

A. H. Downing is fast improving; he will be able for duty again in a few weeks.

There will be a birthday party and dance at R. Rudolph's at Newtown Mills, on Wednesday evening, in honor of his daughter, Emma's birthday. Kellettville promises to turn out and enjoy an evening's amusement.

Len. Mervin, of yellow hammer ridge, was in town Saturday and Sunday. The question has often been asked your correspondent why Len. makes frequent trips to Kellettville, and we are at a loss to know. Who can tell?

J. B. Carpenter of Newtown Mills is suffering from the effects of being poisoned by ivy, a weed that grows extensively in this section. While the poison is not considered dangerous, it is feared that crystals has set in, thus laying him off for a few weeks.

W. C. Wilson is still off duty, and to all in his spare moments the gallant Buckeys is at his old pastime, hunting bees. We cannot correctly state the number he has found this season, but he has been fully paid for his trouble.

WILL WALKS.

—Don't forget that Lanson will sell anything in his line as cheap for cash as any place in this part of the country.

—Men's Russian Calf, $5.00 shoes for $3.50 at Ledebur & Miles'.

—A large line of summer goods for sale at Barnett's at actual cost.

—Try the wonderful Dragon Brand Tea, for sale at Lanson's.

—To learn the value of a dollar these days call at Barnett's.

Stewart's Run.

Stewart & Son got a good well on the Hydekeeper; report says it will pump from 15 to 18 barrels per day.

Born, July 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McIntyre, a son. Mother and baby are doing well.

A. N. Zahniser and sister, Daisy, accompanied by Watson Walters, of Nebraska, visited friends here Sunday. Miss Daisy remained until Tuesday.

Mrs. Sallie Gorman visited friends here the latter part of last week and the first of this.

Rosl Ipson of Jamestown, N. Y., is spending a few weeks with Rev. and Mrs. Williams.

The engine and belt house of Stewart's water well on the Hydekeeper was destroyed by fire Saturday evening.

Mrs. Sallie Gorman and four children, and Miss Lena Bates, of Titusville, spent last week with Mrs. S.'s sister, Mrs. O. B. McIntyre. Mrs. S. lost a watch containing a good black dress, a pocket-book and other articles on her way home Saturday.

Geo. R. Dawson of Warren was home last week on a visit.

The community was shocked last week to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. H. F. Connelly, of the Fogle Farm, which was quickly followed by the news of her death, which occurred Saturday at two o'clock, from blood poison. She leaves a husband and four children, the youngest 5 years of age. They have the sympathy of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bryner visited Rev. and Mrs. Shoup of their town Monday evening.

J. M. Vanderlin and family of Tionesta, spent Tuesday of last week with relatives here.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the F. M. church will meet Friday evening, Aug. 3. All are cordially invited.

Miss Rosa Connelly, of Jamestown, N. Y., who was called here by the death of her sister-in-law, returned to her home to-day. Mrs. Brant, Mrs. Connelly and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Connelly will remain the guests of friends for a while.

A Great Walker.

Perhaps there is not a man in Clarion or adjoining counties who can show a record in the walking line to be compared with that of J. J. Blackford of Crown, this county, who is employed by the National Transit Co. as line walker. Mr. Blackford's duties consist in making an inspection of the pipe through which oil is conveyed, and in order to take notes of any repairs needed is obliged to follow closely the course of the line, which means a bee line route, regardless of hill or vale, the chief consideration of the Company being to use as little pipe between points as possible. During the first three years of Mr. Blackford's service the route was from Crown to Kane, a distance of 21 miles as the crow flies. Every day during the first three years, Sunday included, he covered this distance between the points above named, making a total of 22,695 miles during the first three years of his pilgrimage. During the past two years he has covered 4305 miles or a grand total of 27,000 miles in five years. When it is remembered that the record has been for all kinds of weather, winter and summer, and that his speed was necessarily retarded by the constant watchfulness required in order to detect any leaks in or other damage to the line, it will appear as a walker Mr. Blackford's record is hard to surpass. Mr. Blackford seems to enjoy the exercise too, but it is very poor sport for the man who undertakes to keep pace with him for any length of time, as we are assured by one of his friends who undertook to keep pace with him for a few miles one day not long since.—Clarion Democrat.

NEWSY NOTES.

The 11th Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteers will hold their annual reunion at Meadville on Thursday, August 30th, 1894.

A Bradford man has made a distinction between a "wheelman" and a "cyclist." He says that a wheelman sits erect and a cyclist humps his back.

An Irishman on visiting a cemetery noticed on a tombstone the following inscription: "Sacred to the memory of a lawyer and an honest man." "By the powers," said Mike, "that's a strange custom, to bury two men in one grave."

It is only a few years since Sawyer City was one of the bustling oil towns of McKean county. To-day it hasn't population or business enough for a post-office. It will only be a few years when all the towns in the county, the names of which end with "city," will be swiped from the map.—Kane Republican.

There is every indication of one of the heaviest grape yields ever known in the Erie-Chartautauque county grape belt. Reports from Dunkle are that while last year the yield was much larger than that of any preceding year, conservative estimates place the present season's crop fully one-fifth greater than that of last year.

An exchange says that girls are of few days and full of mischief, and whoever is deceived thereby is not wise. When the fair girl chews her gum with great haste, and stamper her pretty foot, then look out. She cometh forth in the evening in low neck and short sleeves, and in the morning she lieth in bed while her mother lusteth.

Deerfoot, an Indian living in the Cattaraugus reservation, yet holds the world's record for an hour's run. At London, in 1863, he ran 12 miles and 679 yards in an hour. To a reporter who visited him last week and asked about his past he said: "My past? I have no past. I'm Deerfoot yet; maybe folks think I'm dead" and with a hesitating threat in his voice, "I'm willing to run against any man or horse in America yet."

A new article of food promises to be soon before the public. It is grape sirup, and is said to be altogether delicious. After the first crop of Muscat grapes in California is disposed of there comes the second crop of smaller ones and cullings. From these, after careful experiments in reducing grapejuice to grape sirup, the new product has been evolved to take the place of maple and cane sirup. It has not the thick and intense sweetness of cane sirup and sugar, which make
