J. E. WENK, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1894.
REPUBLICAN TICKET.
STATE.
Governor, DANIEL H. HASTINGS.
Lieut. Governor, WALTER LYON.
Auditor General, AMOS H. MYLIN.
Secretary of Internal Affairs, JAMES W. LATTA.
Congress-at-Large, GALUSHA A. GROW, GEORGE F. HUFF.
COUNTY.
Congress, W. C. ARNOLD, of Clearfield County.
State Senate, JOHN F. CRAIG, of Clarion County.
Assembly, J. E. WENK, Associate Judge, J. A. NASH, District Attorney, P. M. CLARK, Coroner, J. W. MORROW.

HON. JAMES W. LATTA.
Republican Nominee for Secretary of Internal Affairs.

THERE was a great gathering of Republicans at Harrisburg last week, in attendance at the meeting of the State Republican Clubs, and the enthusiasm displayed by the great throng was most encouraging, and will be encouraging to the party throughout the State. The speech of General Hastings was the keynote of the campaign, and there were many things in that speech to set the voter to thinking. For instance here is a gem for the thoughtful:

"The well intentioned citizen who has not decided how to vote at the coming election may well consider his ground. I hope he will inquire of himself how he likes the condition since the Republican party has gone out of power? How has it been with him individually? Has he steady employment? Is he paid the old Republican wage rates? Does he find the cost of living cheaper, and the ability to meet the cost better? Is his business prosperous? Is he contented and confident of the future as before? When he has answered to himself these vital questions, let him, on his way to the polls, pass the silent mill, the cold furnace, the broken bank, the deserted forge, let him pass by poverty and want, business paralyzed and confidence vanished, and then record his judgment of the responsibility for these conditions and his hope for the future in the ballot which he places in the box."

A powerful appeal like the above cannot be given too much prominence. It is a statement of fact that goes right home to the American workman, to the manufacturer, to the bank depositor, to the business man, to the merchant of every class, to the man out of work, to the man on reduced wages and to the man with no wages. These men should heed the hard lesson learned in the past year, and vote to change the existing condition of things.

The perfidy, dishonor and surrender tariff bill reduces the duty on hay imported into the United States by about one-half; and this recalls the attention of some of its opponents to the fact that Canada is now our strong competitor in the hay market, and that the centres of trade lying along the Canadian border will suffer most by the reduction of this duty. The cost of production in Canada is said to be 45 percent lower than in the United States. In 1870 the hay yield of the United States was 24,525,000 tons; in 1880 the yield was 31,925,233 tons; in 1893 it was 65,766,168, worth $570,882,872, or more than double the value of the cotton crop, more than twice the value of the wheat crop, nearly fifteen times greater than that of the tobacco crop, and within a fraction of that of the corn crop of 1893, which was $590,000,000 in value.—N. Y. Sun.

THE West Virginia Democrats are getting worried over the outlook in Wilson's district, and are importuning Cleveland to come down and help them out. The presence of Cleveland will not help Wilson. He is fore-doomed to defeat.

DELEGATES representing the People's Party of this county met at the court house in Tionesta on Thursday last, and placed in nomination the following ticket for the fall campaign: Assembly, W. C. Hill; Associate Judge, W. W. Thomas; Coroner, G. S. Kiffer.

THE Warren-Venango Republican Senatorial conference came to an agreement last week, nominating Hon. Chas. M. Shortt. Mr. Hopkins very gracefully withdrew and asked his conferees to support Mr. Shortt, and the meeting adjourned happily and harmoniously.

THE doctor on the ship that brought over the immigrant who died from cholera at Cumberland, Md., dosed the man with stimulants that he might pass the quarantine officer. It might be a good thing to lay a heavy hand on that ship's doctor and make it decidedly unpleasant for him.

A CALCULATION made on newspaper reports of sugar arrivals at New York, Philadelphia and Boston, show that the Sugar Trust has made a very large sum by the ten days delay. The internal revenue receipts from whisky show that the Government has lost and the distillers have gained ten or twelve million dollars by the President's course in holding the bill for ten days instead of signing it when it was sent him.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
