Commissioner Connely's neighbors were gathered at his farm on Church Hill, threshing his buckwheat, the cylinder of the thresher "blowed-up" with terrific force, scattering the teeth in every conceivable direction, and it is needless to say, scattering the men as thoroughly. Connely says that for a veteran our old friend Charlie Albaugh got a hustle on him that would do credit to the champion runner of America. Charles could stand a shower of bullets all right, but when it came to filling the air with a mixture of iron, steel, wood, &c., he'd rather be excused. Fortunately no one was injured, but it was an experience that none present care to ever pass through again.

-A great camp of the Knights of the Maccabees of Pennsylvania is au established fact, and Oil City will be its headquarters. The annual convention of the members of the order in Pennsylvania completed their deliberations at Warren, and closed the session on Wednesday evening by the installation of the following officers: Past Commander, C. L. Coville; Great Commander, E. S. Watson, of Williamsport; Great Record Keeper, W. E. Blaney, Oil City; Great Finance Keeper, M. G. Raub, of Bradford; Great Medical Examiner, Dr. DeWolf, of Chicora. In addition to above named officers, the delegates voted to hold the first meeting of the new Great State camp at Braddocks next year. Forest county has two Tents of this Order, one at Tionesta and the other at Kellettville, both of which are in a flourishing condition.
