

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE.

Governor, DANIEL H. HASTINGS. Lieut. Governor, WALTER LYON. Auditor General, AMOS H. MYLIN. Secretary of Internal Affairs, JAMES W. LATTA.

COUNTY.

Congress, W. C. ARNOLD, of Clearfield County. State Senate, JOHN F. CRAIG, of Clarion County. Assembly, J. E. WENK. Associate Judge, J. A. NASH. District Attorney, P. M. CLARK. Coroner, J. W. MORROW.

THE 28TH DISTRICT.

There are sure to be some political surprises at the coming election. The forecasting of the political division of the Pennsylvania delegation in the next Congress by the Republican and Democratic Congressional Campaign Committees exactly agree. The Democrats concede a loss of four members, making the division twenty-four Republicans and six Democrats.

In the 28th district in 1892 the Democratic majority was 4,001, and in 1893 it dropped to 1,719, while at the February election on the Grow-Hancock vote there was a majority of 1,197 for Grow. The conditions existing last February still stare every voter in the face, and he will have to choose between free trade and protection. It should not be a question of politics, but a question of whether or not our nation shall continue to drift toward bankruptcy and ruin.

JOHN F. CRAIG.

John F. Craig Esq., whom the Republicans of this district unanimously placed in nomination for State Senator, paid a visit to this county last week, and while in town met a good many of our people and with every one of them he left a most favorable impression. He is a man of sound judgment, fine education, a good conversationalist, a thorough business man and well acquainted with the needs of the people of his district, whom he would represent in an intelligent and satisfactory manner.

Mr. Craig, the Republican nominee for State Senator in the Thirty-eighth district, was born near the village of Sligo, Clarion county, in 1832. His father, Washington Craig, owned the farm on which the town of Sligo is located and the family lived there for years in a log cabin in very close circumstances.

state of Missouri, and entering the law office of the Hon. James Campbell of Clarion, was admitted to the bar there in 1858. He went south to practice his profession, but on the breaking out of the Civil War returned home and engaged in business as a woolen manufacturer and later, in company with his father and brothers, erected one of the best equipped and most successful flouring mills in the state at New Bethlehem. They also engaged in the mercantile business there. In all these pursuits Mr. Craig has been eminently successful.

After starting in the woolen business he went out with a wagon himself, among the farmers and others and disposed of his products, buying their wool in return. He achieved a reputation second to none among them, because his goods were good and honestly made. Extending his business he placed his goods on the wholesale markets, where he also took a front rank as the manufacturer of one of the most popular and widely sold blankets ever placed on the Pittsburgh market.

Mr. Craig is not a politician, never having been before the public in his life as a candidate for any office, and did not seek the present nomination. Although a staunch Republican, Mr. Craig is conservative. He is popular with the workmen, having extended very liberal credits to them, and it is said never distressed a poor man or forced a collection in his life.

The lumber dealers of Leslie county, Ky., are said to have lost at least $50,000 owing to the Gorman tariff. Farm hands in the same state who used to receive $1.50 per foot for sawed logs delivered at Frankfort are now getting from 75 cents to $1. Sheep that sold from $2.00 to 2.50 in 1892 now bring $1. Every branch of business has decreased one-half since President Harrison's administration. The people cannot pay their taxes, and hundreds of Democrats are deserting their party.

THE HASTING'S CANVASS this week includes Mercer, Venango, Crawford, Erie and Washington counties after which he will go to Luzerne and Lackawanna and then to Philadelphia. No other evidence is needed that he is fully meeting the expectations of the people and discussing the question in which they are most concerned than the fact that it is no unusual thing for them to address audiences of 5,000 or 6,000 people in places where such crowds have heretofore been unheard of in any former campaign.

THIS is the proper time to talk to your neighbor about getting out to vote. Republicans should not need to be urged this year. Every vote should be polled without fail, and the way to poll a full vote is to get out yourself and bring your neighbor with you.

THE PITTSBURGH Commercial Gazette observes that the movements of General Hastings and his campaign orators have been the occasion of a series of ovations scarcely paralleled in the history of State politics. Republicans rally to the meetings in large numbers and hail the speakers with unbounded enthusiasm. The people seem to be in deeper earnest than they have been in many years. And why should they not be? A wonderful change has come over the business and industrial interests of the country since 1892. The entering wedge has been driven which is to split the bulwark of protection into kindling wood, and the shock of the blow has been tremendous.
