finest crop of potatoes of any we have acre, and they were of an extra fine

Wm. Jackson of Neillsburg, died of cholera infantum, Oct. 4th, aged 4 years. Funeral services were held at the church Oct. 6th, Rev. Hume of ficiating. Interment in Neillsburg son of Aaron and Anna Foot of Neillsburg, died of cholera infantum at his home on the 7th inst. Funeral on the 9th at Neillsburg church, Rev. J. A. Hume officiating. Interment at Neillsburg cemetery.

—The wife of James Black who lives upon the road leading to Tylers-burg, about two miles south of Tionesta, was quite severely injured last Friday. In some way, she fell from the mow of the barn to the barn floor, a distance of about 12 feet, striking on her head and shoulders. Dr. Bowman was summoned and found his patient suffering from inflammation at the base of the brain. Yesterday her condition was considered quite serious but to day she is somewhat better, we are glad to report, and is considered out of danger.

—Everybody has noticed how very cheap wool and sheep have been selling, since the passage of the Gorman tariff law; Sheep in Ohio bringing at one sale only $4.50 a dozen and at another going for 15c apiece; but it remained for Forest county to get down even further than this. Last week John Burbean of German Hill bought 20 sheep for four cents—five for a cent. That knocks the wool off of Ohio sheep for cheap.

—Mrs. Vaughn, Mrs. F. E. Metcalf's

Vaughn.

ated $20,000 to test the efficiency of the newly discovered means for the prevention and cure of diphtheria. The medical practitioners of the old world are well satisfied of its value.

—The following poetical appeal won for its author, the editor of the Rocky Mountain Celt, the prize of $1,000 offered for the best appeal poem to newspaper men to pay up their subscription: "Lives of poor men oft remind us honest men won't stand no chance; the more we work there grow behind us bigger patches on our pants. On our pants, once new and glossy, now are stripes of different hue, all because subscribers lug-ger, and don't pay us what is due. Let us then be up and doing; send in your mites, however small, or when the snow of winter strikes us, we shall have no pants at all."

—The 1000 bushels of chestnuts, which, so far, have been marketed this year, from Somerset, laid sold for about a cent and a half a pound, a price, which shows the wisdom of the advice that Governor Beaver so repeatedly gave in his public addresses to the people of the mountain portions of Pennsylvania, when he told them that chestnuts would pay better than wheat. At present prices they do. The chestnut crop will bring Somerset county, this year, $100,000.— —A farmer in Alliance, O., forces a hard winter, and thus tells why: "The feathers on the geese are heavier than ever before. My young lambs are growing wool that seems marvelous, and sheep that have been sheared are rapidly regaining their fleeces. These signs were visible in 1857 and 1858." These may be winter portents; but likely they are merely the signs of the increased output of feather beds and blankets demanded for the comfort of the people in these better times.—Tinsville Citizen.

—As to the sheep the Citizen is mistaken.
The increased output of wool is a precautionary measure, on the part of the sheep, to keep up the aggregate price of his fleeces, by making an increased output to compensate for the fall in price per lb., occasioned by the free wool tariff.
As to the feather business we defer to the editor of the Citizen, on a question relating to the process of reasoning by which the goose reaches its conclusions on tariff matters.—Meadville Republican.
