LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Oil market 8 1/2.

—Miss Rilla Brace is visiting with Tionesta friends.

—Br'er White of the Tidoute News was a pleasant caller on Monday.

—Ritchie Ledebur has returned to his studies at the Erie business college.

—Dr. Bowman reports the arrival of a nine pound girl at the home of Archie Mathe of Nebraska, Monday night.

—Mrs. Fred Infield, who has been severely ill for several weeks past, is improving slowly. Her mother has been with her for the past ten days.

—Arthur Weant and George Klinschetter, two of Nebraska's young men, departed Monday to take the winter course at Erie City business college.

—O. W. Proper has located a well out near Hemlock creek, about four miles south of here. He expects to have the walking beam in motion inside of two weeks.

—The W. C. T. U. will give an oyster supper next Tuesday evening, Nov. 20th, from 6 to 9 o'clock, at their reading room. Price 25 cents. Everybody cordially invited.

—List of letters remaining in Tionesta, Pa., P. O., Nov. 10, 1894: Mrs. Nancy Courso, S. G. Gold, Dr. H. M. Herman, J. M. McClelland, 2.

R. L. HASLET, P. M. —Mr. H. O. Davis has for some time been failing in health, until now his condition is quite serious. He is upward of 75 years of age and his friends fear that his recovery is doubtful.

—The first and, up to date, the only deer laid low hereabouts this season was houg up by Jack Welsh and Charlie Corb, Monday of this week. It was a fine doe weighing upward of 100 pounds dressed.

—L. J. Hopkins is in New York where he expects to remain for some time, and may embark in business there, in which case he would give up his residence in Tionesta, but not until the winter is over.

—W. G. Wyman received a hard stroke in the face last Saturday from an edging thrown by the boiler saw at the spoke factory. No bones were broken, but the escape from serious injury was a narrow one.

—We have now had a full week of pretty snug winter weather, the ground for the most part being covered with snow to the depth of 3 to 6 inches. If this means the beginning of our regular winter 'tis going to be a long one surely.

—John Jones came down from Foxcreek yesterday and had a piece of steel removed from his right eye, which had been giving him lots of pain for four or five days past. The relief from pain and the good election news made John feel happy.

—By notice published in this issue it will be observed that jurors summoned to appear at the November term of court, next week, are informed that their presence will not be required; hence there will be no jury court, and possibly no court of any kind.

—James R. Clark of this place, and Maxwell White of Barnett, were appointed by the court last week as Congressional and Senatorial return judges. Mr. Clark took the Congressional returns to Clearfield, and Mr. White the Senatorial returns to Ridgway.

—Associate Judge-elect Nash was down from Howe township yesterday on a short business visit. We asked the Judge what the news was up in his section, and he told us the biggest excitement now in his neighborhood was over the fact that George Noblit had killed a few last Saturday.

—The new ad. of David Mintz, the live Marienville merchant, will appear next week. Meantime Mr. Mintz would be pleased to show the public his elegant new stock of goods for the winter, which is by far the largest and finest he has ever handled. Go and see what he has to show you, and get prices that for lowness will astonish you.

—Our genial friend A. J. McCray was over from Marienville last Saturday and dropped into the REPUBLICAN office for a short call. Jack, like other good things, improves with each year of added age and grows more popular with the boys every day. He reports the new mill at Baker & Hammond's completed, and bigger and better than the one destroyed by fire last summer.

—Roy G. Brownell of Sheffield, and Miss Elizabeth Moreland were married on the sixth inst., at the residence of the bride in Erie, Pa. The cards announce that Mr. and Mrs. Brownell will be at home to their friends, in Sheffield after the 20th. Best wishes and heartiest congratulations to you and yours, Roy, from your many Tionesta friends, in which the REPUBLICAN most heartily joins.

—Messrs. Scowden & Clark are early on the carpet with a fine stock of cutters for the winter. Their line consists of both Portlands and swell box, as well as bobs, light and heavy. A nicer display has never been shown in this place, and those contemplating a purchase should by all means look over their stock and get prices before ordering. The figures at which they will dispose of them are surprisingly low, so that any one with a horse and harness can easily afford a nice cutter. Call and see them.

The President's Thanksgiving.

The American people should gratefully render thanksgiving and praise to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, who has watched over them with kindness and fostering care during the year that has passed; they should also with humility and faith supplicate the Father of All Mercies for continued blessings according to their needs, and they should by deeds of charity seek the favor of the giver of every good and perfect gift.

Therefore I Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of November, inst., as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, to be kept and observed by all the people of the land.

On that day let our ordinary work and business be suspended, and let us meet in our accustomed places of worship and give thanks to Almighty God for our preservation as a Nation, from our immunity from disease and pestilence, for the harvests that have rewarded our husbandry, for a renewal of national prosperity, and for every advance in virtue and intelligence that has marked our growth as a people.

And with our thanksgiving let us pray that these blessings may be multiplied unto us, that our national confidence may be quickened to a better recognition of the power and goodness of God, that in our national life we may clearer see and closer follow the path of righteousness.

And in our places of worship and praise, as well as in the happy reunions of kindred and friends on that day, let us invoke divine approval by generously remembering the poor and needy. Surely He who has given us comfort and plenty will look upon our ministrations of charity as the work of hearts truly grateful and as proofs of the sincerity of our thanksgiving.

Gultonville.

Jake Gulton, our champion squirrel hunter, has bagged 240 squirrels thus far this season.

D. E. Gulton has captured 15 coons and one opossum this season. Dan is champion on coons, but "coons" are plenty this year judging from the appearance of the papers.

John Myers of Hickory spent Saturday and Sunday with Gultonville friends. James Campbell has returned from a visit with Clarion county friends.

Wm. Mohney's smiling face is again among us.

John Grubbs of Golinza paid our town a visit recently.

R. W. Moon killed a large cat-owl recently that measured 3 feet 8 inches from tip to tip.

Rev. Hodgkins preached in our new school house last Saturday evening, and will hold services again on the evening of the 24th inst. Come out and hear him.

Sabbath school next Sabbath at 10:30 a. m. We trust there will be a good attendance.

The Tionesta Circle of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle—Brief of its History.

This society was originally organized Nov. 9, 1881, and continued until the fall of 1882. Of the original members the following are still residents of Tionesta: T. F. Ritchey Esq. and wife, A. B. Kelly and wife, S. D. Irwin and wife, Mrs. J. H. Dingman, Miss Marie Jackson, now Mrs. L. J. Hopkins.

The following members are deceased: J. H. Dingman, T. B. Cobb, Lizzie M. Davis, Albert Hayden.

The following named members have removed to other places, as follows: John A. Hart and wife, Oil City; Robt. Hoskins, North Dakota; Charles Bonner, Chicago, Ill.; T. J. VanGiesen and wife, Leechburg, Pa.; Mrs. A. H. Partridge, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Belle Dewees, Cleveland, O.; Mr. L. M. Cobb, West Chester, Pa.; Rev. James Hickling and wife, Dresden, O.; G. W. Dithridge and wife, New York city; Mrs. Sus. E. Evans, now Mrs. G. W. Warden, East Hickory, Pa.; Miss Minnie A. Freeman, now Mrs. J. B. Reeves, North Yokima, Wash.; Belle Shoup, now Mrs. C. M. Shawky, Warren, Pa.; Miss Kate Cobb, now Mrs. Dr. T. D. Dunn, West Chester, Pa.; Miss Anne Davel, now Mrs. Dr. M. B. Cook, Buffalo, N. Y.

In 1881-2 the following named books of the Chautauqua course were read: Mosaics of History; Townsend's Art of Speech; McKinzie's 19th Century; History of Ancient Literature; Roman Art. The following prescribed articles and treatises were read, also, from the Chautauqua: History of Judea; Geology; Health at Home; Christ in Chronology; Political Economy; Ancient Art; Mental Science.

During this time the different leaders and instructors, called examiners in the minutes, were—J. H. Dingman, T. F. Ritchey, S. D. Irwin, L. M. Cobb, G. W. Dithridge, A. B. Kelly, Mrs. Anna Hart, Mrs. H. M. L. Dithridge.

The circle was reorganized at the home of F. F. Whitekin Nov. 3, 1894, and the following officers elected: President, T. F. Ritchey; Vice Pres't, Rev. W. W. Dale; Sec'y, A. W. Richards; Treas., S. D. Irwin. Rev. Dale was elected Instructor and Examiner. Nov. 9, circle met at S. D. Irwin's, where By-laws were adopted and first lessons read. For the present regular meetings on Friday nights. The next circle will meet at the residence of G. W. Kery, Friday ev'g, Nov. 16th. Readings for the evening as follows: Growth of the English Nation, Chap. V, to page 94. Europe in the 10th Century, chapters XII, XIII, and XIV. in the Chautauqua; The Legislation of the German Empire; Modern Agriculture in France and Sunday reading of Nov. 11th.

Considerable interest is manifested, and the circle is revived under promising circumstances.

Delightful Colorado.

From a private letter from Fred. M. Morgan, who, with his family, left Oil City recently to spend the winter in Colorado for the benefit of his health, we call the following: This is a beautiful city and the climate is grand. The sensation at first was funny; seemed as if the air did not go far enough into our lungs, and we felt as if we were going to fall apart. Seems to me I never saw a genuine sunshine until I came here. We can see Pike's Peak, which is eighty miles distant, and other mountains at a still greater distance, plainly; they are all covered with snow, they tell us, all the year. It is wonderful how pure and refreshing the air is; the sensation, after breathing it, is pleasant and must be experienced to be appreciated. I think the air has some influence on the nature of the people for they seem to be more cheerful and more sociable than the people in the East. They have beautiful buildings, beautiful streets, and the best street car service I have ever seen in any city.

This being election day the banks, stores and all business places are closed. The women vote in this state. This morning I passed several polling places where there would be a hundred or more people lined up voting in turn. There was no discrimination, the refined lady in silk rubbed clothes with the colored lady who gained her livelihood by the wash-board and tub. The strife is between the Republicans and the Populists; the Democrats are not in it in this state. Will write you again when I see and learn more about this country. Do not forget to mail the REPUBLICAN to No. 2163 Stout St., Denver, Col. Yours truly, F. M. MORGAN.

Epworth League Convention.

The fifth annual convention of the Epworth League, of the Franklin district of the Erie conference, comprising 23 chapters, closed its sessions in Titusville on Friday evening last at the Baptist church. There was a full representation of delegates in attendance and the proceedings were instructive and interesting.

District officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President—Lloyd Swisher, of Oil City. Vice Presidents—Rev. J. C. Clemens, of Petrolia; W. W. Dale of Tionesta; Marshall Hoovis, of Clintonville; M. Downing, of Tidoute.

Recording Secretary—Miss Stiefee, of Oil City.

Franklin was chosen as the next place for holding the convention.

The present convention was one of the most successful in the history of the district.

Mayburg News.

B. J. Andrews left for the Ohio oil field, where he will dress tools for his father.

Last Monday when Will Dushner lit the gas at his boiler house an explosion occurred burning his face quite severely. Spudding on No. 73 has begun.

The tools have been fished out of No. 18.

Gene Sutton was here calling on friends last week.

The frame work of the new mill at this place is completed, and work on the dam will begin in a few days.

J. L. Babb finished his new house at No. 14, and moved in a short time ago.

Stewart's Run.

Should this snow remain a number of us will be caught unprepared for it. Oil operators seem brisk just now. Messrs. McIntyre, Metcalf and Zahniser are building a big beyond Pleasantville, while three other parties are waiting on them to put up rigs: O. W. Proper, on Indian Camp; McIntyre & Siggins, on Hunter Run; and Stewart & Son, in this latitude.

J. G. Bromley, who has been running the lease on the Jostyn for the past year, had the misfortune to get his left hand caught in the pull wheel, last Friday morning, while hitching on a well. The third finger was broken and crushed quite badly, and the injury is quite painful.

James Cumings is talking of going to Erie this winter to take a course of studies at business college.

James and Matt McIntyre started for Mercer county Thursday to buy a horse. That is a good place to find good horses.

Rev. Shoup will not preach at the White church next Sabbath on account of quarterly meeting at Hickory on that day.

Postmaster George Dawson is moving a building into his father's yard to be used as a p. o.

The Woman's Missionary society of this place is sending a barrel of clothing, &c., to Miss Mary Everhart, of Olive Branch Mission, in Chicago.

NEWSY NOTES.

A reporter was shown, Saturday, a red raspberry bush, on which were several ripe berries. The wonders of the present season, as regards fruit ripening at an unusual time, seem to be innumerable.—Meadville Gazette.

A Sheriff's jury in Buffalo has declared H. D. Taylor, a well-known oil man, a person of unsound mind and incompetent to manage his affairs. His estate is valued at about half a million.—Franklin News. Mr. Taylor has since died.

A Polk correspondent writes to the Greenville Advance-Argus as follows: "Since work began on the new State buildings, the following new industries have been located: Barber shop, feed store, shoe store, ten-cent store and steam laundry agency. The new boarding house has been christened Hotel McGonigle, in honor of the well known anti-Polk agitator. The new buildings thirty-two in all, will be completed by early winter. The structure will be laid out in the form of a cross. The longer arm will be 1,348 feet. This will enable one to walk under cover for a quarter of a mile."
