

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

J. E. WENK, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1894

ALL other issues are gradually being sunk in the supreme question of what is to become of William Leffover Wilson.—Phila. Inquirer.

ONE of the queer incidents of the bond issue for the purpose of replenishing the gold reserve, is the withdrawal of gold from the reserve to buy bonds with.

It is understood in Maryland that Senator Gorman has gone to the Sulphur Springs to try and wash that sugary taste out of his mouth.—Phila. Press.

SOUTHERN Democratic newspapers are again referring to him as "Czar" Reed. They are in preliminary training for their annual tirade against Republican leaders.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND will, it is said, shut himself from visitors for some days next week. No doubt he wants leisure in which to study up big, bad, obsolete words with which to decorate his message and, incidentally, the Democratic Judaea in his party.

STRANGE, isn't it, according to Democratic report that with the business of the country moving so smoothly and prosperously under the Democratic free trade bill the Administration is compelled to issue to sustain the gold reserve? One is almost tempted to believe that somebody is lying.

CHEERING news from Washington—Secretary Carlisle is once more in thorough accord with the administration. This is a condition into which Mr. Carlisle relapses about once a week. It always occurs after a protracted and confidential talk, with transoms closed, with the occupant of the White House.

THE United States Deputy Marshals who were out in search of the Cook gang of desperadoes, but who held up their hands when one member of that gang commanded them to do so, were not in sight when twelve of the robbers rode to state through the town of Muscogee recently. Circumstances have changed the respective positions of the two parties in the last few days and the desperadoes are now looking for marshals.

MR. CLEVELAND in a speech at the Opera House in Providence, on April 2, 1892, speaking of the policy of protection, declared: "It has congested the Federal Treasury with a worse than useless surplus, inviting reckless public waste and extravagance." That surplus disappeared quickly when Mr. Cleveland took control, and now that he is making a second loan his supporters are trying to put the blame on the McKinley law. In the meantime, a Democratic Congress increased the appropriations beyond anything known before in the history of the Government.

THE President is credited with being at present engaged in the incubation of a new financial policy. It is to be hoped it will amount to something. Thus far President Cleveland has been mainly influential in depressing business and values and emptying the Treasury. He promised that the repeal of the Sherman act would bring better times and he pushed it through. Since then there has been a steady process of borrowing money and running up the national debt. Last month saw an increase of about $13,000,000 in the debt, and this month $50,000,000 more bonds are being issued. The Sugar tariff bill, which the Secretary of the Treasury assisted in writing, might have helped the Treasury if Mr. Cleveland had signed it when it passed. But he carried it in his pocket for ten days, long enough to allow the Sugar Trust to get in an enormous quantity of raw sugar free of duty and giving the Whisky Trust time to take a vast quantity of whisky out of bond and thus avoid the new tax. By Mr. Cleveland's course the Government lost and the distillers and refiners gained millions of dollars. The President's handy and opportune stubbornness was a gold mine for the whisky and sugar men, and they worked it up to the last hour.—Franklin News.

Pennsylvania's Official Vote.

The official returns have been received at the state department from all the counties of Pennsylvania, of the vote cast for state officers and congressmen-at-large at the recent election. The aggregate vote polled for governor was 952,885, of which Hastings received 574,801, and Singler, 333,404; Hawley, Prohibition, 23,443; Ailman, People's party, 19,464, and Grundy, Socialist-labor, 1,733.

Hastings plurality is 241,397; lieutenant governor, Lyon, Republican, 564,393; Riling, Democrat, 332,465; auditor-general, Mylin, Republican, 569,511; Magee, Democrat, 330,233; secretary of internal affairs, Latta, Republican, 568,700; Greenland, Democrat, 330,796.

Governor Hastings' Cabinet.

A Philadelphia dispatch under date of the 19th inst., says: Governor Hastings announced his cabinet this afternoon. It is as follows: Attorney General, H. Clay McCormick, of Williamsport; secretary of the commonwealth, Frank Reader, of Easton; insurance commissioner, James H. Lambert, of Philadelphia; adjutant general, Thomas J. Stewart, of Norristown; private secretary, Lewis E. Beidler, of Philadelphia.

The office of superintendent of banking is in doubt, but it is believed that it will be tendered to ex-State Treasurer John W. Morrison, of Allegheny. Col. Lambert, who will be the insurance commissioner, has for several years been political editor of the Philadelphia Press.

38th Senatorial District.

We do not have the official vote as cast for Senator in this district, but the following are the majorities given for each candidate:

Cameron	247
Clarion	110
Elk	797
Forest	519
Total	766	877
Hyde's Majority		111

THE Cleveland organs—and while the patronage holds out there will always be a few of them—are jubilantly asserting that the new bond issue will impart a healthy stimulus to trade. If an old mercantile house should borrow a large sum of money, and before even paying a year's interest on it, should be forced to make another large loan, the business of the firm would be regarded with suspicion, especially if the money were used to pay current expenses. That is precisely the condition of the Treasury. Borrowing money helps the bankers, who have more than enough idle surplus in New York, which they have been anxious to loan at 2 per cent., to take up all the bonds offered by Mr. Cleveland. It can well be understood how the bankers' newspaper organs should rejoice at this opportunity to invest their idle surplus at a larger rate of interest. But how this will help the people, who have to pay $25,000,000 in interest in the ten years this loan will run, would be difficult to discover.

The Armenian Massacre.

London, Nov. 19.—The Daily News correspondent in Constantinople says concerning the massacre of Armenians in the Sassoun district:

Sir Philip Currie sent Consul Hallward's report on the incidents at Sassoun to the Porte in order to indicate the serious nature of the events. The Porte instead of accepting this in a friendly manner, brusquely denies the facts, asserting that Mr. Hallward's report is untrue. It was insinuated or stated outright that he had encouraged the Armenians to revolt. This was of course ludicrous and absurd. Sir Philip Currie at once informed the foreign minister that he should take steps to verify his assertions. His energy surprised the Porte, who on Saturday withdrew the allegations against Hallward. The sultan ordered a commission of three military men and a civilian to make an immediate inquiry. From many sources confirmation of former reports of the massacre have been received. The utmost endeavors have been made to prevent the facts from becoming known. A number of Armenians who fled toward Trebizonde have been ordered to return.

It is claimed that from 6,000 to 10,000 men, women and children were horribly massacred in this fearful affair.

This is of Personal Importance to You.

We can and will save you money. This is an age of progress and advanced methods. There was a time when all a merchant had to do was to tack 25 to 50 per cent. profit on his goods and wait for his customers to come to him. Those times are past. Business cannot be done successfully in that way. Instead of the liberal profits of the past, we must have large sales and small profits. We've got to hustle for all we get, and we find that the only way to keep our trade constantly increasing is to undersell all competitors—give our trade better values than can be found elsewhere.

Where else can you find such values as these:
