Bold Attempt at Robbery.

Last night about eleven o'clock, as Jas. R. Morgan was about to close his store, which is located next door to the REPUBLICAN office, two men appeared at the front window. As he was about to take the money from the till and place it in his pocket, one of the men opened the door, and preenting a revolver at Mr. Morgan, demanded his cash. James dared him to shoot, at the same time reaching for a hatchet which lay conveniently near. This seemed to terrorize the loaded man and both he and his pal turned tail and ran down room was packed with a most enthusias- the street. The second fellow, who apparently had a club in his band, remained on the outside while the demand was made. Mr. Murgan was unable to recognize either of his visitors. F. R. Shryock, State Fish Commission er with Warden John E. Reynolds and the Iroqois Fishing club, are going to go about the improvements in the fishing in the Conneaut lake in a radical manner. It is proposed to drag the lake with an immense haif-mile sein and take out all the gar and carp that can be caught this way. The carp are considered a nuisance and the gar fish work destruction to all other fish. The work will be begun next spring.

The Western New York & Pennsyl a nia rallroad is to be sold in Pittsburg, February 5. The sale will be on a forceclosure made by the first mortgage bond holders. The line is to be bought in by the present security holders, and a reorganization will take place. Dead wood is to be topped off and steps taken to place the road on a paying basis. The road is an important outlet for the Allegheny Valley railroad, by way of Olean, to Buffillo and the North. It has 739 miles of line.

Mr. and Mrs. David Slocum, a wealthy couple living near Edinboro, Erle county, were robbed about midnight of the 15th inst, by a gang of masked burglars. Lard - . . . The burglars, six in number, attacked the house and broke down the door with a rail. Four of the gang entered the house and bound the aged couple in their bed, and then beat them into submission. The burglars set out to torture the couple into revealing the secret of their money vaults but just as the oil was being applied to Mr. Slocum's feet one of the burglars found a money chest. This and other hiding places showed up between $5,000 and $10,000 in gold and greenbacks The burglars escaped and the authorities are in pursuit. Mr. Slocum was badly eaten about the head.

Later-The parties supposed to have done the robery bave been run down and are safely jailed. They are Frank Anderson, a neighbor, and Frank Vanauler. Jeremiah Casey was arrested in Patterson, N. J., and John O'Connell was picked up in N. Y. The officers feel assured they have the right parties.

The Derrick tells the story of a Cherrytree farmer who was the victim of a new swindle a short time ago. A man whose grab indicated that he was clergyman, stopped at the farmer's house and asked whether he would find a hotel at Cherrytre village. He was told that there was no hotel there, and as the hour was late he was invited to stay all night with the farmer. Shortly after a man and woman drove up. The man said that he and his companion had started to came into the house, the knot was fied, certificate made out, and the farmer Dr. Bowers, the coroner, then made signed it as a witness. on early end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the grooves, firmly locking the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off. It positively prevents the loss of the watch by theft, and avoids injury to it from dropping. IT CAN ONLY BE HAD with Jas. Boss Filled or other watch cases bearing this trads mark— All watch dealers sell them without extra cost,

A watch case opener will be sent free to any one by the manufacturers. KeystoneWatch Case Co., PHILADELPHIA.
