THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 9, 1895.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

The Pennsylvania legislature met was effected without incident of note. On Monday evening previous the Re was unanimously nominated for Speaker.

The Democrats held their caucus on the same evening, nominating Andrew L. Fritz of Columbia. At noon, Tuesday, Jan. 1st, the retiring Chief Clerk, Charles E. Voorhess, called the House to order, the roll of members was called, nearly every member being present and answering to his name. Judge McPherson of Dauphin county, was invited to administer the oath of office to the members, a duty which was quickly performed.

The election of a speaker was accomplished about as rapidly as the roll could be called and the members could announce their choice. Mr. Walton received 174 votes, Mr. Fritz 28. The election of the other officers of the House did not occupy much time, and were as follows: Chief Clerk, A. D. Fetteralf, Montgomery; Resident Clerk, Jere B. Rex, Huntington; Reading Clerk, News. James E. Walkins, Lackawanna; message clerk, Forrest R. Nichols, Crawford. Other minor officers were elected in pursuance of the recommendations of the Republican slate committee.

The Governor's message was read in the House, occupying about one hour in its persual by the reading Grove. clerk. Many of the retiring Governor's recommendations are wise and and doubtless will be considered among the legislation to ted this winter. enate's organization was acshed without friction, Senator Wesley Thomas of Philadelphia, Clerk, a position which he has so burg Times. ably filled in the past. Both branches adjourned till this, Wednesday, evening at 8 o'clock. The inauguration of Governor Hastings takes place next Tuesday, when all the lawmaking power will be in proper running order, and if talk goes for anything the work of the legislature will be promptly done and an early adjournment bad.

"OLD PETE" TURNEY, who is now Governor of Tennessee, and who claims to belong to the "first families" in that neighborhood, is illustrating on a conspicuous scale the condition of morals that prevails in the Democratic party. This Turney was a candidate for re-election, but he was defeated by H. Clay Evans, the Republican candidate for Governor. There is no question as to the returns showing a majority for Evans, but notwithstanding this Turney proposes to hold on to the Governorship and have the Democratic majority in the Legislature go behind the returns and declare him elected instead of Evans This is the plan openly and brazenly avowed by the Democrats and their organs, and there is every probability Record. that it will succeed. These conspirators may not know it, but they are a good many years behind the times The public conscience has become sensitive concerning such transactions, as the Tennessee Democrats up their party with a disgrace that on the jury? they will not be able to wipe out in a generation.-Phila Press.

recommended by Mr. David A. Wells to the Democrats some time ago. It ought to be imposed. The breweries owned by English capital in this country are steadily making money, and there is every sign that the business is prosperous. Such a tax would give the Treasury nearly enough revenue, if the income tax yields as is expected -Phila. Press.

HILL and Cleveland have buried the batchet. Leastwise the badlylicked Senator called and took dinner with the President last week, and 'tis said they had quite a merry chat with each other, but it is not recorded that the Senator pounded his chest and appounced that "I am a Democrat!" though it may have happened "unbeknownce" to the keen reporter.

THE Woman's Christian Temperance union will present to every civilized government a petition with 4,000,000 signitures of 50 races in favor of the suppression of the liquor traffic. While the New Year resolutions are fresh is a good time to present it .- Pittsburg Times.

For the first time to 22 years a Mayor not of Democratic faith is at the head of the New York city government. William L Strong, who was on Jan. I inducted into the office, represents very much the same conditions and social elements that asserted themselves in 1872 in the in bi ennial session at Harrisburg on elevation of William F. Havemeyer the first inst., and the organization to the Mayoralty. In both instances there was a revolt against municipal corruption. Upon both occasions publican members held the usual public sentiment was chrystalized caucus, which was attended by nearly through the medium of a committee every member of that party, and of seventy, the main purpose in 1872 Henry F. Walton of Philadelphia, being to overthrow the Tweed regime, and in 1894 to correct abuses known or suspected in the police and other departments of the city government.

A Pittsburg physician sends to the Medical Reporter what he claims to be he simplest and and bost remedy for blecoughs of all descriptions, saying that he will put it against any and all devices s an effective cure. He says: "All you have to do is to lie down; stretch your ead back as far as possible; open your mouth widely; then hold two fingers above your head, well back, so that you have to strain the eyes to see them; gaze intently upon them, and take long full breaths. In a short time you will be relieved of that troublesome biccough. I have tried that cure on all sorts of cases, from simple form to chronic, and it works well with all. I remember it was given to a man on the way to New York to consult a specialist on his case-one of six months' standing-and it cured him in a few minutes."
