H. M. ZARNISER, Committee.

Oh, what a tickle, changin' thing This winter weather is! It blew, an' snow, and then it thaw, An' now, by jing, it's triz.

—Oil market 394. —You can get it at Barnett's. —Homer Ball drove up from Oil City Saturday night.

—H. J. Hopkins was over from Pleasantville Monday. —Mrs. Jane Grove is visiting relatives in Venango county.

—Miss Estella Tipton of Tidoute spent Saturday in Tionesta. —Now is the time to buy a dress cheap for cash at Lanson's. —Harry Klincstiver was down from Tidoute over Sunday.

—Rain all day Sunday and Monday—blizzard Monday night. —E. E. Clapp of President was a pleasant caller at this office yesterday.

—Evangelist Williams is still with us and is doing good work. Go and hear him. —Quite a noticeable falling off in the number of marriages in 1894. Hard times.

—Miss Sarah Anderson, who has been seriously sick for the past week is improving. —Mr. and Mrs. John Bigany of Tionesta are visiting relatives in the city. —Blizzard. —C. M. Shawkey of Warren was shaking hands with Tionesta friends Friday and Saturday.

—Everybody who can, should attend the meetings which are being held in the Presbyterian church. —Miss DeEtta Saul, for the past three weeks a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Robb, returned to her home in Tryonville, Saturday. —Call and see Landers & Wyman about delivering red oak bolts at Wyman's mill soon to be set near Cashup school house. —A Meadville lady wears a pair of felt slippers over her shoes to prevent herself from slipping.

—Henry Toothaker, of Hartford, Ct., and Miss Ague, of Utica, N. Y., were married in Greenville last week. What a wailing and a shaking and a gnashing of gums that union suggests.—Franklin News.

—W. S. Setley's house in upper Tionesta begins to show the appearance of a house and will soon be done. Several other new buildings are being talked of and Tionesta may have a building boom in the spring.

—Senator Hyde is on the following Senate committees: Banks and Finance; Constitutional Reform; Insurance; Judicial and Legislative Apportionment; Mines and Mining; Public Printing; Retrenchment and Reform.

—The report of the controller of Oil City shows the total bonded indebtedness of the city to be $87,000. The total debt of the city at the beginning of January 1895, was $127,979 12, while the total assets were $357,842 07.

—Harry McIntosh, an employe of Robinson & Weant's mill, very nearly dislocated his shoulder one day last week by a fall while carrying a load of boards. The injury has been a very painful one, but is rapidly getting better.

—Just a few words about clothing. We have a much larger stock than we want and are going to sell at most any price from this time to March 1st. Come in and see. The quality is as good as any, and price to suit the customer, at Lanson's. —It —Oil City and Franklin are bound to play ball, and if they can't play out of doors they will play basket ball in the house. A game between the Y. M. C. A. teams of those towns, in Franklin last Friday, resulted in a victory for Oil City in a score of 6 to 3.

—It is predicted in some of the papers of the state that there will be an effort made to change the present license law by the incoming Legislature. The important change proposed is to take the power to grant license from the judiciary and place it in the hands of County Commissioners or excoe boards.

—We are pleased to note that Burgess Dick Davis' health is so much better that he is able to resume his duties as clerk in Lanson's store. Fred Lay who has been working in Dick's place has returned to his home in Ripley, N. Y. Mr. Lay is a clever young gentleman and we are sorry that he was unable to remain in town.

—Frank McMichael, a former resident of near Lickingville, who is log jobbing near Salmon Creek, Forest county, had his leg broken about a week ago, while attempting to break a log jam, one of the logs suddenly slipping out of the pile and striking him on the right leg just below the knee joint.—Clarion Republican-Gazette.

—Next week we will begin a serial article, written by a local author, entitled "Reminiscences of Old Settlers." It will be a brief history of the early day of Forest county as remembered by a number of the older residents of this vicinity and will undoubtedly be very readable to old and young, and now is the time to subscribe. —An exchange says: "We recently heard of a lady who cured her husband of staying out late at night in this way: When she heard her husband, whose name was John, at the door, she whispered through the keyhole, 'Is that you Willie?' He stays at home every night now, and sleeps with one eye open, and keeps a revolver under his pillow."

—Lumbermen are slow to realize it, but the prices on hard wood are stiffening materially with a better demand. In hemlock inquiries are coming more freely and at Pittsburgh and Buffalo the signs point to increased business and consequently improvements in prices. Buffalo expects to see a good deal of building in the spring with Pennsylvania hemlock.—Bradford Era.

—James Gray, a Bradford man, has patented a process for making fuel and lighting gas from a company has been organized with a capital of $50,000, and is a corporation at National G. Limited, sit and "al gas an

—We are not going out of business neither are we going to leave the town. Because our customers are satisfied, we are satisfied, and will make prices you never saw before. Come in early. Ledeber & Miles, if —The interest in the meetings now being held in the Presbyterian church by Evangelist Williams is increasing. Already quite a number have expressed a desire to live for Christ and others are seriously considering the question. Rev. Williams is being assisted this week by Prof. J. G. Daily, the well known singer of Brockwayville, Pa. Large congregations are in attendance each evening.

—The minister of Forest Chapel, Sugar creek township, has evidently been converted or at least revived. He has announced a lecture to take place next week in which he says he will explain how he stole more money in the service of the Lord than he can pay back in seven years of hard labor. A crowd may be expected to attend the lecture from this city and all the surrounding country to get pointers. As a sensational preacher this divine is a cuckoo.—Franklin News.

—Representative Weenk of Forest county is a member of the Congressional Apportionment Committee of the House. It is gratifying to know that one member in this section of the State was appointed on that committee. Brother Weenk now has the opportunity to get Forest into a district which will be somewhat congenial to the Republicans of that county. That he will improve the opportunity to the best of his ability goes without saying. We wish him abundant success.—Kane Republican.

—Mrs. Olive Childs whose serious illness we mentioned last week, died at the home of her son, Ruben Childs, in Tionesta township, Tuesday, Jan. 22. Deceased was born in Vermont in 1828. She was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her, and had always been a true Christian. She will be taken to her former home in Townville, Pa., for interment, and the funeral will be held from the Baptist church of that place. She had been but a short time a resident of this vicinity, but in that time had gained many friends and was universally respected.

—The Pennsylvania Commissioners of Fisheries announce that they are now ready to receive applications for trout fry for liberation in the trout streams of the state. Application should be made for Erie, Warren, McKean, Potter, Mercer, Venango, Forest, Elk, Cameron and Crawford counties to Commissioner L. Streuber, of Erie, Pa. The distribution of fry will begin the latter part of March and continue through April, May and June. Persons desiring fry must have their applications endorsed by the State Senator or Representative from their district.—Blizzard.

—It is understood that Judge Henderson of Crawford county will preside at the January term of court in Venango county, which begins at Franklin next Monday. Judge Taylor, who has been confined to the house by illness for some time past, was sufficiently recovered as to be able to go before a justice on Monday to answer the information sworn out on the 7th inst. by M. M. Shoemaker, deputy sheriff of Venango county, charging him with assault and battery and attempt to shoot. The Judge waived a hearing and gave bail in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at court on Monday next.

—The Siggins-McIntyre well on Hunter run, which was abandoned a short time ago at the depth of six hundred and seventy feet, has been taken in hand by Grove Bros., who will drill the well eight or nine hundred feet deeper. That will be a very thorough test and ought certainly to settle the question of whether there is any oil in that vicinity. —Bradford Era.

—We are still living and would like to have the outside world know what we are doing. Business is lively in this vicinity. The sleighing is giving employment to many of the teams who are hauling man's mill. Wyman is moving from this place. Miss Belle Siggins accompanied

Violence and Bloodshed.

Monday morning, Jan. 14, the conductors and motormen of the Brooklyn Electric street railway went out on strike and as the company refused to comply with the demands of the strikers the latter resorted to violence to keep men from taking their places on the cars, and the trolley system of that city has been in a deplorable condition for the past week and very few cars have been run and it was unsafe for people to ride on those that did run, as the strikers stoned the cars and broke windows and injured a number of the new conductors and motormen, and matters kept going from bad to worse until Friday, when the militia was ordered out to protect the Company's property and the so-called "trolley boys." But these troops, not being able to handle the strikers, more troops were ordered to the scene and on Monday 7,000 National Guardsmen and 1,500 or 1,600 policemen were not able to control the strikers and make the resumption of the street railway practicable. Strikers assailed the cars and soldiers and policemen with stones and bricks from windows and vacant lots and at 5 o'clock Monday the soldiers were ordered to shoot, and to shoot to kill, but owing to the intense fog which prevailed it was impossible to tell just how many were killed or injured although it is reported that four men were seen to fall at this time. Quite a number of policemen and soldiers have been injured. Crowds numbering 20,000 people hung around the stations where the militia are posted and annoy the soldiers by jeering and pelting them. The soldiers charged on them in some places and quite a number were injured by being tramped upon and some slightly wounded by the bayonets. The executive board of District Assembly, No. 75, K. of L., which ordered the strike and is now conducting it, has been called before the grand jury.

—A large number of friends assembled at the residence of G. W. Osgood on Whig Hill to surprise Miss Matie McCray. On Thursday Miss McCray departed for Chicago. We wish her a safe journey. WILL WALKS.

Stewart's Run. Gaston & Wyman of Tionesta are moving their mill to Cashup, where they have bought a tract of timber. Rev. Williams preached in Tionesta for Rev. Shoop, Sunday evening. Philip Walters hurt his back one day last week while working in the woods. Bert Thompson will move to the Jamieson farm on the river next spring. We are sorry to lose so good a citizen. Miss Elsie Felton, Chas. Anderson and sister Anna, and Rev. Shoemaker of Tionesta were out to the meeting at the White church last Thursday evening. Last fall, when threshing, Harry Zahnizer got something in his eye and was unable to get it out. It had imbedded itself in the eye-lid, causing a fleshy growth. Last week Drs. Siggins and McGuire of Tionesta successfully removed the growth. The eye is now almost well. J. G. Bromley is housed up with a severe cold on his lungs and throat. James McIntyre's baby was improving at last accounts. U. S. Zahnizer and son, Tine, called on friends here on their way home from Pleasantville, where they had been to see Dr. Proper. Tine, we are glad to say, is improving. Michael Jones visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walters, Tuesday of last week. He is moving his farm tools, etc., to the farm he bought between Neil Pleasantville, last fall. Miss Belle Siggins accompanied

Rev. Wray and Whippo are conducting revival meetings in Proper & Myers' hall. The meetings may last two weeks if good results are obtained. The K. O. T. M. have decided to give their next ball on Feb. 22, instead of Jan. 25, as was intended. Rev. Father O'Hara visited Kellestville on Thursday and Friday, and on the latter morning celebrated mass at the residence of G. W. Chamberlain for the accommodation of the few Catholics who reside in this vicinity. Messrs. Willis and Charles Shaw and sister, Miss Josephine, drove up from Coal Hill on Saturday and visited their many relatives over Sunday. Miss Shaw expects to make her home in Kellestville for a few months with her aunt, Mrs. Elliott Shaw. Willis and Charles Shaw drove home Sunday, accompanied by their cousin, Lucian Shaw. A large number of the "shining lights" intend to give a sleighride party on Friday evening to Marienville. There will be ten or twelve couples go if the weather is favorable. One can hear the present cattle law being discussed in this section and if we are to judge, we would say that the law should certainly be repealed. Let us arise as one man and send in a rousing petition to our representative, with instructions to try and repeal the act. The law, perhaps, is very beneficial in the eastern part of the State, but here, where there are thousands of unbroken acres of land, it seems very unjust to enforce such a law. John R. Osgood is soon to erect his mill and commence the manufacture of hardwood lumber and bill stuff. The first carload of hard coal was brought to this place Friday, and those who are fortunate enough to possess a hard coal burner are right in town, now. L. Pierson and daughter, Jennie, visited at Wm. Grant's at Porkey, Sunday. Mrs. L. Pierson has been suffering for the past week with a swollen ankle, which was very much enlarged and for a time she feared erysipelas had set in, and on Friday she went to Tionesta for medical aid. She is much better now. A large number of friends assembled at the residence of G. W. Osgood on Whig Hill to surprise Miss Matie McCray. On Thursday Miss McCray departed for Chicago. We wish her a safe journey. WILL WALKS.

South Oil City was the scene of a shooting affray Friday afternoon that resulted in the death of a man named Henry Grimes. Grimes and his slayer, Silas S. Williams, got into a quarrel over a woman, generally known as Mrs. Clara Errington, though by some it is claimed that her rightful name is Mrs. Wedge and by others it is Mrs. Williams, the mix-up of names being attributable to the promiscuous matrimonial ventures of the female in question. It seems that Williams went to the house of the woman, by her request, and there found Grimes, who was drunk and pitched into Williams who drew a revolver and shot him with the above result. Grimes was a man about 25 years of age and has a mother and five brothers and two sisters in Batavia, N. Y., and during two years' residence in Oil City had gained an unenviable record as a scrapper and all round tough. Williams is 49 years old and came to Oil City in 1892, and claims that he was married to the Errington woman and he had befriended her, paid her bills, bought clothing for the children and helped her in many ways. Williams has been lodged in the Franklin jail to await his trial for murder. He claims that Grimes has repeatedly threatened to kill him, and that he shot in self-defense.

Tine, we are glad to say, is improving. Michael Jones visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walters, Tuesday of last week. He is moving his farm tools, etc., to the farm he bought between Neil Pleasantville, last fall. Miss Belle Siggins accompanied Stewart's Run.

Gaston & Wyman of Tionesta are moving their mill to Cashup, where they have bought a tract of timber. Rev. Williams preached in Tionesta for Rev. Shoop, Sunday evening. Philip Walters hurt his back one day last week while working in the woods. Bert Thompson will move to the Jamieson farm on the river next spring. We are sorry to lose so good a citizen. Miss Elsie Felton, Chas. Anderson and sister Anna, and Rev. Shoemaker of Tionesta were out to the meeting at the White church last Thursday evening. Last fall, when threshing, Harry Zahnizer got something in his eye and was unable to get it out. It had imbedded itself in the eye-lid, causing a fleshy growth. Last week Drs. Siggins and McGuire of Tionesta successfully removed the growth. The eye is now almost well. J. G. Bromley is housed up with a severe cold on his lungs and throat.
