They are still trying to find out whether the State Dairyman's association passed upon good butterine or poor butter.

Gov. HASTINGS has once more served notice on the extravagant appropriationists that they must come down or get pulled down.

The Secretary of the Interior has reversed the opinions of his law clerks. As Hoke by his own testimony knows little law and less equity, it is dollars to doughnuts the clerks were nearer right than he.

When one reads of a Florida man who was indicted seven times for murder, was acquitted six times and had decision in the seventh case reversed, only to kill once too often, so that he now awaits the death penalty, the provocation for lynching becomes painfully evident.

The House of Representatives occasionally gets gay, says an exchange. Recently one member offered a resolution that all drunkards be sent to the Keely Institute at the State's expense. He wanted to be funny, but if he is within hearing we would like to tell him that the State could not put its money to a better use.

Mr. GRESHAM discovered he had a little backbone at the nick of time, as the Spanish Minister at Washington was imitating the commander of the offending cruiser, being arrogant enough to suggest that the captain of the Alliance lied. Sackville West's mistake ought to warn verdant Ministers that they may go too far, even in a considerate republic.

Governor HASTINGS' appointment of Mr. Stubb to the position of Health Officer and his reappointment of Dr. Buening as Quarantine Physician will give general satisfaction. Mr. Stubb has been acting in local politics for a good many years, and he made a good record in the six years service as City Commissioner. Dr. Buening is a Republican though originally appointed by Governor Pattison. He is well qualified for the place, has discharged his duties acceptably and Governor Hastings has done well to retain him.—Phila Press

The lynching of a number of it alians in Colorado is one of the most dastardly crimes that ever occurred in this country. The victims were accused of murder and there was some damaging circumstantial evidence against them, but they were in custody and the full deserts of their crime, if they committed it, would have been meted out to them. The utter barbarism of attacking men so situated is only too evident. Colorado, although comparatively a new state, it was hoped was too intelligent and well governed a community to tolerate such outrages. The occurrences can only be explained by the claim that the virus of socialism and lawlessness planted by the Populists and watered by Governor Waite has had a vigorous growth. It will need years of good government to free the body politic from the poison.

UNCLE SAM UNEASY.

It does not take much to get up a scare over the condition of the Treasury nowadays. There are at the present time contingencies calculated to fill the heart of the national financier with forebodings. First there is the contingency of the Supreme Court deciding the income tax law unconstitutional, which means the cutting off of some thirty millions of revenue, and an increase of the deficiency to that extent. Second, there is the contingency that France will insist upon her discrimination against American meat products, and thus force a retaliation upon the part of this country, which will mean shutting out of French imports and the loss of millions of revenue thereby.

Third, there is the contingency of Japan receiving indemnity from China in a very large amount of money to be paid in gold, which means a new drain upon the yellow metal.

It is estimated that money indemnity which Japan will demand will amount to $250,000,000 to $300,000,000. If this is taken out of the world's general supply of gold there is a certainty that the United States will have to bear a share of the drain. After trouble experienced in getting a supply of gold into the Treasury vaults it is very disappointing to the officials to contemplate a possible new source of drainage.

The presumption is that China will borrow from European Governments the sum necessary to meet the war indemnity and it is thought she will have no serious difficulty in negotiating the loan. If, however, the arrangement calls for gold, the draft upon the market supply of that metal will be very heavy, causing the leading governments to look abroad for the wherewithal.

The ease with which the United States Treasury could be drained of half a hundred million of the precious money, as demonstrated by recent experience, is likely to present a strong temptation, it is feared, those who have given the matter thought feel well assured that the temptation would prove too strong to be resisted, and that the first move in the direction of negotiating the loan with China would be a vigorous drain upon the gold reserve of the United States Treasury.

In the remote contingency of Japan accepting payment in silver, a contingency which is said to be so vague as to be a bare possibility, the United States might be benefited by a revival of the silver mining industry. In that case it is thought the free silver advocates would take encouragement for the rehabilitation of silver as a monetary factor and an impetus would be given to the political efforts now on foot in behalf of silver.

DOINGS AT HARRISBURG.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Mar. 18, 1895. The past week has been a busy one in both branches of the legislature, and a large amount of legislation has been materially advanced on the calendars of both houses. Among the bills passed finally in the House, that prohibiting public school teachers from wearing any dress, insignia or emblems indicating the fact that such teacher is an adherent or member of any religious order, sect or denomination, known as the Smith "garb bill," provoked the greatest interest, and was warmly advocated and opposed by its friends and foes. On final passage the bill had 151 yeas and 20 nays. Six Democrats voted for the bill and twelve Republicans voted against it. There seems to be some question as to its passage through the Senate.

The compulsory education bill, which has passed the House, and has been favorably reported by the Senate committee, will undoubtedly become a law, as it is believed that Gov. Hastings will not view it as did his predecessor, Gov. Pattison.

The bill providing for the election of assistant assessors in boroughs and townships every three years, passed finally in the House and has gone to of triennial assessment where it was previous to the repeal of the former law on that subject. A bill authorizing school boards to appropriate funds from the school funds for the purpose of establishing and maintaining public school libraries, was killed on second reading.

The bill to establish a game and fish commission managed to squeeze through the House, but will have hard work getting through on final passage. The bill creates a useless expense and will be about as effectual in the protection and propagation of fish and game as all the other foolish laws, and no more so.

There was considerable talk on game and fish in the House during the week. There is nothing that will stir up such a hullabaloo in legislative halls as a game or fish bill, and when things get monotonous you have only to call up a bill of this kind and then sit back and enjoy the fun.

The bill introduced by Mr. North of McKean, prohibiting the killing of deer for five years passed second reading, and it looks as though the House would look upon the bill with sufficient favor to pass it finally. The writer had the bill amended, making the fine for violation $200 instead of $50, which it is hoped will be a sufficient terror to evil-doers to make them respect the law.

Apportionment talk is coming to the surface as the days go by. The judicial bill is being rattled over about every 24 hours, but the House bill is nearly complete, and while it does not give satisfaction to some, it has the merit of being pretty fair in the main features. Forest and Warren occupy their old position in the bill and will likely be together on the wind-up judicially. Jefferson is made a judicial district with Clarion attached. The present incumbent is to hold office till his term expires, during which time the district is to have two judges. After the expiration of Judge Clark's term one judge is to do the business, whose residence shall be Brookville.

It is hoped to get Forest fixed Congressionally and Senatorially, in Republican districts, also. The new deal in legislative apportionment is creating quite a kick on account of the loss to a number of counties of a Member of Assembly.

A bill has passed the House and gone to the Senate providing for the election of seven instead of six councilmen in boroughs, and gives the board the power to fill vacancies the same as is now enjoyed by school boards.

The bill providing for the purchase by the State of all county bridges which now span the streams that have been declared public highways, is on the House calendar, it having passed the Senate. Popular though the bill is with all parties, it is feared it should become a law that it would prove too severe a strain on the State's "strong box" at this time. But some day this will undoubtedly be done.

The bill doing away with one registry, introduced by Mr. Wilcox of Erie, has gone to the Senate. If successful in getting through that body only one registry will be necessary in future, and that fixed in June instead of May, as now.

The writer has introduced a bill amending the law relative to making returns of township elections. It was discovered at the recent spring elections that while the law allows return judges six cents per mile for taking the returns to the county seat, it distinctly says they shall have no daily pay. The amendment is for the purpose of curing this injustice, and if it becomes law will allow return judges $2.00 per day for this service. Another bill introduced by the writer has passed the House and is now on second reading in the Senate. It provides for the acknowledgment and recording of surplus bonds given at Treasurers' land sales.

If the legislative work advances as fast in the next few weeks as it has in the past ten days, both branches will be in fair shape for final adjournment the latter part of April, in which space they will have ample time to pass all the good legislation needed. Yet there is no judging by the length of a session by the good or bad measures that may be enacted, as it often takes more time to kill a bad bill than to pass a good one.

A bill for a more equitable distribution of the State appropriation of school funds introduced by Smith of Bedford, is on second reading in the House. It provides as a basis that one-third shall be given to the number of schools, and two-thirds to the number of taxables, and under the provisions fifty counties would be more or less benefited, while the other seventeen would be affected adversely. Unfortunately for the friends of the bill the seventeen counties that would lose are the ones with the large delegations, such, for instance, as Philadelphia, Allegheny, Chester, Luzerne, Lackawanna and others, and when they stand together against any measure, it is next to impossible to get it through. Forest county's increased proportion would be $3,403. No effort will be spared by the friends of the bill to make it a law. J. E. W.

Of Interest to Pensioners.

Capt. Skinner, the U. S. Pension Agent at Pittsburg, Pa., under date of March 6, 1895, was advised by the Commissioner of Pensions that it was not the intention of the Interior Department to issue increase certificates in any of the cases favorably affected by the act of March 5, 1895, which provides that all pensioners now on the rolls pensioned at less than six dollars per month, shall have their pensions increased to six dollars per month.

In order to facilitate the payment of the increase, Capt. Skinner was instructed by the Bureau to prepare and forward to each pensioner, the rate of whose pension has been increased by said act, a new voucher to take the place of that already sent out with the check for the January payment, to be executed by said pensioner on or after April 4, 1895, adding to the regular quarterly payment at the old rate the additional amount due each pensioner from March 2, 1895, under provision of said act, and requesting the pensioner to return the voucher already in his hands for cancellation.

This new voucher will be accompanied by a circular which should be attached firmly to the pension certificate in the possession of the pensioner, as the same must be exhibited to the officers before whom the vouchers shall be hereafter executed, in explanation of the difference in the rate expressed in future vouchers and that contained in the pension certificate. All officers including fourth class postmasters, who are authorized to administer oaths in the execution of pension vouchers, as well as the pensioners affected by said act, should read carefully these instructions.

—On Washington's birthday, February 22, John W. Hasl, of Coal Spring, a deaf mute, but nevertheless a bright man in many respects, able to transact business and take care of his personal interests, was united in marriage with Miss Regina J. Manner, of Marion Centre, Indiana county, Pa., a lady similarly afflicted with himself. There will not be much back talk in that household.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being, at least. I tried the so-called "Keely Cure," "No-To-bacco," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICK.
