Invitations have been sent to members of the family all over the country and a large attendance is expected. An elaborate program has been arranged and the day will undoubtedly be thoroughly enjoyed by all.

—How dear to our hearts is the old silver dollar, when some kind subscriber presents it to view; the liberty head without necktie or collar, and all the strange things that to us seem so new; the wide spreading eagle, the arrows below it, the stars and the words with the strange things they tell, the coin of my fathers, were glad that we know it, for some time or other 'twill come in right time—the spread eagle dollar, the star spangled dollar, the old silver dollar we all love so well.—Manchester Herald.

—A dispatch from Tacoma, Wash., says that five prophets have appeared in that city who declare that the world is coming to an end in 1897. They have issued a warning to the people to beware of a false Christ, who will arrive about that time. Price are Rev. Mr. Jefferson, Rev. Mr. Tracy, H. C. Leuters, Henry Haker and Mrs. Cliff, all evangelists. They declare that nine-tenths of the human race will perish miserably by war, plague, famine, pestilence, earthquake and hail during the next five years. Christ will come with his bride and Satan will be sealed up in a bottle for one thousand years. Heaven will hang in mid-air at that time. They have seen hell, it is six thousand miles across and long enough to hold all sinners.

—It is with much regret that we are compelled to announce the sudden and unexpected demise of the second wife of Jacob Siggins of Harmony, Butler county, Pa. She was brought to this place for internment in Riverside cemetery on train 3, Monday afternoon, and the remains immediately interred, the funeral services being conducted in the M. E. church by Rev. W. W. Dale, immediately after the burial. Mrs. Siggins' maiden name was Edith C. Morse, the eldest daughter of Wm. Morse of Asheville, N. Y., and she was 25 years, 1 month and 17 days old. Death came to her in the springtime of life as well as in the springtime of nature. She leaves a husband and two children to mourn her untimely death. The heartfelt sympathy of the community at large is extended to the bereaved husband.

—"Davy" Hillands has in his possession a copy of the Bigs-rings, (Neb.) Gazette, containing a thrilling episode of the extermination of "Joe" Collins' gang of train robbers who committed the daring train robbery of Sept. 17, 1877, when $60,000 in gold coin was taken from an express car of a Union Pacific R. R. This piece of history is interesting to our readers because the man who "traced the gang down" was no less a personage than M. F. Leech, who was born in Tionesta, Nov. 24, 1850, and will be remembered by many of our citizens. Mr. Leech left here when but fifteen years of age and went to Meadville where he became a hotel clerk, but that was too "tame" a life for him and he afterward went south where he became an engineer on the Nashville and Lebanon R. R. in Tennessee, and while there the spirit of adventure took possession of him and he left the railroad to aid in hunting the moonshiners in the Tennessee mountains. After many adventures here he went west and after being employed at different occupations of a thrilling nature he became employed by the U. P. R. R., as a detective, succeeded in bringing many a criminal to justice, and gained a world-wide reputation. We would be pleased to publish all the details, but lack of space will not permit us. Mr. Leech is now engaged in mining ventures, and has given up pursuing train robbers as a business. His present home is at Boulder, Colo., where he has a wife and six children.

Death of Dr. M. H. Maguire.

Dr. Michael H. Maguire, who had been in ill health with pulmonary disease for some time past, mention of which has previously been made, started for the west last week to visit his brother and try to regain his health, but the exertion of the journey proved too much for him and he met an untimely end on the cars about 100 miles west of Chicago last Friday.

Dr. Maguire came to Tionesta a little over three years ago and opened a dental office, and had gained an enviable reputation as a dentist and built up a large practice. He was well known throughout Forest and Warren counties as a genial, wholesome fellow and was universally liked, and the news of his sudden demise was a shock to the community.

He was a Knight of Pythias and an Odd Fellow. The funeral services were held at his home at Tidoune in St. John's Catholic church Monday morning, and a large concourse of friends were in attendance, quite a number going up from this place.

Death is always sorrowful, come in what form it may, to the old as the young, it is invariably accompanied by heartaches, grief and sadness. But when the one summoned is a young man, on the threshold of a brilliant and useful career, with the brightest of prospects for the future, it seems peculiarly sad. Though young in years—being 26 years and 6 months of age—he had exhibited all the characteristics which commend young men to favorable consideration in any community. There was nothing ostentatious in his make-up. He was kind, considerate, generous and manly.

The sorrowing relatives have the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

West Hickory.

The Demorest Silver Medal contest held in Whitens hall, Saturday evening, under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., was a success in every particular. The hall was filled to overflowing, and the program was neatly arranged and perfectly carried out. A duet by Misses Swanson and Palmer of Tidoune was followed by Contestant No. 1, Miss Jennie Wilson, who treated the subject of the Bible and the "Ten Commandments" in a very creditable manner indeed. No. 2, Miss Augusta Shaffer, recited, "A Voice From The Poor House." Miss Shaffer's recitation was a duet followed by general effect, a duet followed by a recitation by Miss Cora Tremaine recited, "A Tower of Silence." Miss Tremaine's recitation is one of the best. No. 4, Miss Alice Siggins, secured the medal by an able recital of "The Drink Wolf and the Faithful Hound." A duet by the Tidoune vocalists, followed. No. 5, Miss Blanch Woods gave the Deacon's Sunday School Sermon, in a very pleasing manner. No. 6, Miss Flora Osgood, presented an excellent effect with the subject, "A Glorious Moment." The solo that followed, rendered by Miss Swanson, was very well received. "An Appeal to Americans," as recited by Miss Bertha Green, was most commendable. "Friends of the Nation," as spoken by Miss Pearl Green, was appreciated by all.

To make a long matter short, the work of the contest was beginning to end with a high character and fully demonstrated the fact that the subjects were taken, and that no pains had been spared along the line of training. The scenes of living pictures presented were well received. The presiding officer, Mrs. Orion Siggins; the Supt of Contest Mrs. Mary Abbott; and Miss Edith Green, who had the class in training, also deserve special commendation for the faithful performance of duties along their special lines.

TEXT OF THE FARR BILL.

The Compulsory Education Measure in the Shape in Which it Awaits the Governor's Signature.

An act to provide for the attendance of children in the schools of this Commonwealth, and making an enumeration of the children of this Commonwealth, and providing compensation for the assessors making the enumeration and providing penalties for its violation.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that every parent, guardian or other person in this Commonwealth having control or charge of a child or children between the ages of eight and thirteen years shall be required to send such child or children to a school in which the common English branches are taught, and such child or children shall attend such school during at least six weeks of each year in which schools in their respective districts shall be in session, unless the child or children shall be excused from such attendance by the board of the school district in which parent, guardian or other person resides, upon the presentation to said board of satisfactory evidence showing and agreeing to be prevented from attending school or application to study by mental or physical or other urgent reasons; provided, that in case there be no public school in the district within two miles of the nearest traveled road of any person within the school district, he or she shall not be liable to the provisions of this act unless such child or children shall not apply to any child that has been or is being otherwise instructed in the common English branches of the school for a like period of time as provided further, that the certificate of any principal of any school or educational institution, or of any teacher, that such child has been or is being so instructed, issued to such child or its parent or guardian, shall be sufficient and satisfactory evidence thereof.

Section 2. For every neglect of duty imposed by the first section of this act the person in parental relation offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be liable to a fine not exceeding two dollars on the first conviction and a fine not exceeding five dollars for each subsequent conviction; provided, upon conviction the defendant or defendants may appeal to the court of quarter sessions of the peace of the proper county within thirty days after entering into recognizance to the surety for the amount of fines and costs; provided, however, that before such appeal is made the parent, guardian or other person liable therefor shall be notified in writing of such liability, and shall have opportunity by compliance with the requirements of this act to pay the same and to avoid the imposition of said penalty. The fines provided for by this act shall, when collected, be paid by the officers collecting the same into the county treasury, and shall be applied to the use of the proper school treasurer of the city or school district in which such person convicted resides; to be applied and accounted for by such treasurer in the same way as other moneys raised for school purposes; such fines shall be collected by a process of law similar to the collection of other fines.

Section 3. If deemed necessary for the better enforcement of the provisions of this act, boards of school directors or school controllers in cities, boroughs and townships may employ one or more persons, to be known as attendance officers, whose duty it shall be to look after the enforcement of this act, and to apprehend and place in such schools as persons in parental relation may designate truants and others who fail to attend school with due accuracy. The provisions of this act shall be construed so that attendance officers shall be entitled to such compensation not exceeding two dollars as shall be fixed by the boards appointing them, and such compensation may be paid out of the school fund. Boards of school directors or controllers may employ separate school officers in public school buildings for children who are habitual truants, or who are insubordinate or disorderly during their attendance upon instruction in the public schools.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the assessor of voters of every district at the spring registration of voters, or as soon as possible thereafter, to file a substantial book provided by the county commissioners for that purpose a careful and correct list of all children between the ages of 5 and 13 years, if within his district, giving the name, age and residence of each, and whether in charge of a parent, guardian or other person, together with such other information as may be deemed necessary, with enumeration shall be returned by said assessor to the county commissioners of the county in which the enumeration was made, whose duty it will be to certify it to the secretary of the proper school district, who shall immediately furnish the principal of each school with a copy of the list of all children in his or her district who are subject to provisions of this act. And the said assessor shall be paid a per centum upon the total value of the property in his district, or such other sum equal to the compensation paid under existing laws for assessors of election, said service not to exceed ten days.

Section 5. It shall be the duty of each teacher in the school district to report immediately to the secretary of the board of directors or controllers, and to the assessor of voters, on the first day of each month, the names of all children on the list previously furnished by the secretary who were absent without satisfactory cause for five days during the month for which the report is made, when, if it shall appear that any parent, guardian or other person having control of any child or children shall have failed to comply with the provisions of this act, after due notification in writing as provided in Section 2, the secretary or attendance officer, if there be one, in the name of the school district, shall proceed against the offending party or parties, in accordance with law, by complaint before any alderman or justice of the peace; and if it shall appear that the requirements of this act, the cost of said proceedings shall be paid out of the district funds upon a proper voucher approved by the board of directors or controllers.

Section 6. The secretary or attendance officer, if there be one, of any board of directors or controllers who refuses or neglects to comply with the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before an alderman or justice of the peace shall forfeit a fine not exceeding twenty-five dollars.

Section 7. All laws or parts of laws inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.
