LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market $1.55. Geo. Raab was up from Oil City Friday.

Where were those April showers this year? Geo. Holeman is building an addition to his house.

H. W. Carr of Chicago is visiting friends in town. D. Barnett of South Oil City was in town Monday.

There are one hundred prisoners in the Cambria county jail. J. R. Osgood went to Buffalo Monday on a business trip.

W. D. Becklin of Tidouste was in town on business Monday. Bakers in Rochester, N. Y., are selling bread at one cent a loaf.

Miss Mattie Waterman is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Z. T. Shriver. Just arrived at Lanson's—three cars of food. Enough for the whole county.

Miss Maude Campbell is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. G. McKnight, of Oil City. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Park Grove, Sunday, May 5, 1895, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Weaver and children spent Sunday at Lucinda, Clarion Co. The creek and river are at a remarkably low stage for this season of the year.

Proper Bros. have located a wild cat well on Fleming Hill, Harmony township. Gents' fine shirts at Lanson's in any style you desire, and at prices that can't be beat.

The green is fast getting back in the trees and it makes ones heart glad to see it once more. Sam Braunschwerger of Oil City was a pleasant caller at the REPUBLICAN office Tuesday evening.

The New York legislature has made Lincoln's birthday, February 12, a legal holiday in that state. Miss Rose Sprague of Buffalo, N. Y., is spending a few weeks with Mrs. M. Andrews at Kellestville.

H. H. Shoemaker has broken ground for his new residence to be erected in the north ward this summer. School is out and the small boy happy—fishing is good and the water will soon be warm enough for swimming.

Flora Walters & Co. are still doing a rushing business in spring millinery. Call early, while the stock is large. It has been proven conclusively that no bicycle can carry a man and a "jag" at the same time.—Kane Republican.

G. W. Jamieson of Lebanon, Pa., was in town last week on a visit to his brother, County Treasurer Q. Jamieson. You will have to hurry if you want one of those pretty baby bonnets. Only 15 cents at Flora Walters & Co.'s.

Messrs. Wright and Keilg of Oil City, the well-known friscoers and sign writers, are repairing the ceiling of the Court House. Rev. S. F. Marks, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Tidouste came down on his wheel Monday and spent a few hours in town.

The upward tendency in the price of all kinds of lumber is making lively times for manufacturers and dealers generally. Jake Siggins returned to his home at Harmony, Butler Co., yesterday, after a short visit with friends and relatives in town.

The Sires photograph gallery will be open every Thursday until further notice and will be managed by Mr. R. H. Tuthill. Sam Q. Clark started Saturday for Colorado on a three months' vacation. We wish Sam a pleasant trip and a safe return.

There are some people whose religion wouldn't fool the most credulous person on earth; but they expect the Lord to swallow it. Charlie Andrews was in town the last of the week on his return from a pleasure trip through Venango and Mercer counties.

—Mrs. Andrew Carr, who has been troubled for some time past with a tumor, which has been growing on the second toe of her right foot, was compelled to have the toe amputated last Wednesday. The operation was successfully performed by Drs. Siggins and Bowman. Mrs. Carr is getting along nicely.

—Remember the elocutionary entertainment to be given at the Court house next Saturday evening, May 11, under the auspices of the Epworth League. Mr. Lindsay has been heard in Tionesta before and he is known to be a fine elocutionist, besides, the entertainment is for a good cause.

—The happiest man in the world is he who has the fewest wants. Every man should educate himself to live on a narrow basis of desires, for as his desires be many and his gratifications few, he needs be miserable. But if his gratifications always exceed his desires, then he may always wear a grin.—Es.

—The Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania are preparing to dedicate their $500,000 temple at Philadelphia. The services will be held May 21, when there will occur perhaps the greatest parade ever seen in Philadelphia. There are in the state about 110,000 Odd Fellows, of whom the officers say 50,000 will participate in the march.

—It is with much regret that we are compelled to chronicle the serious illness of County Superintendent G. W. Kerr, who was stricken down a week ago last Sunday with renal colic, but after being relieved of this painful disease he became troubled with inflammation of the parotid glands, one of the salivary glands situated just in front of or below the ear, which has resulted in the formation of a very large and dangerous abscess. He is under the care of Drs. Siggins and Bowman, and Dr. Ritchey of Oil City was up on Monday. His condition at the present time is extremely dangerous, and it is hoped that he will soon get relief.

—Starting, if true, is the report that twenty-five young women of Youngtown, O., have organized themselves into a club to wear bloomers and do other things in the way of promoting ideas of dress reform. The young women are prominent members of society, and it is expected that others will follow their example. —Clarion Democrat. The time will soon be here when a fellow will go home in the evening after a hard day's labor, but with his soul filled with rapture because of the expectation of spending a delightful evening with his best girl, and find that his sister has gone off on a drunk and is wearing his bran new summer pants.

Mary Casey, Earny Lusher, Willie Nurs, and Charlie Demery each missed one day. S. M. WHITMER, Teacher.

—The date for the school entertainment has been fixed for Friday evening, in the Court House. A great deal of pains has been taken to make this entertainment surpass all previous efforts and the program that has been arranged is a good one and any one who does not intend will surely miss a treat. The program consists of solos, duets and quartettes. As the graduating class of the school consists of only two members this year—Misses Blanche Hunter and Minnie Reek—no regular commencement exercises were held at the close of the school, and the young ladies will be presented with diplomas at the close of the entertainment. Come out everybody and help to increase the fund for the school library.

—While Jeff Grove and Jared Huling were coming down the hill across the river, on their return from the Cherry Run mineral spring they espied a large rattlesnake crossing the road. After Jared had killed his snakeship it was found to measure three feet and six inches in length, and carried thirteen rattles. This is the first rattler that we have heard of this season and is a pretty good sized one for a starter.

—The Huntington Herald gets around the long and short of the whole thing in this style: "It is said that a tall girl named Short, was once promised to a big man named Little, while Little little thinking of Short, loved a little lass named Long. To make a long story short, Little proposed to Long and Short longed to be even with Little's short-comings. So Short meeting Long threatened to marry Little before Long. Query: Did tall Short love big Little less before Little loved Long?"

—The long-drawn, tedious contest over the judgeship election in Indiana county, Pa., between Judge Harry White and John P. Blair, has ended by a decision in favor of White. The tribunal has declared White elected by 128 votes. This is 41 votes more than the majority allowed White by the original election return. The costs, which are to be paid by Indiana county, are very heavy. There were between 2,000 and 3,000 witnesses. The stenographer's fee amounted to $1,970.—Franklin News.

—Last Thursday May 2, at the home of the bride's parents on German Hill, occurred the happy marriage of Edward E. Youngk, son of County Commissioner Youngk, to Miss Anna Vockroth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Vockroth, Rev. Otto Kubitz officiating. The young couple are both highly esteemed by all who know them, the bride being one of the most beautiful and gracious young ladies in the county, while the groom is an exemplary young man. Immediately after the wedding the happy couple departed for Erie on a short wedding trip. They will be tendered a reception at the home of the groom on their return next Friday evening, and a large number of guests are expected to be in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Young will make their home at Wilkinsburg in the future where Mr. Youngk will work at the carpenter trade. The REPUBLICAN joins the community in wishing the young couple joy in their future life.

—Dates in the month of April seem to have figured prominently in the history of the United States. Did you ever notice that in April took place three events of immense consequence in this country? On April 19, 1775, was fired "the shot that was heard around the world," the opening gun at the battle of Lexington, which ushered in the revolution. April 17, 1861, another shot "echoed around the world"; it was the greatest international struggle in modern history. April 9, 1865, occurred the surrender of Lee to Grant at Appomattox.

—The extremely dry weather for the past few weeks has caused more destructive forest fires in Western Pa. than has ever been known of before and millions of dollars have been lost. In the lumber regions every man that could be procured has been engaged in fighting fire. It is impossible to make a summary of all the different losses for our space will not permit. The welcome rain of yesterday has done a wonderful amount of good both in the way of extinguishing fires and in starting the crops which have been planted, and the outlook is now more pleasant.

To the Voters of Forest County.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—

I noticed in your last edition a statement that I had reported throughout the county that A. J. McCray, my opponent for the nomination for Associate Judge, was not a citizen of Forest County, as I then believed. I did so represent, on the authority of the city directory of Titusville, Pa., from which I make the following extracts: Titusville directory of 1890-91, page 71; McCray, Andrew J., lumber Mfr., res. 192 E. Main; directory 1893, McCray, A. J., lumber, house 192 E. Main; directory of 1894, McCray, A. J., lumber, house 192 E. Main; directory of 1895; McCray, A. J., lumber, house 71, N. Brown.

This was the basis on which I made said representation, and since seeing the article in last week's REPUBLICAN I have taken the pains to go to Titusville and investigate, and I find that his household goods are still in his residence at 71 N. Brown St. I also have a statement from fifteen prominent citizens of Titusville, including J. T. Hemphill, the register and assessor of the ward in which Mr. McCray resides.

Following is the statement of prominent citizens of Titusville. We, the undersigned citizens of the city of Titusville, Pa., are acquainted with A. J. McCray, and regard him as an honorable and upright citizen and resident of our place. We believe he is engaged in the lumber business in Forest county, part of his time. Titusville, May 4, 1895.

I have copies of the above described directory, and the statement in my possession and will be pleased to show same to any person interested. It has also been ascertained that my opponent, Mr. McCray, was exonerated from taxation in this county in 1893, and any person who has any doubt about the matter can find the same by looking at the records.

I understand that my opponent is doing considerable talking about my marking his name off the tickets which I have been circulating throughout the county, and claiming that I have no right so to do. I claim that he is wrong, as the tickets which I have been circulating are mine, and are not the tickets sent out by the Chairman of the County Committee.

I notice in a copy of the last edition of the Marienville Express, that Mr. McCray has published in part, the same notice that appeared in the last REPUBLICAN, but omits to state that it is his intention to become a resident of Tionesta, in the event of his election, where the services of an Associate Judge are frequently required when there is no court.

The people of Forest county can draw their own conclusions from the foregoing statement. Very resp'y yours, S. S. CAMPFIELD, Proprietor.
