Clyde, N. Y., Times, under the heading of "A Good Show," says: "The residents of Clyde and surrounding country were given a rare treat Monday, when Chas. Lee's London show exhibited here. The street parade was extremely fine, and the ring performance had the old-time dash and favor. There were many new and pleasing features. The troupe of Japanese acrobats were astonishing, the riding was superb, and the coterie of athletes the finest ever seen here, and their marvelous feats surpassed anything we have ever seen with any show. We assure Lee's circus a warm welcome from all our citizens whenever it comes to Clyde, for it is conducted by gentlemen, and no fakirs, gamblers or other objectionable features were allowed." The great London circus will exhibit at Tionesta, Monday, June 23, afternoon and evening.

Go to Miles & Armstrong for G. A. R. suits. They can fit you and will sell you goods that will not change their color.

The only lady superintendent of public schools in the state of Pennsylvania is Miss Aggie Kerr, appointed Tuesday of this week to fill out the unexpired term of the late Supt. G. W. Kerr, of Forest county. The schools of little Forest will be well cared for. The Jacksonian lifts its editorial hat.—Clarion Jacksonian.

We are grieved to announce the sad death of Isabel, the young daughter of Hon. N. P. and Mrs. Wheeler, which occurred at their home in Tidouche on Monday last week of Bright's disease, and was buried on Wednesday. The sympathy of their many friends in Forest county is extended to the bereaved parents.

Do you want to make $5,368,909.13? It's easy. Just deposit one penny in the bank the first day of the month, on the second day deposit two pennies, on the third day four pennies, and so on, day after day, doubling your deposit each day until a year has rolled round. You will then be surprised to find that you have over $5,000,000 to your credit.—Er.

Fire at Kane on Thursday night last destroyed one of that elevated little town's most important manufacturing plants, the clothes pin factory. The loss was $12,000. Insurance $5,000. This is the second time the plant has been burned and the chances are it will not be rebuilt. Charles Evans and Deenie Davis, two firemen were quite severely burned.—Derrick.

About 1 o'clock Monday morning the family of John Holtz, living at the west end of the village of Pleasantville, was awakened by the crackling of burning wood and found the roof on fire and almost ready to fall. They escaped with their clothing, but the furniture, household goods and building were destroyed. The loss is fully covered by insurance.—Derrick.

It is by no means improbable that before the close of the present week a sensation will develop in Chautauque county. It is understood by a few who are on the inside that sufficient evidence has been found against a resident of that section to warrant his indictment on the charge of murdering Mrs. Shearman and her daughter, Mrs. Davis, crimes committed nearly five months ago.—Buffalo Times.

Among the "coming women" seen yesterday, says the Buffalo Courier, was one on horseback who rode in the most approved man fashion. She was arrayed in trousers, and the tails of her tight fitting habit reached her ankles. At the front she dismounted and for a while watched the ice going down the river. When ready to start she placed one foot on the stirrup, threw a blooming leg over the saddle just like "any other man," and dashed away.

We failed to mention last week the first appearance of the Oil City Sunday Derrick which came out May 19. The paper has an able corps of workers in its several departments, and if it keeps up its record made in its first and second issues it will hustle its Sunday contemporaries in this part of the State. It is a credit to its publishers, and is really the only Sunday paper which comes to this place that gives all the late base ball and sporting news up to Sunday morning.

Every feature one of merit. The Advocate, Coudersport, Pa.: "The Chas. Lee's circus exhibited here last Thursday as per announcement. The weather was lovely and the people turned out, filling the mammoth tents to their utmost capacity. The performance was extremely fine, every feature being one of merit." The best show ever in Coudersport is the expression of all who witnessed it. Mr. Lee is to be congratulated upon the decorum of his employees." This show will appear in Tionesta, Monday, June 23.

Denmark's police when they find a drunken man on the street summon a cab, place him inside and drive to the police station, where he is detained until sober. Then he is driven home, the police never leaving him until he is safe in his family. The cabman then makes his charge, the police surgeon his, the constables theirs, and this bill is presented to the proprietor of the establishment, where the culprit took his last and overpowering glass. This system is tending to reduce the appalling drunkenness which formerly prevailed in Copenhagen.

Dr. and Mrs. Towler were married twenty-one years ago Tuesday, and as the doctor is attending a meeting of the State Medical Association at Chambersburg this week, he arranged for Mrs. Towler, Miss Maude and Harry to accompany him, and thus celebrate the event by a trip and sight-seeing.—About half the male population of this place were over to Tionesta the first of the week attending court. License court took the most of them over, and they went on a fake subpoena at that. It was a boom for the Tionesta hotel keepers.—Marienville Express.

Joseph F. Matt, son of the late Lorez Matt, the renowned piano tuner and repairer, of Buffalo, N. Y., who has been with the first class piano manufacturers in Boston and New York, and who has also had many years experience in tuning and repairing, begs to announce that he is about taking up his late father's tuning route. Those procuring his services may expect the same high grade of workmanship and fair treatment as has been given by the late Lorez Matt, and he respectfully solicits the patronage of all in need of such work. He will be in town within a few days.

Memorial Day Program.

Thursday, the 30th day of May, is approaching, and for the proper observance of the day Capt. George Stow Post formulates by its committee the following report:

It has been, in times past, customary to have memorial services at the M. E. Church, Tionesta, on Monday, May 29th, at 11 o'clock, a. m., which services will be conducted by Rev. W. W. Dale. All are invited to attend.

On the morning of the 30th, Stow Post will start for Zuendel church and conduct services there at 9 o'clock; at 10 o'clock conduct services at Bartholomew church; after which they will return to Tionesta. The Sunday School teachers and children are expected to act as a committee on flowers and sing appropriate odes during the exercises.

At 12 o'clock sharp, the post will march for the cemetery from their headquarters and Sunday Schools will fall in line, opposite the respective churches, when a place in line will be assigned them. The children of the Sunday School are hereby constituted a committee on flowers.

Ceremonies at the cemetery will be conducted according to the ritual. After which the Post and people will assemble at the Court House, where they will be addressed by Rev. I. A. Hume, Chaplain of Pleasantville Post, Rev. W. W. Dale, Rev. J. V. McAninch, and others, and odes and songs will be sung by prominent local singers.

The following persons are detailed to decorate graves as follows: At Mt. Zion—Comrades Mong and Fenstermaker. Newmansville—Coms. David R. Walters, Srath, Stacey and Keefer. Leekingville—Coms. Keefer, Smith and Moses Mealy.

These comrades will perform their duties in the forenoon and endeavor to reach Tionesta in time to participate with us in the afternoon exercises here. We cordially invite Eli Berlin Post and band, and all other orders to take part with us during the day.

All soldiers are expected to meet with us at our headquarters and fall in line. Capt. Knox is appointed Marshal of the day.

After returning from the cemetery the following will be the exercises at the Court house, which closely follows the Public Service book of the G. A. R., adopted.

- 1. Music by band.
2. Reading of Memorial order by Adjutant Morrow.
3. Ode by choir, Where sleep our heroes brave.
4. Commander's address.
5. Ode, After the last long battle.
6. Scripture, G. A. R. and the Flag, C. A. Hill.
7. W. R. C. Ritual, Flag drill salute by thirteen young misses dressed in National colors.
8. Ode, Freedoms Banner.
9. The Navy, S. V. Setley.
10. Music by band.
11. The Army, J. V. Smith.
12. Peace, by O. D.
13. Ode, Flowers We Bring.
14. The Nation and its Dead, Chaplain.
15. Ode, Sleeping in their Tents Tonight.
16. Victory, Chaplain.
17. Prayer, Rev. H. Rhodes.
18. America, Ode.
19. Address by Rev. J. A. Hume, Chaplain of Benedict Post.
20. Male Quartette, Now Again We Gather Here.
21. Address by Rev. W. W. Dale.
22. Ode, Let the Hills and Valies respond.
23. Recitation, Battle of Waterloo, T. F. Ritchey, Esq.
24. Ode, Wrapt in his Blanket.
25. Music by band.

The odes for the most part, are the very latest and best of Memorial Day music. The selections by the band also are carefully selected. Lunch will be served to all veterans, their families and musicians by the W. R. Corps at their hall between 12 and 1:30 o'clock, before the march to the cemetery.

All other arrangements in general program.

S. J. SETLEY, SAMUEL D. IRWIN, D. S. KNOX, Committee.

Court Proceedings.

Very little was done in the court last week besides what we gave in last issue, with the exception of the granting of all the licenses but that of Sylvester Wilkinson, Delmore House, Clarion, Jenks township. This license was refused, although no one seems to know exactly why.

The case of the Salmom Creek Lumber Company, vs Tionesta Lumber Company was settled. All other civil cases were adjourned as before stated.

The case of Com. vs Con Conley, charge f. and b., resulted in a verdict of f. only, and defendant paid a fine of $10 and costs of prosecution.

Com. vs Herbert Stoughton, charge, f. and b. resulted in a verdict of guilty, defendant to pay a fine of $1, costs of prosecution, $25 to prosecutrix, and $5 per month for maintenance of child for the term of seven years; none of the fines have been paid and the defendant is now enjoying himself as a guest of Sheriff Carson.

No further business could be done at this time and court adjourned Thursday evening.

Argument court was postponed until the last Tuesday in July.

On last Sabbath at East Hickory at eleven o'clock, a. m., Eli Berlin Post and their friends were treated to a grand discourse by Rev. J. K. Whippo of the M. E. church. The house was well filled and the best of attention was given by all. The sermon was full of Christ and patriotism, but while the young man was without personal experience in the war, that lacking was fully made up by his ability and large patriotic heart. The boys in blue feel more than satisfied, and will hereafter extend to him a soldiers' greeting. May he live long to admonish our children when the comrades of the G. A. R. shall have answered the final roll call.

LINCOLN EPIGRAMS.

Sentences of the Martyr President Worth Remembering.

Let none falter who thinks he is right. If slavery is not wrong then nothing is wrong. Come what will, I will keep my faith with friend and foe.

There is no grievance that is a fit object of redress by mob law. All that I am, all that I hope to be, I owe to my angel mother.

I authorize no bargains for the presidency, and will be bound by none. This country, with its institutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it.

No man is good enough to govern another man without that other's consent. For 30 years I have been a temperate man, and I am too old to change.

I believe this government cannot permanently endure half slave and half free.

Gold is good in its place; but living, brave and patriotic men are better than gold.

Nowhere in the world is presented a government of so much liberty and equality.

This government must be preserved in spite of the acts of any man, or set of men.

Slavery is founded in the selfishness of man's nature—opposition to it in his love of justice.

In law it is a good policy never to plead what you need not, lest you oblige yourself to prove what you cannot.

If I live this accursed system of robbery and shame in the treatment of the Indians shall be reformed.

Understanding the spirit of our institutions to aim at the elevation of men, I am opposed to whatever tends to degrade them.

The reasonable man has long since agreed that intemperance is one of the greatest, if not the greatest, of all evils among mankind.

The purposes of the Almighty are perfect, and must prevail, although we erring mortals may fall accurately to perceive them in advance.

I protest against the counterfeit logic which concludes because I do not want a black woman for a slave I must necessarily want her for a wife.

I know that the Lord is always on the side of the right; but it is my constant anxiety and prayer that I and this nation be on the Lord's side.

Many free countries have lost their liberty, and ours may lose hers; but, if she shall be it my proudest plume, not that I was the last to desert, but that I never deserted her.

NEWSY NOTES.

Nellie Bly, the famous sensational writer for the New York World, who beat Jules Verne's memorial time in circling the earth, has retired from newspaper work, having married a man seventy-two years of age who is the possessor of $3,000,000. Plenty of girls have done worse than that.

Two young boys in Bear-Falls were anxious to become contortionists, and were told if they would drink fishing worm oil they could bend themselves into any shape desired. They procured a quart of good fat worms and stewed them and drank the mess. It took three doctors several hours to bring them out of danger.

Wm. H. Harris, who published the first daily paper in Erie, "Harris's War Bulletin," died Saturday in the arms of great fame in this part of the country, and after the war was chief of police in Erie, and in the early '80s was a railroad detective. He had a great reputation as a man catcher.

The only male person ever born in the White House, Robert Tyler Jones, a grandson of President Tyler, is dead in Washington. He was the son of Mary Tyler Jones, the eldest and favorite daughter of the president. He served in the confederate army as a captain. In later years he was employed in the treasury department. Since his retirement from that position he has had practically no employment.

The largest map in the world was placed in position in the Pa. R. R. station at Philadelphia. It is 15-feet wide and 112 feet 5 inches in length, and is especially intended to show the ramifications of the great Pennsylvania railroad system in the United States.

The Chambers, the legislative body of Sweden, have voted $4,000,000 to supply the government with funds for immediate use in case of war with Norway.

Ex-President Harrison has received a fee of $15,000 for helping to break the will of James L. Morrison of Richmond, Indiana, whose estate is valued at $650,000.

Don't forget the ice cream festival in the Kepler block to-morrow afternoon under the auspices of the R. T. of T's.

A man in a western town hanged himself to a bed-post by his suspenders. The coroner's jury were some time in coming to a decision in the case, but the foreman, who was a native of Erin, finally announced that the "deceased came to his death by coming home drunk and mistaking himself for his pants.—Er.

TIONESTA'S BIG DAY—Monday, June 3d, Chas. Lee's Great London show, circus, museum and menagerie will pitch its acres of canvas in Tionesta giving performance afternoon and evening. There will be a grand street parade at noon with two bands, gorgeous chariots, open deus, etc., rare wild beasts, 100 gaily-comparisond horses and many novel and sensational features, making the largest and finest parade ever given by any traveling show. The admission to this monster exhibition has been reduced to only 25c. Children to afternoon performance only 15c.
