Master McCabe Howe of Converse, Ind., was the guest of Mrs. J. B. Siggins the last of the week. Get ready to celebrate the 4th, and the best way to do it up brown is to come to Tionesta. Big doin's here. Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dewees of Cleveland, are the guests of the former's grand-parents, Judge and Mrs. J. G. Dale. Mrs. G. W. Richards and daughter of Mayburg passed through town Monday on their return from a visit at New Martinsville, W. Va. Harry, Minnie and Vernie Watson of Golinda, and Bessie Cook of Nebraska, are home from Randolph, N. Y., school for the summer vacation. The strawberry season is over. It has been rather a poor season, few berries having been produced in the northern climate, owing to the early frosts. Henry Kaman, of Meadville, nephew of Rudolph Kaman, of German Hill, has been circulating among friends in this neighborhood for a few days past. Mrs. G. G. Gaston returned Saturday from a visit with Crawford county friends. She was accompanied home by her sister, Miss Etta Ramsey of Utica, Pa. The Coleman brothers, David, Henry, William, Samuel, Jacob and Frank, were all home during the week, and held their annual re-union at the home of their parents. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Yetter of Marienville, were guests of Mrs. G. W. Kerr over last Sabbath. Mr. Yetter reports very great damage to the lumbermen of his section by forest fires. In the notice of the Tionesta Rangers picnic published last week we made it appear that the W. C. T. U. would be invited to take charge of the tables at that occasion. It should have read the Woman's Relief Corps, No. 137. Warren is going to celebrate the centennial of its founding on the coming 4th, and is making elaborate preparations for a three days' blow-out, beginning on the second and ending on the night of the 4th. All hail, beautiful Warren!

Friday last was the longest day in the year. The days are now growing shorter, but you can't see it with the naked eye.

Landlord Agnew is making some substantial repairs about Hotel Agnew, one of which is a new walk and veranda in front.

East Hickory will celebrate the 4th in good old fashioned style, and invites her neighbors to come and enjoy the day with her.

J. M. Kepler, who has been the guest of his daughter, Mrs. J. D. Davis for the past week, returned to his home in Center county, Monday.

All the seasonable fruits and vegetables are to be had at Analer's, who aims to keep the choicest, freshest and cheapest. Also, a fine line of fireworks for the Fourth.

Chas. Kirchartz has purchased the cigar factory of Chas. Whiteman, and expects to move to this side of the river shortly. He has not picked out his location yet but will know in a few days.

We have some narrow widths left in Ladies' summer shoes that sold at $2.00, which we will close out at $1.00. Any one that can wear a narrow shoe should come to Miles & Armstrong's and get a bargain.

Hon. J. B. Agnew is up from Washington, D. C., on business. Mr. Agnew is accompanied by his young friend Wm. F. Griffin, who seems to be enjoying the scenery and delightful climate of our country immensely.

The borough school board has not as yet been able to agree on the principalship of the schools for the next term. Miss Ida Paup and Miss Martha Morrow have been re-elected to their former positions, and Miss Kittie Joyce has been elected to teach the primary department.

Although not generally known, there are two of the oldest people in Western Pennsylvania living within eight miles of Marienville. They are Mrs. McCloskey, aged 106, and Mr. McLaughlin, aged 101, both living near Crown.—Marienville Express.

Our farmers, some of them at least, are not going to be caught napping, and have recently been sowing corn to take the place of the hay crop which has been literally burned up by the dry weather and scorching sun of the past few weeks. A sensible move.

Dr. Gies, the celebrated chiropractor of Youngstown, O., is at the Hotel Agnew for a few days only. Those wishing their corns, bunions or ingrowing nails cured without pain should call on or address him. Dr. Gies has been visiting Franklin, Oil City and Tidioute since 1872.

Tionesta loses one of its steady, honest and all round good citizens in the departure of Geo. W. Walters, who has for many years made this his home. He goes this week with his family to St. Marys, Ohio, where he hopes the climate will be more congenial to his health. Our best wishes go with him.

Rev. S. F. Marks is in it for a grand summer outing. On Wednesday, June 26th, he sails for Europe on the steamer City of Berlin for a two months' jaunt through the British Isles and the continent. He joins a party, engineered by the N. Y. Evangelist, who make Presbyterian history and landmarks one of its principal objects.—Tidioute News.

The REPUBLICAN acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to be present at the Siggins reunion which takes place at Irvineton to-day. Undoubtedly it will be a notable event, and if all who are connected either by blood or marriage should be in attendance the assemblage will be a large one, surely.

There's a sidewalk notice in this paper to which the attention of delinquents is respectfully solicited. Some weeks ago we received a somewhat peremptory "request." We were sufficiently impressed with its importance, and the new sidewalk is right there. We may therefore be pardoned if our attitude in this direction should seem just a trifle important.

The good soaking rains of the past few days have certainly been very welcome, though coming rather late. The great forest fires are all subdued and all kinds of vegetation has taken on new life. While grass is evidently lost for this season, the pastures, which were about burned up, will be greatly improved, thus saving a milk and butter famine. All nature smiles again.

Services are being held in the Presbyterian church each evening of this week. Following are the topics for the balance of the week: Wednesday.—The greatest thing in the world, 1 Cor. 13:13. Thursday.—Why am I a Christian? 1 Cor. 15:10. Friday.—How manifest my appreciation for what Christ has done? John 14:15. Saturday.—"Come thou with us," Num. 10:29. Communion services will be held on Sabbath morning next.

Bert Day and Chas. Andrews of Kelletville, were in town last Thursday, and Bert took home with him one of Scowden & Clark's famous make of buggies, it being the fifth one that left their factory within a week. The staying qualities of this firm's vehicles have become so well known that scarcely any other kind is now sold in this section, and when workmanship and material are considered their prices are below all others.

To-morrow is the day set for the annual re-union of the Northwestern Association G. A. R., at Meadville. A large delegation will attend from this neighborhood, according to the talk, and no doubt it will be the largest gathering of veterans that has taken place for a number of years in this section. The W. N. Y. & P. will run a special train, which will leave this station at 8:42 a. m., returning same day. Fare for round trip $1.20.

Twelve or fifteen barges, and several flat bottoms were started from Nebraska last Saturday, only about half of which got to the mouth of the creek, but all were afterward brought out on a pond-flood. Lawrence & Smeersbaugh started two barges, six sand boats and several "flats" for the lower markets Monday, and Robinson & Wenz also started a number of flats. The water is a little "thin" for sure running, but the pilots felt safe in making the start.

Children's Day was appropriately observed in the M. E. Church last Sunday evening. The exercises consisted of singing and reciting, which was both entertaining and instructive. The children all did remarkably well in their different roles, Miss Nellie Nixon deserving special praise for her excellent rendition of "The Octaroon," a recitation consisting of twenty stanzas. Miss Nixon's elocutionary powers are certainly remarkable for a girl only 11 years of age. The church decorations were unusually pretty and consisted of archways, potted plants and evergreens, through which the national colors were artistically draped.

The Y. P. S. C. E. gave a very unique and enjoyable social at the residence of G. W. Bovard last Friday evening, in which about ninety guests participated. The affair was what is known as a "clothes-pin" social—each lady who attends taking two clothes-pins, which she dresses as dolls, keeping one in her possession and depositing the other in a basket, from which the gentlemen select one each and then hunt up the lady who has one similarly dressed, he acting as her escort for the balance of the evening. A great deal of amusement was caused by some of the queer "matches" made in this way, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. An appetizing lunch, which consisted of ice cream, cake and strawberries, was served by the young ladies of the society, and too much praise cannot be given them for the prompt manner in which they served their guests. The thanks of the society and all present are due to Mr. and Mrs. Bovard for the delicious home-grown strawberries which they donated. After lunch had been served the guests enjoyed themselves in social chat, music, and playing games until about 12 o'clock, when all departed expressing the wish that there might be another such social in the near future.

Oil Notes.

The Standard Oil Co. is drilling a well on the old Fielder place, tract 2828, in Tionesta township, five miles southeast of this borough. The same company has started the drill on the Hammond tract, No. 2825, also in Tionesta township, and in the vicinity of the Tionesta Gas company's territory, on Hemlock creek.

Sigworth & Co. are ready to drill on a tract owned by A. B. Kelly of this place, located on warrant 2821, Tionesta township.

H. M. McCall, who has the general supervision of the Latrobe Oil Co.'s interests of Latrobe, Pa., let the contract yesterday to Grove Bros. for the drilling of a well on the Fred Lohmeyer farm, German Hill, Kingsley township. This company has a very large lease in that section, embracing nearly 2,000 acres, and propose to give it a thorough test. They believe the oil sand is deeper than any of the wells herabouts have yet reached, and the well just contracted for is to be sunk at least 2800 feet. The test will be watched with much interest.
