

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE. State Treasurer, BENJ. J. HAYWOOD, Mercer. Judges of the Superior Court, CHARLES E. RICE, Luzerne...

EVERY Republican in the county should see that his taxes are paid at once, so he can vote at the approaching election. Don't forget it.

ANOTHER star, the forty-fifth, is to be added to the flag to represent Utah. It will be placed at the right of the fourth row from the top.

THE Yankee is still ahead when it comes to a match with his British cousin. In the first of the series of races for the America's cup, on Saturday last, the Yankee yacht, Defender, out-raced the British yacht, Valkyrie, at every point, and won an easy victory, having over eight minutes to spare at the finish.

THE report of pension reissues as a rule are a fraud on the public. The idea generally adopted is that the pension department is watchful of the interests of the veterans, but in most cases it is just the reverse.

W. L. McCracken, who was nominated as the Democratic candidate for Judge in Jefferson county, has declined. The sensible thing for the Democrats in that district to do is to turn in and help elect Judge Reed, the Republican nominee, who is now on the bench by appointment of the Governor.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL WILSON praises "Professor" Wilson's bill, and says that its adequate revenue is highly satisfying. Of course this does not cause people to forget that it created a deficit during July and August of $15,000,000.

SENATOR QUAY'S speech to the Pittsburg delegation who called upon him at Beaver, is not as long as his tariff speech, but it is better, what is of it. He said:

"I need not tell you of the future; it is written in the platform so that he who runs may read, and what is written is written. I have been elected chairman of the state committee, and it will be my pleasure to put the principles of that platform into execution in Allegheny county, as elsewhere."

THE Democratic State convention convenes at Williamsport to-day. They will nominate a candidate for Treasurer and six Superior Court Judges. There is a strong disposition to throw Judge McCarthy, Governor Hastings' Democratic appointee, overboard, but it will scarcely be done.

EX-SENATOR INGALLS, of Kansas, who once described himself as a statesman out of a job, thinks he has been out of a job long enough and has entered upon a vigorous canvass for re-election to the Senate.

his ambition to return to the Senate. Erratic as he is, he would prove a great improvement on the whiskered Peffer. He has brains if he does lack in the proper respect for the decalogue in politics.—Phila. Times.

LOUISIANA is beginning to learn the cost of electing a free trade President and placing a free trade Administration in power. Three years ago the Democratic newspapers of Louisiana assured the planters that their sugar bounties were safe because they rested on a permanent appropriation and a mutual arrangement between the two parties.

Republican State Headquarters.

Senator Quay has opened State Committee headquarters at 1231 Walnut St., Philadelphia, and has appointed Jere B. Rex, of Huntingdon, and W. R. Andrews of Meadville, Secretaries. He has also named the following Executive Committee, subject to the approval of the State Committee at its first meeting, which will be called in short time:

Frank Willing Leach, chairman; Lieutenant-Governor Lyons, Congressman W. A. Stone, ex-Senator Thomas V. Cooper, ex-Lieutenant-Watres, State Senators Thomas, Penrose and Andrews, Lyman D. Gilbert and Samuel E. Davenport.

The Issue of the Future.

The Philadelphia Inquirer says: Free trade newspapers, like the New York Times and the Evening Post, with an occasional corporation organ in Pennsylvania, seek to throw doubt upon the sincerity of Senator Quay's projected reform of the city and State governments and of his determination, with the support of the hundreds of thousands of voters of the State, to eliminate the corrupt and corporate influences that have lately grown so aggressive in State and city politics.

Already among the voices of rejoicing at the overthrow of the city rings and the corporation agents is heard earnest discussions throughout the State of his plan of reform. It is the most vital State issue in many years. It has come suddenly, but the conditions were ripe for it and it has come to stay until these unwholesome influences are indeed "a nightmare of the past."

From all sides come the assurances that the people will help the good work. Even Democrats, stalwart Democrats, say that they will vote for members of the Legislature pledged to the passage of State laws necessary to make this an assured fact.

Benjamin J. Haywood, Republican nominee for State Treasurer, was born in Mercer county, April 12th, 1849, his education was received in the common schools, and at the Iron City Business College, Pittsburg. He embarked in mercantile pursuits, and in 1873 became teller of Morrison's Bank, West Middlesex, Pa., serving in that capacity until 1878. He was Postmaster of West Middlesex for a number of years, Message Clerk of the State Senate at the sessions of 1885 and 1887, and in the latter year was elected Prothonotary of Mercer county for a term of three years.

In 1891, the Comptroller of the Currency appointed Mr. Haywood receiver of the First National Bank of Clearfield. His management of the affairs of this bank was such as to win him the highest approval, not only of those immediately interested, but of the Comptroller of the Currency and other United States Treasury officials with whom his duties brought him in contact. The creditors were paid in full, the stockholders have received a dividend of thirty per cent., and there is a prospect of further dividends. In May, 1894, he was appointed Cashier of the State Treasury, the responsible duties of which position he has discharged with faithfulness and acceptability. Mr. Haywood has always been a Republican, and has been an active worker since he has been old enough to vote. In the local politics of Mercer county, he has been a most prominent figure for many years. He has represented his party in County, Congressional and State Conventions, and is widely and favorably known to Republicans throughout the State. For four years he was Chairman of the Mercer County Republican Committee, and showed himself an able organizer and tireless worker. Mr. Haywood has led an active and useful life. His early training in the banking business gave him a familiarity with that work that stood him in good service while receiver of the Clearfield Bank, and in his present position in the State Treasury. His active participation in local and State politics has given him a wide acquaintance, and his frank and genial disposition has made his acquaintances his friends. In 1893 Mr. Haywood was a candidate for the Republican nomination for State Treasurer, and had a large and influential following. He withdrew before the convention, leaving a clear field for Col. S. M. Jackson, the present occupant of that office.
