Mrs. W. H. Carter, of Kellestville wishes to return thanks to the many kind friends who so nobly assisted her by acts of kindness and words of sympathy in her recent sad bereavement, the death of her husband.

Go to Amaler's when you want a nice basket of grapes, peaches or fruit of any kind. He keeps all varieties and can please you in both quality and price. His tobacco, cigars and confectionery are the finest the market affords.

Pickpockets had a harvest at the Franklin centennial, nearly a score of persons having been "touched" to the tune of several dollars. D. F. A. Wheelock, of Warren, lost his wallet containing $735 in bills, being the heaviest individual loser.

Frank Carr of Jamestown, N. Y., is here for a few days' visit with Tionesta friends. Frank has held an important position on the Jamestown daily All for some time.

The immersion of four persons took place at the river bridge last Sabbath. The exercises were conducted by Rev. F. F. Shoup, assisted by Rev. Walter A. Sellow, chairman of the Oil City district of the Free Methodist church.

The "children's day" festival recently held on German Hill was a pronounced success, notwithstanding the slight rain which threatened at one time to end the outdoor exercises. Everybody present enjoyed the occasion to the fullest extent.

As there will be no service in the M. E. church Sept. 15, the women of the Foreign Missionary society will give an entertainment on that evening. A cordial invitation is given to all. Come and hear what the women can tell of the grand good work.

Prof. Speer reports every seat in the four school rooms occupied, and still there are quite a number of pupils yet to be enrolled. This is certainly a fine showing for our schools, and it furthermore shows the possible necessity of opening another room.

The Franklin News Centennial edition is a very pretty number and a credit to the enterprising publishers, teaming with half-tone engravings of the principal business houses, public buildings, and leading citizens of the city and county.

S. D. Irwin Esq., is taking in the grand encampment of the G. A. R. at Louisville this week, having started for there on Monday. We believe Mr. Irwin is the only veteran from this locality who is there; we have heard of no other, at any rate.

The poles for the new long distance telephone line are nearly all distributed between Tionesta and Pleasantville, where the connection is to be made, and the manager expects to have the line in operation within the next three weeks or less.

The Derrick's souvenir edition of the Franklin centennial, published last week, is one of the handsomest works of the printer's art that has ever appeared in this section, and must be seen to be appreciated. It met with a ready sale and there is still a great demand for it.

Don't buy imitation "seal goat" shoes, but go to Miles & Armstrong and buy the "Hostettler seal goat" shoe. None genuine without the ticket with Hostettler's name on it. We are sole agents for them, and have them in all styles for men, women and children.

The Wesleyan Methodists will hold Quarterly Meeting at their church, Stewart's Run, commencing Saturday evening of this week and continuing over the Sabbath. Rev. S. F. Way will assist Rev. Jas. T. Brennan in conducting the services.

A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The Niagara and Toronto Excursion took a large number from this station Monday morning, somewhere in the neighborhood of fifty having boarded the train here. Excursion Agent Newton accompanied the party, which was a guarantee that all would have a pleasant journey.

Tionesta Lodge was quite well represented at the reunion and picnic of Yokohama Lodge, I. O. O. F., at Tylersburg, yesterday. The rain of the early morning kept a greater number at home, but those who attended report a very nice time and a royal entertainment at the hands of their fraternal brethren.

A very palatable way to prepare bananas for desert is to peel half a dozen ripe bananas. Dip them in beaten white of egg. Then roll carefully in powdered sugar, and place in a hot oven for five minutes. Lift them out on a napkin, and heap on a glass or silver stand. This is a delicious dessert, says an exchange.

John Bush caught a three foot eel near the river bridge Monday morning. He also caught a fire-pounded pike near the same place Saturday evening, that had evidently been caught in an ice gorge, judging from the hump on its back. Some thought the fish might have been riding a bicycle some time or other.

There are some who appear to have doubts as to the legality of typewritten documents, such as wills, leases, mortgages and the like. The last legislature passed an act declaring all writing by means of a typewriter heretofore done or which shall hereafter be executed, for whatever purpose, shall have all the authority and legal force that any similar paper in ordinary writing may have. Of course the signature attached to such documents and papers are required to be in the ordinary handwriting as heretofore.

Latest hats and caps at Miles & Armstrong's.

A good flood in Tionesta creek would revive business along that stream wonderfully just now. Both the Lawrence & Smeatman and Robinson & Weant boat scaffolds at this place are shut down for lack of boat material, plenty of which they have but are unable to get it down the creek. The lower scaffold at Nebraska is shut down because they have the creek so full of boats as to leave no room for turning in any more. A boat flood in the river would let out a large number of boats and barges that would return to the community a handsome sum of cash.

A charter was issued yesterday by the state department to the Kane & Erie Railroad company, capitalized at $100,000, to build a line from a connection with the Philadelphia & Erie and Pittsburg & Western railroad at Kane to a connection with the Tionesta Valley Railroad in Highland township, Elk county.

President, H. J. James, Kane; directors, T. S. James, W. A. James, E. R. James, W. H. Davis, A. P. Haey, Kane; D. M. James, New Haven, Conn. The incorporators of the Kane & Erie Railroad company are also interested in the James Bros. lumber and James Manufacturing companies, which are also chartered. These companies are capitalized at $75,000 each, and are controlled by S. T. James, W. A. James and E. B. James, Kane.—Harrisburg Patriot.

With peaches at 7 1/2 cents a bushel in Missouri, and the quantity of the crop beyond computation, with fruit growers of Southern California throwing carloads of produce into the sea to reduce the quantity, with pears so plentiful in New Jersey that they are left to rot ungathered, and Union City merchants unable to purchase at prices the average workman can afford to pay for the fruit, it looks as though there was something decidedly wrong with the means of transportation between producer and consumer, and that a better system of communication between demand and supply ought to be inaugurated.—Union City Times. The same may be said of all the towns in this part of the country. The exorbitant express charges simply shut out the dealers, and they must depend on the freights, which are too slow for the ripened fruit, and the losses in that direction often amount to almost as much as the outlandish express charges.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Regular meeting of Council held Monday evening, Sept. 9th, 1895, with all members present. Minutes of regular meeting of Aug. 12th, and special meeting of Aug. 21st, read and approved.

Committees on railing to be built on Walnut street, and on location of additional street light above the cemetery, reported progress and were continued.

The following bills were presented and on motion orders for same were drawn, viz: W. L. Hunter, for lighting street lights from Aug. 1st to Sept. 1st, $5.25; for labor done and arresting tramp, 50c, total $5.75. G. W. Robinson, for cash advanced to pay bills on account of May and Vine street sewers, $280.92. Tionesta Gas Co., gas from Sept. 1st to Oct. 1st, $15.75. Tionesta Water Supply Co., water from Jan. 1st to Oct. 1st, 1895, $177.75.

The Telephone ordinance was called up and passed second reading.

The question of prohibiting the riding of bicycles upon the sidewalks in Tionesta Boro was raised and resulted in a long and rather acrimonious discussion, with the result that, upon motion of Clark, seconded by Osgood, it was resolved, that on and after September 16th, 1895, bicycle riders be prohibited from riding upon the sidewalks of Tionesta Boro, under penalty of $1.00 for each offense, one-half to go to the Constable or other officer making the arrest.

Adjourned to next regular meeting.

Franklin's Centennial.

All who attended the Franklin Centennial from this section have nothing but praise to bestow for the royal entertainment received while there. The show was characteristic of Franklin—in the lead in all that she undertakes. Had there been a special train on the river division of the W. N. Y. & P. road on either of the two days, the town would have had not less than 500 more people to entertain. Upward of a hundred would have gone from Tionesta alone, but to break into three days in order to spend one in the city, not 30 miles distant, they could not stand; hence our town was not as fully represented as it would like to have been.

The Derrick says of the Forest County exhibit at the Centennial: For historical value and powers of attraction the display of relics made by the residents of Forest county was not excelled by any feature of the celebration. F. F. Whittekin had a collection of official papers, deeds, grants, land patents, etc., 30 in all, bearing dates ranging from 1783 to 1798, and relating to property in this neighborhood. He also had a small statuette of St. Stephen, made in 1865, a table cloth woven in 1787, a pewter platter cast in 1740, a linen handkerchief woven more than 125 years ago. In addition to these highly interesting curiosities he exhibited samples of the handicraft work of the aborigines of South America, consisting of carvings and inlaid work, drinking cups and ornaments, and some kitchen utensils over 100 years old.

In the Forest county exhibit were also shown a steel engraving of a copy of the portrait in oil of Zolshberger, the Moravian missionary, who was at one time located among the Indians at a point about where the village of Tionesta is located at the present time. The original painting is in the hands of the Moravian historical association, at Bethlehem. In addition to the engraving there was exhibited a receipt written in 1756 for the sum of seven shillings and sixpence for services in running express and paid by the Continental council, now the property of the county of Forest.

A. J. Siggins, of West Hickory, exhibited a collection of weapons, utensils and tools that represented every phase of the stone age. This collection comprised 175 arrow and spear heads of flint or stone, a mortar and pestle for grinding grain, fish net sinkers, drills, pipes, hand hammers, battle axes, Indian pipe, a French hammer, wood gonges, stone skinning knives, stone hatchets and fragments of decorated pottery manufactured by the mound builders; there was also a crescent-shaped war knife and a pipe, both made of copper. This collection was made between Hunter's Station and Tidouine, a distance of 20 miles, and formerly the grounds where a number of small Indian villages were located.

J. B. Muse, editor of Tionesta Vindicator, had charge of the general display of the Forest county exhibit, and in addition to the articles enumerated above had the following relics on exhibition: Watch made in 1855 and now owned by Benjamin White May; Scotch onyx clock, running at the time of Mary Queen of Scotland; an English bible 240 years old; carving knife and fork over 200 years old, and owned by Quinton Jamieson; Chief Complanter's silver cross suspended by a ribbon worked in beads, presented to the noted chief by the Jesuit missionaries; a china pitcher that had been in the family of Henry Shoemaker for 140 years; a sword used in the Revolutionary war, now owned by William Hood; rifle made in 1817, and owned by S. H. Haslet; a gun said to be owned by Complanter, and presented to him by the government in 1812, now owned by Conductor John Walsh, of the W. N. Y. & P.

West Hickory.

Thomas Harry has gone to the G. A. R. encampment at Louisville.

Geo. Hood of West Va. has joined his family here and is calling on old friends.

Mr. S. Morrison and Will Cooper went on the excursion Monday, to Niagara Falls. Mr. Morrison expects to be gone several days.

The M. E. Church society is making extensive repairs to the church edifice here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Widrig went to Garland, Warren county, last Saturday on business.

Our school house is about ready for occupancy. The seats will be placed Wednesday.

Our dentist, J. E. Jordan, is in town this week ready to do work of all kinds.

Ed. Morrison and W. S. Widrig built themselves a barn last week.

Mr. Berney of Tidouine is preparing the Globe Hotel addition.

How careless some people can be. A person here threw some sulphur in the hens' nests and set fire to them and if it had not been for timely assistance we would have had a bad fire.

W. A. Hughes & Son, who started in business at the old Stoughton blacksmith stand, report a very good trade.

Mr. Teed, of the firm of Teed & Morse, who has been sick for a long time, is able to be out around, we are glad to report.

A. W. Lusher has improved his residence with a new porch roof.

SCRIBBLER.

The Erie Conference.

The Erie Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet in the city of Erie on Wednesday of this week, September 11th, for its sixtieth session. Its territory embraces all of North western Pennsylvania, and two counties in the south-west corner of New York, Chautauqua and Fredonia. It was originally part of the Baltimore conference, then of the Pittsburgh conference, and became the Erie conference in 1836, including then three or four counties in Ohio, with the larger portion of Cleveland. In 1876 the Ohio portion was taken off. Its eastern boundary includes Kane, Ridgway and DuBois.

According to the statistics of 1874 it numbered 232 traveling preachers, 44,188 members, its church property was valued at $1,714,325, it paid for ministerial support $159,729, and its benevolent collections were $40,832.

Included in its territory is the famous Chautauqua Assembly, the most noted institution of its kind in the world, and Allegheny College, located at Meadville, one of the old educational institutions of the church.

The coming session will be quite interesting and important. Being the one next preceding the meeting of the General Conference of the church, 5 ministerial and 2 lay delegates to that body will be chosen, and the proposition sent down from the last General Conference on the question of admitting females as delegates thereto, will be acted upon.—Brookville Democrat.

Notice.

I am going to New York to buy my fall and winter goods about the 16th of Sept. All persons indebted to me will please send, or call and settle their account.

DAVID MINTZ.

Kellestville.

Eddy & Wilson have disposed of their logs to Lawrence & Smeatman and T. D. Collins. What logs that are in rolls will be run to the former company, and Mr. Collins will saw the remainder on his mill here.

L. J. Catlin spent a week visiting at home he having had a week's lay-off at Ormsby Junction, McKean Co.

W. S. and G. R. Johnson are intending to be in attendance at the Democratic State convention which convenes at Williamsport this Wednesday.

Oscar Johnson returned to school at Grove City on Saturday.

C. S. Andrews will depart for a year's course at a medical institute in Pittsburg if the course suits him. This is Charles' third year and we hope he will carry away the necessary papers at the close of the term.

School opened in the lower room on Monday with 22 on the enrollment. Miss Jackson, the teacher of the upper room, was unable to open her room on account of sickness.

The hum of the steam thrasher is heard among the farmers. Now for the stories of big yields of grain.

It will be considerable hauling of R. R. iron from this place to Mayburg in the next few weeks. The engine for the tram road at Mayburg will arrive in a few days.

'Tis rumored there will be a pair of weddings in this vicinity ere the type gets cold in this item. Our best wishes go with them through life.

We are pained to be obliged to chronicle the death of Wm. H. Carter, one of Kellestville's most highly respected and honorable citizens, which sad event occurred Sept. 5th, 1895. For two years past he had been a sufferer from a tumor. He was taken to the South Side Hospital, Pittsburg, about three months ago, where the tumor was successfully removed, but being of a malignant character another tumor was soon discovered in his bowels, and developed very rapidly, finally causing his death. A post mortem examination was made by Drs. Detar and Andrews, and upon removal they found the tumor to be a sarcomatous growth weighing eight pounds. It involved all the vicera and sub peritoneal glands of the bowels, and was firmly attached to the posterior of the bowels, the immediate cause of death being rupture of the mesenteric artery. Mr. Carter was aged 40 years, 6 months, and 25 days. He was the father of one child, which died in infancy. He is survived by a sorrowing wife, who has the heartfelt sympathy of all our people in this great bereavement. The remains were conveyed to Dumpsytown, Venango county, his former home, where the funeral took place on Monday.

WILL WALKS.

NEWS NOTES.

Erie is this week in the throes of a centennial celebration.

Do you in Indiana county, potatoes are so plentiful that prophets claim they will be selling at 15 cents a bushel by Nov. 1st.

The Presbyterian Synod of Pennsylvania will meet in annual session in the Presbyterian church at Butler, Pa., Thursday, Oct. 7.

The Era says that there at least 23 cases of typhoid fever in Bradford, and some are quite severe. Several deaths last week from this dread disease. The water is said to be impure.

Hon. C. Binker of Potter township, who has been more or less indisposed for four or five years, died at his home at Binkerton yesterday, in his 74th year. He had been county treasurer, associate judge and a member of the State Legislature.—Clarion Jacksonian.

It is said that there are in the State of Kansas 20 well built towns without a single inhabitant. Saratoga, in that State, has a $80,000 opera house and a number of fine business houses, and yet there is not a single person to claim that city as his home. At Fargo a herder and his family constitute the sole population of what was once an incorporated city.

Pierre Bruno, the Italian who killed Jos. Fiorino in Warren last Memorial day, has been captured at Mt. Morris, N. Y. District Attorney Dunkle received a letter last Monday from the Sheriff at Genesee, N. Y., that the murderer had been found, and the Sheriff was instructed to bring him here if he will come voluntarily. If not extradition papers will be secured by Sheriff Howard and Bruno brought here. At last June court Bruno was indicted for murder, and can be tried next December.—Mail.

Swindling old soldiers who are drawing pensions is a favorite pastime now, and brings to those engaged in the business money which is easier obtained than robbing stage coaches, banks, etc. At Green Briar, O., last Saturday, two dashing fellows with a fine rig, drawn by two snow white horses, drove up to an old soldier's home and, claiming that they were government officials, got $35 in cash and the old man's note for $148. This was given to avoid arrest for obtaining his pension fraudulently.—Meadville Tribune.

Some few things are settled about the fashions of the oncoming season. Furs are to be as popular as ever, and a little higher in price than ever. It was predicted that the full cape had had its day. It has. The fashionable cape for the winter of '95-'96 is to be fuller. The leading house of furriers in the world, the one that makes the styles in furs which obtain in Paris, is a famous Berlin establishment. Their samples, which are supposed to be seen for months yet only by wholesale buyers, show a great many "half length" capes, reaching to the wrists when the hands fall at the sides. Every cape is so full that it makes almost a complete circle when spread on a table.

Send it to His Master in Germany. Mr. Jacob Elmsen, who is in the employ of the Chicago Lumber Co., at Des Moines, Iowa, says: "I have just sent some medicine back to my mother in the old country, that I know from personal use to be the best medicine in the world for rheumatism, having used it in my family for several years. It is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It always does the work." 50 cent bottles for sale by Siggins & Herman.

From all accounts Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a Godsend to the afflicted. There is no advertisement about this; we feel just like saying it.—The Democrat, Carlisle, Ky. For sale by Siggins & Herman.

OBSTRUCTION!

Tionesta River Bridge.

OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER OF FOREST COUNTY, Tionesta, Pa., Sept. 3, 1895.

Notice is hereby given that from and after the 16th day of September, 1895, the Bridge across the Allegheny River at Tionesta will be closed to travel for two weeks from that date, on account of repairs being made.

PETER YOUNG, W. M. COOK, W. A. CONNELLY, County Commissioners.

Any person desiring first-class dental work done will do well to bear in mind that I will be in Tionesta for the week commencing on the first Monday of each month.

R. H. STILLSON.

A Great Leader. We are pleased to inform you that we have received the sole agency for Otto's Cure,
